LADIES' WHITE SHOES

AT REDUCED PRICES

Do you want a pair of White Shoes to finish up the season at about half price? The remainder of our stock of Ladies' White Shoes, representing 14 styles, has been greatly reduced in order to clear them out quickly. These are genuine reductions, and are well worth buying.

Good stock of Ladies' Low Cut Shoes at regular prices.

C. C. JONES---The Shoe Man,

Phone 222—J. CHESTERTOWN, MD.

The War and Influenza.

were two abnormal conditions appertaining to Life Insurance that came to the surface during the year just passed, concerning which we simply state and we have pride in the manner the conditions were met.

THEY FOUND THE BALTIMORE LIFE INS. CO. PREPARED

The death claims among those of our policy holders who were in the SERVICE, and the death claims caused by the epidemic of FLUE and PNEUMONIA, approximating a QUARTER OF A MILLION DOLLARS (from those two causes alone) were paid immediately on receipt of proof of death, and not one claim was held in our office seven hours.

IT PAID ITS CLAIMS.

For further information apply to
WILLIAM E. EMBERT, Agent,
P. O. Box 35
j5-tf. Chestertown, Md.

WANTED

100,000 Bushels of Wheat, for which the highest market price will be paid. Can be delivered at all railroads and water points.

A. S. TURNER, j21-tf. Chestertown, Md.

MONEY TO LOAN.

IN SUMS TO SUIT ON GOOD REAL ESTATE.

JOHN D. URIE, Att'y, a20-tf. Chestertown, Md.

Office Phone No. 237
Office on Cannon Street
Residence Phone No. 60.

WM. C. SUTTON

Steam and Hot Water Heating

Sanitary Pl nbg

IN ALL ITS BRANCHES
Chestertown, Md.

Blackway Bros.,

Chestertown, Maryland,

DEALERS IN

SOFT DRINKS!

"The Kind That Satisfy."

TRY

Red Seal,

"The Drink That is Right."

THOMAS W. PERKINS, Inc.,
Office 105 Court St.
Chestertown, Md.

TRUSTEE
and
ADMINISTRATOR

INVESTMENTS
INSURANCE
Fire and Life

Your business solicited with the assurance that it will be transacted with scrupulous integrity and solely with a view to your interests.

MR. FARMER,

SPRING IS HERE,

And it is now time to look over your IMPLEMENTS, HARNESS, etc., preparatory for your year's work. Call and see us and let us help you.

WE CARRY

Genuine Oliver Plows, both Walking and Sulky, and Castings for same.

New Idea Manure Spreaders, New Way and Black Hawk Corn Planters, Spike, Disc and Spring-Tooth Harrows, Rollers, Hay Rakes, Mowers, Ontario and Thomas Grain Drills, Dearborns, Farm Wagons, Harness, and all kinds of

Farm Supplies

Prices Lowest consistent for quality of Merchandise furnished.

Yours for business,

The Graham & Thomas Hardware Company

R. F. Parks Building, Chestert'n.

—Subscription to The Transcript $1 per year.

FOR SALE

Eight large type pure bred Poland China Pigs, weighing about 20 to 25 lbs. each, 8 weeks old. Four males and four females. Entitled to registration.

WM. B. WILLIS,
j12-3t* Worton, Md.

ESTEY

An Organ for the School

VOLUME and variety of tone in a small organ for school use means that you need an Estey. We can show you several organs that are particularly fitted for furnishing school and chapel music. Being Esteys, their sweet tone quality is assured.

W. P. Newnam,
CHESTERTOWN MARYLAND

During the war of course building patriotically was restricted to essential construction.

Best Lump Coal For Threshing.

To consolidate the prosperity of peace build

GENERAL BUILDING CONTRACTORS
OUR SERVICE COVERS MANY YEARS OF PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE

LUMBER MILLWORK ESTABLISHED 1893 CEMENT COAL

W.S.&A.M.CULP

PHONE 5

BUILDING MATERIALS

CHESTERTOWN, MD.

AUGUST SALE OF SUMMER SUITS

YOU ARE QUITE FAMILIAR

With the good values we offer at our regular prices, so it will be an easy matter for you to figure out how much you will save by buying a suit now, when you can get one for exactly ¼ less than regular prices.

$18.00 Suit less ¼, $4.50—$13.50
$17.00 Suit less ¼, $4.25—$12.75
$15.00 Suit less ¼, $3.75—$11.25
$14.00 Suit less ¼, $3.50—$10.50

These Suits are made of Mohair, Palm Beach, Panama Cloth and Cool-Cloth, and are tailored by Isaac Hamburger & Sons.

