WEDDINGS

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fletcher announce the marriage of their daughter, Grace Vickers Fletcher, to Mr. Frank H. Burhorst, of Baltimore, contractor and builder.

Miss Ida Jester, the popular young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J .T. Jester, of Chestertown, became the bride of Mr. Edward Blackway, son of Mrs. Harry Pfeffer, and one of Chestertown's most popular young men, on Tuesday at Elkton, Rev. Jones, pastor of the Elkton M. E. Church, performing the ceremony, after which the happy young couple left for a honeymoon trip. They are now at home and will reside in Chestertown. Mr. Blackway is one of hustling proprietors of the Chestertown Bottling Works and has recently returned from overseas, where he was a sergeant-major and did good work. Miss Jester has been one of the efficient clerks in the store of H. F. Jefferson & Bro.

The marriage of Miss Addie Coburn Gale to Capt. Alfred Houston Noble, U. S. Marines, took place in Baltimore Tuesady morning, Sept. 9. Capt. Noble has just recently returned from overseas, where he served with the 6th Reg. Marines, 2nd Div. He was twice cited for his excellent leadership and awarded the D. S. C. and the Croix de Guerre. After the ceremony the bride and groom left by way of New York for St. Thomas, Virgin Islands, where Capt. Noble is to serve with a detachment of marines.

Mr. W .N. Stevens, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Stevens, of Rock Hall, and Miss Arline Dorothea Crocker, of S. Paris, Maine, were married Aug. 20 at Boston, Mass., where Miss Crocker was engaged in lyceum work. Mr. Stevens was honorably discharged from service July 7.

Kent Post Formally Organized

An enthusiastic meeting of the members of the Kent Post of the American Legion was held on Tuesday evening in the Court House. The veterans of the war were called to order by Chairman Frank B. Hines, who suggested that the organization should first of all establish a permanent name for itself, and upon the motion of Dr. G. A. Jarman the name of "Kent" was unanimously adopted as the designation of the local post. The next in order was the nomination and election of officers. Dr. Frank B. Hines was elected Post Commander; Wm. Frazier Russell, Jr., Post Adjutant; and Robert R. Ayres, Post Treasurer. Mr. Gault Applegarth and Dr. G. A. Jarman were elected delegates to the State Convention to be held in Baltimore on Oct. 3; Mr. H. P. Skipper and Mr. Conlyn Noland were chosen as alternates.

This meeting was really the first one to establish an organization of permanency, notwithstanding several meetings have been held before. Kent Co.'s best citizenship is represented in the Kent Post, and the meeting on Tuesday night was of such a nature as to inspire great confidence in a future of usefulness and strength for this Post. It would be well for all the soldiers, sailors and marines who served honorably between April 6, 1917, and Nov. 11, 1918, to communicate with the Post Commander or Post Adjutant and get some helpful information concerning this great organization, which even now promises to be one of the largest, strongest and best fraternities in the world.
