ARRANGEMENTS FOR CELEBRATION COMPLETED

Big Event Here Will Be One Long To Be Remembered

All the arrangements for the celebration of the home coming of the boys are being completed. We are going to have a good time, boys, and make you forget there ever was a war. You are going to be bombarded, but not with bullets and shrapnel and serious stuff. Come and see how we are going to show our offection and appreciation. It would be much better for you to wear your uniform, then we would be sure to find you and not be bestowing our greetings upon the wrong boys.

There will be a baseball game between the Kennedyville and Centreville teams at the college at 2 o'clock. At 4.30 o'clock all white soldiers and sailors and marines will assemble at the college to join the parade. There will be free cars provided for all of you. Every one in the county is invited to decorate their car and join the parade. Mr. Harrison W. Vickers is chairman of the parade. Communicate with him.

The colored people have decided to have their celebration all to themselves. They will assemble at their uptown school. They have engaged the band from Cambridge for their celebration and will arrange their own celeoration alone.

Another feature of the program will be community singing. Major Swindel is coming to lead us; he can make anybody sing, so get your threats ready, boys, as well as everybody in the county who can sing even a little bit.

Gaul's Band, of twenty pieces, with Mr. Gaul as leader, making twenty-one in all, will be with us. The Decorating Committee is getting very busy and we want every store as well as every house in the town filled with flags and bunting . Every patriotic person will do this, of course. Then the supper will be served in the Court House yard. The other two squares on the main street will have tables for those who bring their suppers to town for the picnic. Help to make this reception to the boys a success by doing your part. Join the parade, give your best to the boys' supper and let us make it a great success.

Mr. Charles H. Grasty, formerly editor of the Baltimore Sun, who was the Paris correspondent for the New York Times and the Baltimore Sun during the Peace Conference, will be the speaker of the evening. Mr. Grasty will accompany the President on his western trip and has been so intimately connected with the great events in Paris that he will be well worth hearing.

PROGRAM FOR THE EVENING

Baseball game at the college at 2 o'clock.

Parade starts at the college at 4.30.

Community singing led by Major Swindel.

Supper for the boys.

Speaking by Mr. Charles Grasty.

Presentation of memorials by Gov. Harrington.

Community dancing.

THE PART FOR EVERY ONE TO PLAY

Everybody in Chestertown must decorate their houses and stores. Everybody in the county must decorate their cars and loan them to the Chairman of the Parade, Mr. H. W. Vickers, for the soldiers and sailors to ride in. We want the parade miles long. Phone Mr. Howard Turner at Betterton or Mr. Vickers at Chestertown about the parade.

People from the country bringing their suppers will find tables in the squares in the centre of the town where they can have their picnic. The soldiers' and sailors' supper will be in the Court House yard. The dish you donate to their table, take to the Court House yard.

The following is the table committee to act as hostesses for those people of the county bringing their picnic supper. These ladies will tell you where to spread your supper and help you in any way possible: Mrs. Wm. G. Smyth, Chairman; Mrs. H. A. Kratzer, Mrs. W. T. Brown, Miss Minnie Brooks, Mrs. Barclay Kilbourne, Mrs. Harry Willis, Mrs. J. E. Watson, Miss Mary Nicholson, Mrs. G. A. Jarman, Miss Edith Hepbron, Mrs. T. S. W. Urie, Mrs. William Jewell.

The following committee has been appointed by Thomas W. Perkins, Chairman of the Committee on street dancing, for the home coming celebration for the Kent County soldiers, and each member of the committee below will please communicate with Mr. Perkins in regard to completing arrangements for this great event: Miss T. Doris Bell, Fairlee; Miss Monala Jones Rock Hall; Miss Marguerite Ahern, Millington; Miss Nan Brice, Betterton; Miss Cynthia Clendaniel, Kennedyville; Miss Grace Wilkins, Pomona; Miss Mary Griffith, Sassafras; Mrs. Isaac Gibbs, Massey; Mrs. James Spear, Millington; Mrs. Roger Harris, Worton; Miss Luhille Parr, Still Pond; Mrs. Wroth Stavely, Lynih; Mrs. Jas. G. Beck, Chestertown.

Drowned At Harris' Wharf.—Wm. C. Bowland, the eldest son of Rev. Bowland, of Coleman's, was drowned at Harris Wharf on Tuesday at about 11 a. m. He was assisting in hauling barrels from Mr. Walter Harris' farm and two of the barrels fell overboard, young Bowland jumping in the water and getting them out, and then sinking, evidently from exhaustion. No inquest was deemed necessary. Undertaker Krusen shipped the body to Princess Anne for burial Thursday.
