Get Registered.

For years back, there has been more or less talk in our State about the necessity of a new registration. Last winter our Legislature passed a bill providing for a new registration, and this fall we are to have an out and out, bran new registration. Every male citizen, over twenty-one years of age, who has been registered once, must be registered again. It matters not that a voter may have been polling his vote for the last fifteen years without any trouble of registering, he will not be able to poll it this fall, unless he does register. The notice of the summer sitting of registers will be found published elsewhere. The first sitting begins on Tuesday, the eleventh day of July, and continues through the week.

Peaches.

There is no longer any doubt about the peach crop. Here in Kent, where more peaches are grown than upon any other equal area in the whole world, there will be a crop unsurpassed by any previous crop in the history of peach culture, with the exception perhaps of the crop of 1875. Many growers believe the yield of this season, will be fully equal to the yield of that year. The peach yield this year is general. There are plenty of peaches in Jersey, and there will be peaches on this peninsula from its northern boundary to its southern point; and a full crop too. Judging from the statements of our exchanges, there is no county on the peninsula, in which the yield will not be larger than in any year since 1875.

Growers should understand ahead that the peach crop is going to be extraordinarily large, and should not allow themselves to depend too much upon the city markets. It is true that the comparatively light crops of last year and the year before, have rendered canned peaches scarce in the market. It is also probable that the canners of Baltimore and other cities will pack more largely than usual to meet the demand created by a clean market. But, the city canners may be relied upon to buy fruit as cheap as they possibly can; and if they can break the market and force down prices they will be pleased to do so. The only way for the grower to insure himself against an over-stocked market, is to be prepared to utilize his fruit crop at home, by building dryers, and if possible, by canning his fruit himself. It is to be regretted that there are not more canneries in our county. If the grower could average thirty cents per basket upon his peaches at home, the crop would undoubtedly pay very satisfactorily. But when the freights and commissions are deducted from thirty cents per basket, as received in the city, the profits are considerably lessened, and when the usual loss of baskets is taken out, there is very little satisfaction in what remains. The better prepared the grower may be to dispose of his crop, independent of the cities, the more assurance he will have of getting full value from his crop.

The Baltimore "Day" has undoubtedly shown good business judgement in securing as business manager, Mr. Edwin Warfield, of Howard county.

Mr. Warfield is a young man, but has filled several positions that have given him practical business habits. He is also a gentleman of polished manners, and has a large acquaintanceship with leading men throughout the State. As a member of the Maryland Senate, he ranked among those who were quickest in debate, and also among those who were of soundest and most practical judgement. The "Day," under its present name and present management, has developed admirable vigor, and we hope its merits will meet with just deserts.

BALTIMORE IS HAVING THE Grand Army of the Republic, this week. There is to be a new departure in this annual meeting of the Grand Army, in that the Confederate veterans, in their uniforms of gray, are invited to participate in the festivities. Yesterday was the day for the grand parade, and on that occasion the President of the United States and other distinguished guests were expected to be in attendance. Baltimore has been making preparations for the celebration for the past two months, and all arrangements are likely to be carried out successfully.

DONALD CAMERON, who has succeeded the venerable Simon as the Stalwart boss in Pennsylvania, plays a much more rickety game in politics than the old gentleman was in the habit of playing. It appears from the present outlook that Donald is as likely as not to lose his grip on his party in Pennsylvania. It is just possible that Donald may not be returned to the United States Senate by the next Pennsylvania Legislature.

MICHAEL DAVITT, the Irishman who stands only second to Parnell as a home rule and land ownership agitator, arrived in New York City on last Sunday. He proposes to make a short lecturing tour in this country. The object of his visit is to place correctly before the American people the ends of reform aimed to be accomplished by Irish reform organizations.

BUSINESS BEFORE CONGRESS.

THE WORK THAT IS EXPECTED WILL BE DONE THIS WEEK IN THE TWO HOUSES.

Washington, June 18.—The coming legislative week in Congress promises to be a very busy one. The House bill for the extension of national bank charters will come before the Senate as unfinished business at 2 o'clock to morrow, and an effort will be made to press it to a final vote before adjournment. There are indications that the Republicans will endeavor to make the Senate bill for the admission of Dakota as a State the next regular order, but, in view of the Democratic opposition to this measure, the success of the effort to bring it before the Senate is very doubtful.

