MURDER AT MILLINGTON

Howard Green, Colored, Kills His Wife After Dispute At Her Home Early Wednesday Morning

The Kent County annals of crime have record of another instance where the red hand of murder has been successful in its heinous purpose, and the perpertrator of the dastardly crime now awaits in the Kent county jail to see what punishment those who sit in judgment will mete out to him.

In the quiet and peaceful hours of Wednesday morning, when time had two hours hence recorded the midnight hour and was rushing silently toward dawn, Howard Green, colored, killed his wife, Esther A. Green, in cold blood at her home on the outskirts of Millington, with a shot gun, after a dispute over their daughter and other things. Green is about 35 years old, while the woman he slew was 40.

It seems that Green and his wife had separated some months ago, because, he claims, that she kept company with another man and later she and her daughter went to live with Thomas Brown, a young negro, who is being held as a witness, for it was at his house that the crime was committed.

On Wednesday morning at about two o'clock, Green went to the home where his wife was living armed with a shot gun, which was loaded. He forced his way into the house, went upstairs, where the whole family were asleep, and started an argument with his wife, which resulted in him striking the woman, according to Brown's testimony. Brown, who is rather a boy, stepped in to intercede with the man in the woman's behalf, but was pushed down the stairs by Green. Green's wife then said she was going for Officer Davis and have him arrested. Upon her making this statement, Green placed the gun against his wife's stomach and pulled the trigger which ushered her into eternity instantly.

Green is a short, stout negro, weighing about 160 pounds and very dark. His record is not a bad one around Millington.

Coroner H. L. Dodd called a meeting of a Coroner's Jury, which rendered the verdict that the woman came to her death from a shot gun in the hands of Howard Green, her husband.

Upon hearing of the murder shortly after it had occurred, Sheriff Carter and Deputy Sheriff Perkins lost no time in going for Green, who lived about a mile from where the crime was committed. He was undressed when the officers arrived and was handcuffed in a twinkling, being allowed to dress afterward. He made no resistance and seemed to take his arrest as a matter of course and stated to Sheriff Carter that he supposed that he would receive the full penalty.

While the murder occurred at about two a. m., and Millington is about sixteen miles away, before four o'clock, however, the man was in the custody of the local officers. This was quick work and shows that the Kent county officers were right "on the job."

W. F. Russell, Jr., Esq., has been employed to defend the man and he waived a hearing. The case will come up in the October term of court. State's Attorney Vickers will prosecute the man.

LEVERLESS

Not a lever on the harrow. Automatically operated from the tractor. The operator backs his harrow into any angle he desires this being done with a sliding hitch held in the stub tongue.

Can back up any time. If you run too far in a fence corner or for any other reason wish to back up a few feet, you can do so by reversing your tractor. The harrow will take care of itself by automatically straightening the gauge as the harrow comes back. No stop for wet spots. If there is a wet spot in your field you need not go around. Simply pull on the ropes which hang from the tractor seat and the disk gauge straighten up automatically, rolling through the wet ground without turning the soil. Construction is strong and durable. Turns corners easy. One on our floor can be seen and examined. Come in.
