WEDDINGS

Chestertown M. E. Church was filled on Tuesday evening at 7.30 by beautifully dressed women, with a slight sprinkling of men, to witness the wedding of Mr. Carl Nicholson Bordley, of Chestertown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Bordley, and Miss Ruth Cochell Baxter, the charming and attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Baxter, also of Chestertown.

Long before the time set for the ceremony an anxious crowd was at hand to see the pretty affair. The weather was ideal for a wedding crowd, with bright June skies and balmy June breezes that bore an occasional breath of the fragrance of flowers from nearby yards to those who attended the ceremony in the church.

The church was decorated for the occasion with palms and ferns, many of which were banked about the edifice, and presented a beautiful and fascinating appearance that did justice to such an occasion.

Promptly at the hour of 7.30 the bride, handsomely attired in a white georgette crepe dress, veil to match, and train, entered the room on the arm of her father to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played in a very capable and charming manner by Miss Mabel Toulson, organist of the church and a cousin of the groom. At the altar they were met by the groom and Dr. Houston Toulson, of Baltimore, a cousin of the groom also, who acted as his best man.

Dr. George T. Alderson, pastor of the M. E. Church, assisted by Dr. L. E. Barrett, a former pastor of the church, performed the ceremony that made Mr. and Mrs. Bordley man and wife. The bride was given away by her father, while her sister, Miss Naomi Baxter, dressed in a charming manner, acted as bridesmaid.

The ushers were W. F. Russell, Jr., Galen Vansant, John Speicher and Joseph Wheatley.

"O Promise Me," was rendered by Miss Toulson in an efficient manner during the ceremony, while Mendelsohn's wedding march was rendered as the wedding party was leaving the altar.

A reception followed the wedding at the home of the bride on Washington avenue, after which Mr. and Mrs. Bordley were taken to Elkton by Mr. John Speicher, from which place they left for an extended wedding tour. Upon their return they will reside in Chestertown, where the groom is engaged in the clothing and gents' furnishing business with his father.

Mr. and Mrs. Bordley have a large number of friends in town and county, all of whom wish them both a long and prosperous journey over the matrimonial sea.

The out-or-town and county guests were: Mrs. Baxter, Mr. and Mrs. Bamburger, Miss Lucy DeMoss, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Smith, of Baltimore, Miss Mary Short, of Seaford, Miss Brown, of Cecil county, Miss Clara Robertson, Miss Frock, of Wilmington, Miss Abrams, of Port Deposit.

Mr. and Mrs. Bordley received many beautiful and useful presents.

Mr. and Mrs. William Steel, of Galena, announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary Elizabeth, to Mr. J. H. Smith, U. S. N., on June 17 in Philadelphia.

Horace Price Stoops and Mrs. Eva Kennard, widow of the late Edward Kennard, both of Chestertown, were married last Saturday evening by the Rev. L. E. Barrett.

Mr. Norman E. Peterson, of Chestertown, who was one of the vrst young town, who was one of the first young was at Anniston, Ala., for about a year, and Miss Katherine B. Storey, of Queen Anne's county, were married Saturday night by Rev. George T. Alderson. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Anna Storey. They will reside for the present in Queen Annes county with the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Peterson have many friends in the two counties who wish them success.

The following account of the wedding of Miss Daisy Parthena Jones, sister of Mrs. Harry T. Williams, came from a paper published in the Philippine Islands:

"At high noon Monday, May 12, 1919, at the well known Nipa Club at Corregidor there took place a beautiful military wedding when Miss Daisy Parthena Jones became the bride of Lieut. Ernest Arthur DeWitt, Infantry U. S. Army.

"The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. Roy H. Brown. The bride was given in marriage by Capt. Earle L. Hunt, P. S.

"The services were completely military and were attended by a number of visitors from Manila and other places in the Islands.

"Miss Jones is a member of the Army Nurse Corps, and a sister of Lieut. Col. R. E. Jones, formerly with the 13th Infantry, stationed at Corregidor. Lieut. DeWitt is from Providence, R. I.

"The Nipa Club was beautifully decorated. Potted green foliage marked the aisle through the club proper to the altar, which was draped with the American flag. An impressive ceremony followed.

"From the altar the bride and groom passed under crossed sabers of twelve officers, who were groomsmen and proceeded to the bridal table, where the wedding cake was cut by the bride with the husband's saber, after which members of the wedding party assembled around the punch bowl and under the crossed sabers a toast was given by Lieut. Robert Steil, who attended Lieut. DeWitt as best man.