The legislative, Executive, and Judicial Appropriation bill and the General Deficiency bill, although still in the hands of the Senate Committee on Appropriations, will, it is expected, be reported by the middle or end of the week, and either of them, when reprinted with the committee's amendments, will be given priority over all other business now on the calendar; that by Friday next the House will take up the Pensions Appropriation bill. This is not expected to occupy more than a few hours; and it is therefore thought probable that the Navy Appropriation bill may also come up this week. The expectation of the friends of the Bankruptcy bill that action upon it by the Senate would be obtained during the present session appears to have been practically abandoned.

The rivalry for precedence in the Senate between the bill for the protection of immigrants and the bill to enlarge the powers of the Agricultural Department will probably be determined in favor of the former.

The question of confirming the President's nominations of Tariff Commissioners is expected to be the subject of much controversy in one or more executive sessions this week.

The Utah Commission will probably be confirmed without serious opposition next Tuesday.

Stalwarts at the Seashore.

Long Branch Letter to Baltimore American.

Only a short drive from the Francklyn Cottage, and overlooking George Hoey's beautiful park, Hollywood, is the new and imposing edifice erected by Mr. Hoey for President Arthur. Here, about July 1, will gather the Stalwart hosts about their doughty leader. Here will be seen the portly frames of John H. Starin, Ex-Sheriff O'Brien, Police Commissioner French and others of his old New York cronies. Governor Cornell is also expected to lend his presence for a few days to the jovial throng, and last, but by no means least, the handsome form of the great defeated Roscoe may reasonably be expected to become a guest. At the Howland Hotel, only a ten minutes' walk distant, Attorney General Brewster will have his summer quarters, and scattered around among the other hostelries will be politicians of greater or lesser importance. The South, it is said, will be represented by Mahone, of Virginia, and Maryland by J. A. J. Creswell and others of pronounced Stalwart type.

There will be much to occupy the attention of their leaders during the sultry July and August days besides surf bathing and driving on the avenue. There is an important programme to be perfected for the fall campaign in New York State. Don Cameron and Attorney General Brewster will be compelled to put their heads together to concoct some plan for crushing the independents in Pennsylvania, and as their plan to be successful, must necessarily be supported by the President, he will have to form a third party to their discussions. Mahone, too, will want to complete the delivery of the Readjusters to the administration, so as to have the Federal Congressional districts arranged to suit him and lastly, Secretary Frelinghuysen will be expected to fulfill the almost impossible task of submitting plans by which Stalwart influence shall predominate alike among the voters and office holders in New Jersey. Surely this promises to be a busy summer for the Executive, and he shows his level-headedness in getting into a cooler atmosphere than Washington for his arduous labors.

PASTOR Bradley of the Congregational Church at Birmingham, Conn., whom the deacons lately undertook to expel on a charge of heresy, has formulated a new creed, and a majority of his church have voted to adopt it. It is in its entirety as follows: "This church is an association of believers in Jesus Christ, associated for the purpose of mutual edification in truth and righteousness and for the promotion of Christ's kingdom in the world. We believe that the principles which constitute Christian discipleship are the two commandments which Jesus gave, 'Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and mind and soul and strength,' and 'Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.' We believe, therefore, that any one who accepts these commandments as binding on conscience and life, and who seeks to guide his conduct with God's help by them, is a disciple of Christ, fully entitled to the rights and duties of Christian fellowship." Mr. Bradley does not believe in the verbal inspiration of the Scriptures, and in several other respects his orthodoxy is unsound.

IT is announced that the Seaside Hotel and Land Company, having purchased all the front they desire on the Atlantic coast, embracing eleven farms and 1,900 acres of land, 17 miles from Norfolk, Va., are now having their property surveyed, to be laid out in avenues, streets and squares. Architects and builders from New York and Washington are preparing the plans of hotels, cottages, &c. A party of capitalists from Ohio, Boston, New York and Washington are expected in a few days to visit this new ocean resort. It is likely some of the new hotels will be built of brick, as clay of superior quality is found near the ocean. Arrangements have been completed for the construction of a railroad from Norfolk to the new resort.

The Pension Swindle.

HUNDREDS OF MILLIONS OF DOLLARS TO BE SPENT.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The amount proposed to be appropriated for pensions on the pending bill is $100,000,000. This will make a grand total in four years of $310,239,000.

Under the representation that it would cost $20,000,000, Congress passed the arrears act. To show how fraudulent were the representations, it is only necessary to say that the act will cost the country, first and last, $750,000,000. Of this sum by far the larger part will be dishonest payment. The swindle is going on and growing. The pension system is a stupendous swindle systematized and worked with perfect thoroughness. In 1879 the sum was $35,121,000, which has grown with exact regularity till it has reached $100,000,000. What it will yet come to be there is no telling, only that so long as the present policy lasts it will continue to grow, notwithstanding the vague promises that after awhile there will be a diminution.

