THE THIRD NATIONAL BANK

OF CHESTERTOWN, MD.

The Only National Bank in Kent County

BE CAREFUL AND SYSTEMATIC:

People who pay their bills by check get a reputation for being CAREFUL and SYSTEMATIC in their business dealings. Such a reputation means much in the establishment of credit. It costs no more to pay your money out by check than it does to use the hard cash, and you have the advantage of having it in a place that is absolutely safe.

To have money in the bank is of itself a valuable asset, and it is possible to practically everyone without one cent of cost. It takes no more money to do business by the checking method than it does by the cash-in hand method. A checking account can be made a very convenient system of book-keeping, commending itself especially to those who feel that they do not have enough business to justify the keeping of an elaborate set of books. Your deposits can be made to represent your receipts, and your checks your expenditures. The stubs of your check book will be your record, which will require very little time to keep. A checking account with this bank is an absolutely safe proposition. Your money is safer than it is in your own pocket, and your check is as good as your money in any business transaction.

A depositor of a bank, not long since, went into his bank and asked to see a certain check which he had issued, and which he described. It was one that he had paid in the settlement of a business account. Through unintentional error he had not received proper credit for the amount. He was given the check and with it proved that the bill had been paid. A chocking account is the surest safeguard against paying an obligation a second time.

We invite you to open a checking account with us, and assure you that we will give you the best of service.

We also maintain a first-class Savings Department. On each account we compound the interest semi-annually, adding the interest to the account without any trouble on the part of the depositor. We pay FOUR PER CENT. on all savings deposits.

OPERETTA AND PLAY A BIG SUCCESS

The Entertainment Given In The Lyceum Theatre Tuesday Evening Drew A Large Crowd

A decided success was scored by the ones who participated in the entertainment in Lyceum Theatre Tuesday evening, under the auspices of the Ladies' Guild of Emmanuel P. E. Church. The program was in two sections, an operetta, entitled "Violet in Fairyland," and a play, "A Box of Monkeys." Both were equally successful.

In the opertta Mrs. Frances Ellery Fitch played the leading role as Queen of the Fairies; little Betty Russell Thibodeau took the character of Violet and sang several verses; Elizabeth Bell was the witch and the following made ideal fairies: Louise Simpers, Kathryn Ford, Emily Jewell, Theodosia Chapman, Grace Wright, Miriam Smith, Ann Kreeger, Margaret Rasin, Nancy Jean Usilton, Anna Coleman, Ida Spielberger, Kathryn Baker, Janet Atwater and Lucille Rasin.

The cast of characters in the play, "A Box of Monkeys," were Samuel Jenness as "Edward Rallston"; Owen Knight as "Chauncey Oglethorpe"; Mrs. David Barr Ford as "Mrs. Ondego-Jhones"; Miss Mary Eugenia Simpers as "Sierra Bengaline," and Miss Margaret Thomas Power as "Lady Guinevere Landpoore." The parts were well taken and received much applause.

During the intermission specialties were presented as follows: Song, by Mr. Heck and Miss Mills and clog dance by Mr. Price Rolph. Mr. Robert Pippin was the accompanist for the vocal selections and his music was one of the features of the entertainment. The orchestra was as follows: Mr. Pippin, piano; Mr. Graves and Mr. McMenamin, violins; Mr. Price Rolph, Banjo.

The affair was under the direction of Mrs. David Barr Ford, with Mrs. T. W. Perkins, Mrs. Frances Fitch and Miss Hannah Bell, assistants.

DEATHS

Mrs. Etta Maud Jones, of Massey, died Friday at Elkton Union Hospital, of empyema, aged 27 years. Her funeral took place Monday from the home of her father, Frank D. Boyer, in Wilmington, with interment in Silverbrook cemetery.

Mrs. Hester Forkum Start, aged 70 years, wife of J. W. Start, of Philadelphia, died Feb. 3 after a lingering illness. She was the sister of Mr. Harry T. Hoyle, of Fairlee.

Wm. Joseph Burchinal, only son of Mary Alice and the late J. Burton Burchinal, died at his home in Chicago this week at the age of 34 years. The deceased was born and raised in Chestertown, but for the last 12 years had made his home in the west. Surviving him are his mother, Mrs. J. Burton Burchinal, and sister, Mrs. Merrick Clements, of Kent County, his wife and young daughter, of Chicago.

Mrs. Martha Ann Trew, widow of the late William G. Trew, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. Benj. Durding, at Rock Hall, last Saturday, aged 81 years. She is survived by one son and two daughters, Thomas W. Trew, Mrs. T. B. Durding and Miss Elizabeth Trew; also two half sisters, Misses Sallie and Ella Wilkins, of Philadelphia. The deceased, despite her advanced age, was one of the most prominent and active workers of the Woman's Auxiliary during the war. In needle work and knitting she was a real artist and it is said produced with her own hands more scarfs, hose, etc., for distribution than any other member of the Rock Hall auxiliary. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning from the residence of her daughter in Rock Hall, conducted by the Revs. A. H. Covey and T. C. Smoot; interment at St. Paul's. The pall bearers were Thos. W. Trew, Wm. Trew, Walter S. Trew, Trew Durding, Morgan Brown, and W. T. Brown. Undertaker C. L. Dodd.