"The bride's gown was of ivory charmeuse and georgette crepe with trimming of silver lace. Silver slippers were worn, and picture hat of net and ribbon with ribbon streamers. She carried a bouquet of white roses and cadena de amor with ribbon streamers.

"Many handsome presents were received. A sumptuous buffet luncheon was served, followed by dancing."

Baseball Notes

The strong Kennedyville Baseball Club will play the Lorraine Athletic Club, of Wilmington, on July 4, beginning at 3.15 p. m. This club is said to be the strongest club in Wilmington and a great game will be the result. A big crowd of rooters will be present from Wilmington, while Kent county will, no doubt, send an equal number to Kennedyville to help the home boys whoop things up. The Kennedyville boys are always hard players and we look for a spirited contest.

The Chestertown Baseball Club will play the strong Queenstown team at that place on July 4. Manager Blackway has gotten a strong agregation together and we look for a good contest.

CHURCH NOTES

In the M. E. Church Sunday evening there will be a great community patriotic service for the double purpose of observing the national birthday and celebrating the signing of the peace treaty. All members of the different patriotic orders are especially invited and will sit together in a reservation provided for them. The music will be directed by a male chorus. Dr. Alderson, the pastor, will choose for his sermon subject: "America, the Providential Nation." The hour of service is fixed at 8 o'clock to accommodate the worshipping public. It is the purpose to make this a "community service," therefore to the entire public a cordial invitation is extended. Reservations for members of the different orders will be held until 8 o'clock. After that all seats will be thrown open to the public. In the morning at 10 o'clock the Sunday School session will be held. This will be followed at 10.30 by the public preaching service. The mid-week prayer service will be Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Christ M. P. Church, Rev. J. L. Ward pastor. Sunday services: S. S., F. G. Usilton, Supt., 10 a. m.; morning worship, subject, "An Old Fashioned Home," 11 a. m.; evening worship, Christian Endeavor subject, "Loyalty To Our Church and Country," Frank Elburn, leader, 7 p. m.; short sermon by the pastor at 7.30 p. m. Prayer meeting Thursday 8 p. m. Everybody welcome.

The Methodist Episcopal Sunday School of Chestertown will hold its picnic on Thursday, July 17, at Tolchester.

Old St. Anne's P. E. Church, located near Middletown, Del., one of the oldest churches in the country, celebrated its 214th anniversary as a house of worship recently. The parish was founded in 1705.

Services at Bond Chapel tomorrow as usual. Sunday school at 10 a. m. and preaching services at 11 a. m. by Rev. Edwin Gardener, pastor. Everybody welcome.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. G. F. Clark Tuesday afternoon.

Emmanuel P. E. Church was well filled by a large crowd on Wednesday, who were there to attend the Junior Rally. Kent, Queen Annes and Cecil were represented. An all-day meeting was held. At 11 a. m. Rev. H. W. Stowell, Field Secretary of the Province of Washington, addressed the Juniors. Miss Helen O. Jennings, of Pottsville, Pa., was present and delivered an interesting address to the audience on the subject, "Improving Our S. S." At 3 p. m., Mr. J. Arfrom China, spoke on the subject of "China." The meeting was a big success.

Concerning W. C. Boy

The Snow Hill Messenger recently contained the following article concerning Mr. Clyde E. Bounds, a graduate of Washington College this year:

"Mr. Clyde Everett Bounds was among the graduates at Washington College, Chestertown, this week. Mr. Bounds stood third in his class, only five-tenths of a point separating him and the second honor man. This is a most creditable showing, as Mr. Bounds completed the four years' course in two and a half years, six months of the last year being lost at college on account of his enlistment and service in the Naval Reserve Force.

"At the commencement exercises Wednesday morning the degree of Bachelor of Science, cum laude, was conferred on Mr. Bounds, and he also received honorable mention for meritorious scholarship.

"Attention was first called to the scholarly attainments of Mr. Bounds when he won the spelling match in 1914, at the first Field Day Meet held in Worcester county. The next year he graduated at the Snow Hill High School, winning second honors, and being the salutatorian of his class. After teaching a year he matriculated at Washington College, doing uniformly good work throughout his college career.

"Mr. Bounds returned home Thursday, accompanied by his sister, Miss Eunice Bounds, who went Monday to attend the Commencement. His parents and sister, Miss Nellie Bounds, had made arrangements to attend the commencement, but were disappointed at the last minute by an accident to the automobile in which they were to make the trip.