It is at this point that the Treasury is unguarded; and no one seems moved with a resolute determination to guard it. To oppose pensioning the soldier is to commit the unpardonable sin. But it is not to pension the soldier the money is paid for. It largely goes to those whom it was never intended should be paid pensions. Tens of thousands of persons all over the country are drawing pensions obtained on essentially fraudulent grounds. Go almost where you will, sound, able-bodied men are regularly drawing pensions the legitimate result of the system under which the business is conducted. A very considerable part of the vast amount annually appropriated must be sheer fraud—besides large amounts to those who are not justly entitled to it—unless it be said that whoever served in the war should have a pension. Bad as the principle is on which the appropriations are made, it is vastly worse to have it aggravated by incompetency, or worse, in the execution. The late commissioner Bently maintained that a large part of the pensions allowed were fraudulent. The frightful increase of itself suggests such a probability. No real attempt is proposed to be made to remedy the freightful evil. The idea seems to be that "the boys" are entitled to have a chance at the overflowing treasury, and the Commissioner appears to be disposed to interfere as little as possible with them. The sentiment of generosity toward the soldier has been and is still being grossly abused.—N. Y. Sun.

HOW DE LONG WAS FOUND.

DETAILS OF THE DISCOVERY OF THE BODIES OF THE ARCTIC EXPLORERS.

NEW YORK, June 19.—The Herald to day received a cable despatch forwarding the report of Mr. W. H. Gilder, the Herald correspondent late with the Rodgers, dated Lena Delta, April 12th, 1882, detailing the finding by Melville of the bodies of De Long's party on March 23. Mr. Gilder says that they were in two places, 500 and 1,000 yards from the wreck of the scow. Melville's search party stopped at the place which Ninderman and Noros passed the first day after they left De Long, feeling sure that the others had not got much further. There they found the wreck, and following along the bank, they came upon a rifle barrel hung upon four sticks. They set the natives digging on each side of the sticks, and they soon came upon two bodies under eight feet of snow. While these men were digging toward the east, Melville went on on along the bank twenty feet above the river to find a place to take bearings. He then saw a camp kettle and the remains of a fire about a thousand yards from the tent, and approaching, nearly stumbled upon De Long's hand sticking out of the snow, about thirty feet from the edge of the bank. Here, under about a foot of snow, they found the bodies of De Long and Ambler about three feet apart, and Ah Sam lying at their feet—all partially covered by pieces of tent and a few pieces of blanket. All the others, except Alexia, they found at the place where the tent was pitched. Lee and Knack were close by in a cleft in the bank toward the west. Two boxes of records, with a medicine chest and a flag on a staff, were beside the tent.

None of the dead had boots. Their feet were covered with rags, tied on. In the pockets of all were pieces of burnt skin and of the clothing which they had been eating. The hands of all were more or less burned, and it looked as if, when dying, they had crawled into the fire, Boyd lying over the fire, and his clothing being burned through to the skin, which was not burned. Collins' face was covered with a cloth. All the bodies were carried to the top of a hill 300 feet high, about 40 versts to the south-west from where they were found, and there interred in a mausoleum constructed of wood from the scow. After completing the tomb, the party separated to search the delta for traces of Chipps' people.

FOUR VERY RICH MEN.

UNCLE RUFUS HATCH GIVES SOME VERY BIG FIGURES THAT MAY BE TRUE.

From the Cincinnati Enquirer.

"Well, there are just four of them in the first class. First, Vanderbilt and his sons, second, Russell Sage; third, Jay Gould, and fourth, James Keene. I suppose you refer to men who have been directly connected with stock operations. Vanderbilt and his sons, who are all together, have got $300,000,000. I am sure that this is not overstated, for the $60,000,000 or $70,000,000 they have in the Government loans represents their interest as it has accumulated. The next man is Russell Sage, who is richer than Gould. He is worth from $60,000,000 to $75,000,000. Gould is worth from $40,000,000 to $50,000,000, and Keene from $25,000,000 to $30,000,000. Those are prodigious figurer. See what they represent of other men's losses, when you look at the present state of the stock market, and what it is tumbling too. There is about $450,000,000 to $500,000,000 in the hands of four men, who have made it all around this Stock Exchange, out of the gambling propensities and the credulity of the people."

"You surprise me in rating Russell Sage so high."

