

1815.

City Council.

Correspondence.

- 380. Paving Streets, commissioners report on appropriation for.
- 381. Resignation of Jas. Calahan, member of 2nd branch City Council March 28, 1815.
- 382. Resignation of City Commissioner, Peter Bond.
- 383. Resignation of Samuel Frey, member of the 1st branch.
- 384. Riding School, offer to rent to city.
- 385. Scow, offered city by inventor.
- 386. Supt. of sweeps, William Kerr, mayor assumes the death of.
- 387. Tax, on real and personal property.
- 388. Votes for city officer.
- 389. Wharfage, a proposal to leave.

Ordinances.

- 390. Auctions, to license and regulate.
- 391. Beef and pork for the inspection of.
- 392. Charcoal to be measured and inspected.
- 393. City Collector, extending time to complete collection.
- 394. City Commissioners and Wm. McMechen, Geo. Prestman, an agreement between.
- 395. City Commissioners, Health Commissioners, Port Wardens to unite duties of.
- 396. Firewood, cording of.
- 397. Flour, inspection of. A supplement.
- 398. Harbor, appropriation to deepen and preserve.
- 399. Harbor, to preserve the navigation of.
- 400. Harbor, to preserve and provide for the exercise of powers of port wardens.
- 401. Lottery, to appoint managers of raise money for house of industry.
- 402. Port Wardens, providing for the appointment of.
- 403. Tax, to impose on real and personal property.
- 404. Weights and Measures to regulate and inspect.
- 405. Weights and Measures to regulate and inspect.
- 406. Wharves, public, to regulate.
- 407. Wharves, public, to regulate.

Resolutions.

- 408. Accountants appointed to investigate accounts of former collector Fowler.
- 409. Appropriation bill $1000 added for buying lot for an engine house. First Baltimore Hose Company.
- 410. Appropriation bill $400 added for filling and graveling South and Market St.
- 411. Bridge, Harford and Queen Streets, repairing, enlarging walls of.
- 412. City Collector, Benj. Fowler, dispute between securities for, and the corporation.
- 413. City Powder Magazine, repairing of.
- 414. Chancery Court, suit in, city corporation Vs. Cumberland Dugan and heirs of Thomas McElderry.
- 415. Concord Street, repaving account, money refunded to James Williams.
- 416. Council members forbidden to hold other office under ordinance of the corporation.
- 417. Defence of city, thanks to Maryland Virginia Militia for services rendered during war attacks.
- 418. Defence of City, thanks for services rendered by the Militia from York, Hagerstown, Hanover, and from Marietta, at the battle of North Point.