We have them in Stouts, Regulars and Slims and a fair assortment.

All alterations at cost.

VANSANT & NEWSOME,

Progressive Head-to-Foot Outfitters, Chestertown, Md.

LOCAL MATTERS

Indiantown Is Sold.—The Eastern Maryland Live Stock Association reports that it has purchased the entire Indiantown property, which includes the holdings of Mrs. Mary K. Emory and son, Mr. E. B. Emory. This splendid estate is beautifully situated on the Chester River and is one of the wharves of the Chester River Steamboat Co. The entire tract contains more than 400 acres. Price around $30,000.

Chautauqua.—One week more, and then the Chautauqua, and every season ticket should be sold. These tickets, which admit the holder to all sessions, are only $2.50 for adults and $1 for children up to 1 5years of age for the entire week of instruction, entertainment and pleasure. All Season Tickets are transferable; and they provide the cheapest, safest and best way to attend the Chautauqua. Do not fail to urge your acquaintances, your friends and the people generally to buy them; and do not forget to secure yours now. They are on sale at Jefferson's store.

Boys' Rat Killing Contest.—All boys or others who were either in or helping with the Boys' Rat Killing Contest carried on last winter and this spring under direction of Mr. L. L. Burrell, former County Agent, will please send in data to Horace B. Derrick, County Agent, Chestertown, Md., before Sept. 1, 1919. Mr. W. W. Hubbard, president of the Peerless Fertilizer Co., had offered a cash prize for the winner of this contest and the contest will be closed in regard to receiving data Aug. 31, 1919. Letters in regard to number of rats killed during the contest should be verified by one or two men or women.

LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

—Let us all pull together and put the Chautauqua "over the top."

—The bricklayers have finished their work on the big garage on Cross street.

—Mr. C. Arthur Bacon has taken a position with the Noland-Bennett-Russell Co.

—H. Sachs & Son have received a part of their large order of Christmas goods.

—Mr. E. R. Anthony is enlarging his hot houses at his farm in Queen Annes county.

—Don't forget the Chautauqua. The tickets are now on sale at H. F. Jefferson & Bro.'s store.

—A tractor demonstration was held Wednesday at the farm of Mr. S. S. Hoover, near Fairlee.

—H. F. Jefferson & Bro. will open their fall and winter millinery department next week.

—Mr. Geo. W. Dickerson, of near Ewingtown, Queen Anne's county, has purchased a 25-acre farm near Price.

—The Delaware State Fair will be held at Wilmington, Del., on September 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5. A big fair is the prospect.

—Grape juice with a dash of snuff in it is said to be the latest drink in Chestertown. They say it has the kick too.

—The Fountain reward of $5000 was given out on Wednesday by Mayor Wrightson, of Easton, and States Attorney G. A. Butler.

—The returned soldier boys will be given a big reception by the people of Kennedyville and that section next Tuesday afternoon.

—The Chestertown cannery put up about a hundred cases of tomatoes one day recently. The season won't start for several weeks, however.

—Kennedyville is surely coming to the front with new and attractive residences, which make it one of the prettiest towns in the county.

—The Tolchester Co. has an adv. in this paper suggesting the people go to Baltimore next week while the Louise is making three trips a day. See adv.

—The home of Henry Blake, colored, in Quaker Neck, about a mile from Chestertown, burned to the ground yesterday afternoon. Cause unknown.

—The daylight savings plan will be abolished after October. The bill to abolish the same was passed in the Senate over the President's veto on Wednesday 57 to 19.

—Gov. Harrington has notified Mr. F. G. Usilton and Mr. S. J. Lee that they have been selected to represent Kent at the Farmers' Congress to be held in October at Hagerstown.

—Dr. H. C. Hughes airedale killed a monkey at Betterton on Friday night. It is said the monkey jumped into "Mike" and the dog just wouldn't stand it.

—Mosquitoes are worse in Chestertown this summer than they have been for years. It is thought this is due to the many rains, which have filled the surrounding low lands with water.

—Prof. Martin Ten Hoor has been reappointed to the faculty of Washington College after an absence of over a year. Prof. Ten Hoor went into the service and did good work for Uncle Sam.

—The seeds of Bolshevism are being wafted here from Europe, but they will not find the same fertile soil as in other less fortunate nations. The reaction against riots, strikes, etc., is coming sooner or later.

—While feeding her poultry Monday Mrs. David Wolcott, of Wye Mills, discovered a black snake in her chicken house. The reptile was killed and cut open and it was found that it had swallowed a good-sized chicken.