"Well, it is a fact. He has been a cool, steady, strong man, playing no tricks, but scooping it in all the time. I may say for him that if you get his name to a piece of paper it is just as good as any obligation in the world. Gould has been the most dexterous of this lot. Keene represents his name. In character he is certainly a wonderfully keen man. The history of his operations in Lake Shore and Northwestern would be a great subject for one of your letters. He took Lake Shore at 60 and got rid of most of it at a profit of 100 per cent, and in the same way he took Northwestern when it was about 40 and sold most of it at about 300 per cent, profit, for it went up to 126 last year, and stands now at about 130. Vanderbilt now owns the railroad."

NOTICE

QUALIFIED VOTERS

OF THE

Respective Election District OF KENT COUNTY.

THE undersigned officers of registration, for the respective Election Districts of Kent county, at their "first summer sitting," will sit from eight o'clock A. M., to seven P. M. on the Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, after the second Monday in July, A. D., 1882. That is to say, on the 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th and 15th days of July, A. D., 1882, at the respective places hereinafter named for the purpose of registering the qualified voters of their respective Election Districts.

It is thought proper to publish in connection with this notice the subjoined sections of the registration law, which bear particularly upon the rights of the citizen and the powers and duties of the register.

SECTION. 3. And be it enacted, That each of the said officers of registration shall have, in addition to the other powers conferred upon him by this Act, or which may be hereafter conferred upon him by law, during the respective times of his appointed sittings, under the provisions of this Act, the powers of a Justice of the Peace to preserve order and enforce obedience to his lawful commands, at or around his place of registration—to keep the access to such place open and unobstructed, to prevent and suppress riots, tumult, violence and disorder and all other improper practices, at, around or near to his place of registration, tending to intimidation, or to the obstruction of the work of registration, or of the revision of the registration, and to protect and keep safe the registries of voters or poll-books, hereinafter referred to, while in his custody and possession; he may compel the presence of witnesses before him, while sitting as an officer of registration, for all purposes connected with the performance of the duties of his office, by summons and attachments; he may, while sitting as such officer of registration, commit for trial, any person committing, at or around his place of registration, any offence forbidden by this Act; he shall have the power to issue any of said summons, attachments or commitments, when sitting in any county of this State, to the Sheriff of said county, or to any Constable thereof; and when sitting in the City of Baltimore, to the Marshal of Police, or to any police officer of said city; all such processes shall be served by said respective officers in the same manner as if they were issued by a Judge of a Court of Record, having jurisdiction of the subject-matter, or by a Justice of the Peace, exercising police powers within such respective jurisdictions; the Sheriff or Constable, in any county of this State, who shall serve any of said processes, shall receive the same fees, and in like manner, as it is, or may be by law provided, that he shall receive fees in other State cases; but no officer of police, in the City of Baltimore, shall charge or receive any fee for any service performed under this Act; and no officer of registration shall charge or receive any compensation for any service performed under this Act, except such as is provided by this Act.

SECTION 16. And be it enacted, That when any officer of registration shall, at any of his appointed sittings, in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-two, enter into his proper registry of voters of any election precinct or election district, of which he is an officer of registration, the name of any applicant for registration as a qualified voter, he shall immediately thereafter enter in the presence of the applicant, if he is in attendance, in its proper alphabetical place, in both of the poll-books, or lists of qualified and registered voters of such election precinct, or election district, the name and residence of said applicant, as the same are recorded in said registry of voters.

SECTION 21. And be it enacted, That each officer of registration appointed under this Act, shall, within five days after each of the several sittings, in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-two, make and publish in hand-bill form a complete list of all persons registered at said several sittings, and shall, in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-three, and in each year thereafter, within three days after the expiration of his September sitting, and within the same time after the expiration of his October sitting, make complete and publish two alphabetical lists, one of which alphabetical lists shall comprise the names of those persons whom said officers have stricken from any registry of voters, or list of qualified and registered voters, delivered to said respective officers by said respective Clerks of Courts; and the other, one of which alphabetical lists shall comprise the names and residences of the persons whom said respective officers of registration have newly registered as qualified voters in their respective election districts, or election precincts, at their said preceding sitting, and also the names of those persons whom the proper Judges or Judge, acting under the authority conferred by this Act, have or has ordered to be registered in said election district, or election precinct; the said respective officers of registration shall cause said respective lists to be published by hand-bills, posted in such public places as they may respectively select, in their respective election districts, or election precincts.