Racing At Sudlersville And Worton

Old Worton Race Track promises to be the scene of some good racing on July 4, commencing at 2 p. m. The track is said to be in good shape for some fast stepping.

Sudlersville will be the scene of five good races on July 4, beginning at 1.30 p. m. The following horses have been entered for the races:

2.20 Trot.—Peter W., Dell Foxx; Norman Baron, W. H. Cacy; Zombro Rex, Emory Everett; Lady Dewey, Enoch Clough; Bonnie L., B. F. Benton.

Free-For-All Pace.—Happy J., Neavitt Booker; Handy Jim, Howard Barwick; Illian W., R. Oscar Roe; Astrolla, Willard Sharp.

2.25 Pace.—Chimes of Maryland, J. T. Smith; Prince, Louis Everett; Pat, Ed. Everett; Dan C., Dan'l Cannon.

2.30 Mixed.—Bessie Volman, Dudley Clough; Silver C., H. D. Dailey; Grey Nips, C. E. Wolleyhand; Col. B., Louis Anderson; Madge Anthony, Ben Redmon; Rusty Lock, Dewey Crossley.

Colt Race.—Geo S., John Smith; Lady Belton, W. B. Seward; Bessie B., Jno. Clough; Uncle Joe, Joe Coppage; Starlight, Norman Walls; Phil Direct, S. P. Goodhand.

Western Maryland College.—The attention of our readers is directed to the advertisement of Western Maryland College appearing in this issue. This institution, located at Westminster, Md., begins its fifty-third year Sept. 23, 1919. It has made a record for thoroughness and efficiency not excelled by any in the state. Its beautiful location in the highlands of Maryland, its excellent equipment in buildings and grounds, its well-trained faculty, its up-to-date courses of study, and its charges kept down to reasonable terms make it an attractive place to get an education. In addition to the usual classical, scientific and historical courses leading to the degree of bachelor or arts, there are supplementary courses in music, elocution, oratory, domestic science and pedagogy. Completion of this last-named course secures the certificate of the State Board of Education. A regular unit of the Reserve Officers Training Corps is established at the college, commanded by Capt. L. H. Richmond, U. S. A., the government supplying uniforms and equipment.

DEATHS

The body of Owen Leslie Harrison, whose death we noted last week, was brought from Baltimore to Rock Hall and interred from the residence of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Biggs Thursday, conducted by Rev. T. C. Smoot. It was largely attended. The bearers were six Baltimore friends. C. L. Dodd undertaker. Interment at Wesley Chapel cemetery. The death was one of the saddest for many years.

One of Kent's best and most highly respected citizens—Mr. Edward W. Hepburn—a retired farmer of this county, died at his home in Still Pond on Saturday morning last, at 3.30, after a long illness of paralysis and heart trouble, aged 72 years. He leaves a wife, three daughters, Misses Rebecca, Alice and Edith, and two sons, William and Edward, and one brother, the Rev. S. S. Hepburn. Funeral services were held at I. U. Church near Worton of which the deceased had long been a vestryman, the Rev. Perigrin Wroth, of Baltimore, officiating, and interment was in the family lot adjoining the church. Undertaker Krusen had charge of the funeral arrangements. The bearers were P. A. M. Brooks, George R. Parrott, Robert A. Bowers, A. H. Stavely, Harry Stavely and Mr. Wallace.

Franklin Taylor Hogan, one of Kent county's oldest and most highly respected citizens, died at the home of his son, John Hogan, near Melitota, last Monday, aged 83 years. The deceased resided for many years at Rock Hall where he has a host of friends among the oldest residents of that community. He is survived by six children, viz, Mrs. Emma Glenn, wife of Geo. T. Glenn; John, Thomas, Joseph, Harry and Miss Sarah Elizabeth Hogan. Funeral was held Thursday, conducted by Rev. Avery Donovan, Interment at Wesley Chap. Undertaker C. L. Dodd. The bearers were Benjamin Durding, Abraham Casey, Frank Mariner, Henry Urie, John Hadaway, Henry Thompson.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

Mrs. A. Leon Brown spent several days the past week in Baltimore attending Johns Hopkins commencement. Mrs. Brown's nephew, Mr. R. C. Thomsen, was a graduate. Mr. Thomsen will practice law and will be connected with his cousin, Judge Soper.

Mr. Arthur Cooper has accepted a position in the Kent News office, while Mr. Rickard Duyer has accepted a position in The Transcript office.