—Joshua W. Clayton, Esq., was appointed State's Attorney for Cecil Co., to fill out the term of Col. C. B. Finley, which expires Jan. 1, 1920. Col. Finley has become associated with Joseph Brinton, Esq., of Philadelphia, in the practice of law.

—Captain J. Thomas Kibler will return to Washington College as athletic instructor, if he is discharged from the army in time. Captain Kibler is one of the best athletic instructors the institution every had and every lover of sport in Kent county will be glad to see him return.

—Mr. John W. Barnes, clerk of the Modern Woodmen of America, received this week an order for $1000 to be paid to Mrs. Daisy Reinhart, which was the amount of insurance carried by Mr. Carey W. Reinhart in the Modern Woodmen. The clerk has paid to beneficials $15,000 in the past ten years.

—Mr. Jack Clendaniel, who has been residing in Wilmington since his was discharged from the army, will move to Chestertown and start in business. It is reported that Mr. Clendaniel will have the automobile agency for the Eastern Shore of the Overland car. Mr. Clendaniel is an experienced auto man and we welcome him to Chestertown.

—Mr. C. F. Parks called at the local postoffice in Chestertown and paid deferred postage on a small parcel which had been collected from one of the street letter boxes one day recently and discovered that it contained a handsome watch and diamond pin, valued at between $400 and $500, which had either been stolen from his home or lost. Nothing was in the package to indicate who was the sender.

—Mr. Hyland Crew, expert machinist at Davis & Satterfield's big place of business, had a narow escape on Wednesday morning at Quaker Neck. Mr. Crew was repairing a gasoline engine when the gasoline tank exploded. Mr. Crew was painfully burned on the hands, and it was only by heroic efforts on his part that the place where he was working was kept from catching on fire.

DEATHS

The Rev. Dr. John S. Bowers, four times president of the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church and for many years pastor of Alnutt Memorial Church, Baltimore, died Wednesday at his home in New Freedom, Pa., where he had lived since retiring from the active ministry two years ago on account of ill health.

Dr. Bowers was 60 years old and was a son of the late Rev. Dr. Samuel Bowers, also of the M. P. Church. He was born in Chestertown and was a graduate of Western Maryland College and entered the ministry in the Maryland Conference in 1881. Besides other pastorates in the state he occupied the pulpit of St. John's Church, Baltimore, for 17 years, after which he was stationed at Alnutt Memorial until his retirement. He was president of the Maryland Conference from 1912 to 1917, his first election being contested hotly, but the other three were almost unanimous on account of his efficient and wise administration of affairs.

Surviving are his mother, and sister, Mrs. William Aldridge, of Chestertown, his widow and three sons, Daniel and Frank Bowers, of Baltimore, and Dr. Cole Bowers, of New Freedom, now in the United States Army. Mr. Thomas D. Bowers, postmaster at Chestertown, is his brother.

The funeral will take place today and among the officiating clergymen will be the Rev. Drs. J. M. Sheridan, Francis T. Little and W. H. Litsinger. Burial will be in the New Freedom Cemetery.

(Contributed)

John R. Rollison, son of the late Charles H. Rollison, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. J. Beck, Bustleton, Phila., Pa., on August 10, 1919, aged 51 years. He had suffered over a year from a complication of diseases. When a boy 16 years of age he entered the store of the late Thos. S. Wickes, of Chestertown, and remained there until the death of Mr. Wickes. He then went to Manchester, N. H., and was in business there until a few months ago; owing to ill health he closed out and came south to the home of his sister, accompanied by his wife, who was Miss Olive Wheatley, of Cookshire, Canada, and to whom he had been married about nine years. His body was brought to Kent and rested in Wesley Chapel Church over night on Tuesday and was buried on Wednesday in the adjoining cemetery, Rev. Mr. Raum officiating. Mr. C. L. Dodd undertaker.

The death of Mrs. Lydia J. Steel, wife of Mr. William Steel, of Galena, occurred at her late home on the 14th of August, after a short illness, aged 61 years. She leaves her husband, two sons, one daughter and an adopted son. Mrs. Steel was a lady who was fond of young people particularly and had a host of friends and acquaintances. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Frank White, assisted by Rev. A. P. Prettyman and were held at her late home Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, interment at Galena cemetery. Undertaker W. H. Krusen. The following were the bearers: Heston Ford, Alexandria Powell, John Newnam, William Holden, Thomas Pinkind, Earl Barnes.