SECTION 24. And be it enacted, That no officer of registration in this State shall register any name in any registry of voters, of which he may have the custody as an officer of registration, or strike any name from any such registry of voters, or make any other entry in any such registry of voters, except upon a day appointed by this Act, for a public sitting of such officer of registration, nor except between the hours appointed by this Act, for his sitting on such day, except by or under the order of the proper Judges or Judge, as in this Act provided.

SECTION 34. And be it enacted, That if any officer of registration shall fraudulently register, or fraudulently permit to be registered in any registry of voters, or in any list of qualified and registered voters in his charge as officer of registration, any person who is not entitled to be registered therein as a qualified voter, or if any other person not authorized by the proper Judges or Judge, shall inscribe the name of any person as a qualified and registered voter in any registry of voters, or in any list of qualified and registered voters, or if any officer of registration shall fraudulently refuse or omit to register, or shall fraudulently misspell in any registry of voters, or in any list of qualified and registered voters in his charge as an officer of registration, the name of any person entitled under the provisions of this Act to have his name inscribed in such registry of voters, or list of qualified and registered voters, or if any officer of registration shall fraudulently strike from any registry of voters, or from any list of qualified and registered voters in his charge as an officer of registration, the name of any qualified and registered voter entitled to remain inscribed upon such registry of voters or list of qualified and registered voters, or if any person not authorized by the proper order of the Judges or Judge, shall fraudulently strike from any registry of voters, or list of qualified and registered voters, the name of any person therein inscribed as a qualified and registered voter, or if any officer of registration shall enter the name of any person as a qualified voter in any registry of voters in his charge as an officer of registration, at any time except on a day appointed by this Act for one of his public sittings as an officer of registration, and except between the hours appointed for such public sitting, or if any officer of registration shall do any act which is by this Act forbidden to be by him done, or shall omit to do any act which is by this Act required to be by him done, such officer of registration, whether he be a principal or assistant officer, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof by a competent Court, shall be punished by fine, not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding three years, or both fine and imprisonment as aforesaid.

SECTION 35. And be it enacted, That if any person shall fraudulently register, or attempt to register, in any election district, or election precinct, in this State, in the name of any other person, living or dead, or under any fictitious name, or shall fraudulently cause himself to be registered, or attempt to cause himself to be fraudulently registered in any election district, or election precinct in this State, knowing that he has not the right to be registered in such election district, or election precinct, or shall, by force, threats, menace, intimidation, or other unlawful means, prevent or hinder, or endeavor to prevent or hinder, any person having a lawful right to register, from duly exercising such right, or who shall compel, or endeavor to compel, by any such means, any officer of registration to admit to registration any person not legally entitled thereto, or who shall unlawfully interfere with any officer of registration in the discharge of his duties under this Act, or who shall make any assault or commit any assault and battery, or incite or create any riot or breach of the peace, at or near to any place of registration in this State during the sittings of any officer of registration provided for by this Act, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof by a competent Court, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding three years, or by both fine and imprisonment as foresaid.

OPERATIVE in KENT and QUEEN ANNE'S COUNTIES.

Passed by the General Assembly of Maryland at the January Session, 1882, and published by the authority thereof:

Catching Fish in Chester river and its Tributaries.

CHAPTER 333.

AN ACT to repeal, amend and re-enact Section one of Chapter One hundred and fourteen, of the acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at the January Session, eighteen hundred and eighty, entitled "An Act to better regulate the time and manner of taking and catching fish in the waters of Chester River and its tributaries lying within the counties of Kent and Queen Anne, in this State.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That sections one of chapter one hundred and fourteen, of the acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at the January session, eighteen hundred and eighty, entitled "An act to better regulate the time and manner of taking and catching fish in the waters of Chester River and its tributaries lying within the counties of Kent and Queen Anne, in this State," be and the same is hereby repealed, amended and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

SECTION 1. That it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to take, capture or destroy fish in the waters of Chester River or its tributaries in Kent and Queen Anne counties by seines, drag nets, fish baskets, fish pots, weirs, pound nets, fykes, or any other means or contrivance which is now known or used in capturing or destroying fish, or which may hereafter be invented for that purpose, from the first day of June to the first day of October, except with hook and line, provided, however, that seines or nets may be used for the taking of taylors and mackerel fish, provided the meshes of such nets or seines are in the bar not less than one and seven-eighth inches or in the mesh less than three and three quarter inches.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act be and the same is hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

We hereby certify, That the aforgoing is a correct copy of an Act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed January Session, 1882.

Approved May 3d, 1882.

J. M. MILLER,
Secretary of the Senate.
JOSEPH E. SETH,
Chief Clerk of the House of Delegates.
