Annapolis July 17th 1812

Sir

The inclosed letter from Frederick Harwood, I have considered my duty to lay before your Hon.d Board - merely saying that if Mr Harwood succeeds in his wishes, there can be no doubt on my mind of the duties assigned him being faithfully and zealously executed; and to which, Mr Harwood being one of the faculty of Methodisty, and some of that class filling simply of Conscience - the offt. of Mr H. may materially aid the service

Your obt. Servt.