Mrs. Mary J. Hill, widow of the late Capt. Daniel Hill, and one of the most prominent ladies of Kent, died at her home near Kennedyville on Friday morning at 11.30, after a long illness of sarcoma and paralysis, aged about 73 years. She leaves five sons, Robert R., Webster and Harry, of this county, and Walter and Frank, of Baltimore, and one daughter, Mrs. G. R. Rash, of near Kennedyville. Funeral services were held at her late home near Kennedyville on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Wooden, of the Kennedyville M. P. Church, officiating. Undertaker W. H. Krusen. The bearers were her five sons named above, her son-in-law, G. R. Rasin, and her two grand sons, Raymond Hill and Harry Rasin. Interment was in the family lot in Still Pond cemetery.

After a long and lingering illness, Mr. Charles L. Wheat, keeper of Chester river bridge at Chestertown, died at his home near the bridge on Monday afternoon of cirrhosis of the liver, aged 59 years. Through the years of his suffering he had the untiring and faithful devotion of his loving wife and children. He is survived by his widow and the following children: Albert L., Myra C., Annie L., Lydia B., at home and Mrs. Norman Nelson, of Chester, Pa. Funeral services were Wednesday afternoon conducted by the Rev. L. E. Barrett. The pall-bearers were John Jester, Charles Rolph, Wm. A. Burk, Wm. B. Stafford, Chas. D. McClary and Thomas Meeks. Undertaker C. L. Dodd.

Mr. Emanuel Beck died last Monday at the home of his son, Mr. Albert Beck in Piney Neck, aged 88 years. His remains were taken to Baltimore via Rock Hall on Tuesday and interment made at Owings Mills, Baltimore county, the former home of the deceased, on Wednesday. He leaves eight children. Undertaker C. L. Dodd.

Mr. John R. Toulson, formerly of Chestertown, died at Hope Farm, near Wilmington, on Thursday last of tuberculosis, aged 57 years. He is survived by a widow and one son, Herbert Toulson. His remains were brought by train to Chestertown on Saturday evening and rested at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Everett. Funeral services were held at Protestant Church at Double Creek corner, near Crumpton, Sunday at noon, interment in cemetery adjoining. C. L. Dodd undertaker.

The death of Mr. D. L. Stevens, a brother-in-law of Messrs. Frank and Allie Robinson, occurred at West Grove, Pa., August 15.

Mr. Thomas F. Dunn, editor of the "Dover Index," and one of the best known country newspaper men of the state of Delaware, occurred at Dover Saturday. For several years he was president of the Delmarvia Press Association.

ROCK HALL

Mrs. Emma Estting has been entertaining at her summer home in Green Lane a number of friends from Baltimore, consisting of Mrs. Yates and daughters, Miss Gertrude and Miss Ella, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cox, Mr. David Crowley, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Mahlin and family, Mr. Fay, Mr. Shultz and Mr. Jenkins.

Mr. Noble Gears, of Worton, has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. James Middleton.

Mrs. Roberts and children, of Baltimore, are visiting Mrs. Roberts' mother, Mrs. Ella Middleton.

Mrs. Nora Wilkins and daughter, Eloise, spent last week end with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilkins.

Miss Stella Biddle and Iona Apsley have returned home after finishing a course at summer school at Johns Hopkins.

Miss Mildred Durding, of Washington, spen tSunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Durding.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bachman, of Baltimore, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Judefind.

Shoe Sale

$3.50 and $4.50

$3.50 for Rubber Soled Low Shoes, Black and Russetts.

$4.50

For Black and Russett Rubber Soled High Shoes, and Black and Russett Low Shoes with Leather Soles.

Boyden Low Shoes

1-4 Off

The Finest Shoes made; Blacks, Calf Skin, Vici and Patent Colt, Russetts in Calf Skin and Vici.

$11 now $8.25

May be $12 to $15 next year and not a Shoe in the Sale can be bought for the Price today at Wholesale.

MULLIN'S HOME STORE

WILMINGTON

B. B. C.

20th YEAR

Learn business methods in a business atmosphere and be prepared for a business career.

Beacom's has a national reputation—is recognized as one of America's best business colleges.

Bookkeeping, Accounting, Secretarial, Civil Service, Commercial Teaching, Shorthand, and Complete Business Courses. Reasonable Rates.

An Expert at the head of each Department. 1200 students a year. A large faculty. A position at graduation. Free employment service thereafter. A Beacom diploma is a passport to success.

Catalog sent on request. Write for it today. Many seats have been reserved for September and October.

BEACOM BUSINESS COLLEGES

ACCREDITED

Tenth & King Street, Wilmington, Delaware
Masonic Temple, Salisbury, Maryland

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc6000_34_1-0694