Program of Photo-Plays To Be Shown At The

LYCEUM THEATRE

CHESTERTOWN
Showing Only The Best In Motion Pictures

Tonight, April 1—Gloria Swanson in "The Great Moment."—a Paramount super-production.

"The Great Moment" was written especially for Golria Swanson by the world's famous author, Elinor Glyn.

"THE GREAT MOMENT" is a tingling story of gypsy blood that would not mix with blue. For the girl wanted life, not titled ease. Behind-the-scenes life in official Washington! Barbaric revels in Russia! Social intrigues in England! Tingling escapades in the mountains of the West! All bound together with a golden thread of gypsy love. Glittering Gloria's first big starring picture, blazing with romance and luxury.

One show ONLY—8 p. m. Regular admission prices.

Monday and Tuesday—April 3 and 4—A Hugo Ballin production, "JANE EYRE," from the great novel by Charlotte Bronte. "Jane Eyre" is said to be a picture perfect in every single detail. Even the matter of the titles—and the titles of picture productions in the past have stirred up many a heated argument—has been handled in a most painstaking manner. In fact, it should be impossible for even the most exacting critic to find fault with them—for they were written by no less famous an authoress than Charlotte Bronte herself. In explanation of this, it must be said that Hugo Ballin, the producer, has taken his subtitles word for word from the text of the story in order to keep perfectly in accord with the spirit of the novel. Mr. Ballin has made his picture an exact reproduction of the Bronte story and has not deviated at all from it except in one or two minor details as a result of which he has created a picture which will thoroughly grip the beholder with its dramatic intensity and charm by the rare perfection of its artistry.

ADDED ATTRACTION—International News; Movie Chats and "Winners of the West" serial—a great program.

Wednesday and Thursday—April 5 and 6—"BOB HAMPTON OF PLACER," the greatest, most fascinating and stirring motion picture ever made by that master director, Marshall Neilan. Strong though this statement may be, it is nevertheless true. But it could be still stronger. We might add that it is one of the finest motion pictures ever made by anyone. "Bob Hampton of Placer" is adapted from the Randall Parish story of the same name. It presents on the screen an absorbing story of romance and adventure in the thrilling days of American frontier history, and as a gripping climax General Custer's famous last stand against Sitting Bull and his indian hordes is reproduced. The ride of the Ku Klux Klan in D. W. Griffith's masterful production, 'The Birth of a Nation," carries no greater thrill than the savage charge of the Sioux against Custer and his gallant little band in "Bob Hampton of Placer." And back of it all is a charming love story, and a roughish waif who will make you laugh and perhaps shed a tear.

Friday and Saturday, April 7 and 8—Betty Compson in J. M. Barry's great play, "THE LITTLE MINISTER"—a Paramount picture.

For more than twenty years "The Little Minister" has ranked first as the world's best loved romance.

A novel enshrined in the hearts of millions. The greatest stage success Maude Adams ever played.

How its love, its charm and its thrilling events are a new delight on the screen. And Betty Compson—the ideal gypsy Babbie.

The story of a town that was all upset till a gypsy girl came and—upset it more. Bedevilled the bigwigs, minister and all. Then she showed them what a bit of love can do and set the whole thing right.

If you want an hour and a half of perfect entertainment, see The Little Minister.

COMING WEEK OF APRIL 10—"French Heels," "Birth of a Nation," "Passion."

BUSINESS MEN ACTIVE

CHESTERTOWN BUSINESS MEN'S ASSOCIATION HOLDS FIRST ANNUAL MEETING

The first annual banquet of the Chestertown Business Mens Association was held at Washington College on Thursday evening. After a short speech of welcome, Mr. P. M. Brooks, the president, introduced Mr. W. B. Copper as toastmaster. Mr. Copper, in a short address seconded Mr. Brooks' welcome and made some very apt remarks appropriate to the occasion.

Mr. C. M. Freeman, of the Salisbury Chamber of Commerce, gave the gathering a very instructive address, pointing out methods of improving the town and community. Mr. Freeman emphasized the fact that co-operation is the keynote of progress, that only by co-operation among the business men could the town and community progress.

The next speaker, Dr. C. P. Gould, of Washington College, told the association the good news that Washington College, through recent legislation, is in better financial condition than at any time in its history. He pointed out the great asset of Washington College to the business community, bringing thousands of dollars here every year. He urged the members to use their best efforts to bring students to Washington College.

Mr. George C. Smith, of the Baltimore Board of Trade, gave the association a very interesting talk on his experiences along the lines of civic devlopment in Baltimore. He called attention to the fact that any progress in a community such as this must be backed by agricultural betterment. He pointed out the fact that the farm and farmer is the backbone and sinew of the Eastern Shore. He urged the members to help the agricultural interests and the farmer wherever possible.

This meeting radiated the spirit of progress and should do much to advance the interests of our town.

A very elaborate and enjoyable banquet was served to the association by the Epworth League of the M. E. Church and was greatly enjoyed by all present.
