the farm being located on what is known as Kennard's point, situated about twelve miles from Chestertown. The young man expressed himself as sorry to have caused the old folks distress, but says he likes Kent county, and has no desire to return.

HOLIDAY PRESENTS.—It is the custom of all who can afford it to make presents to friends and loved ones at least once a year, and a real good habit it is. The only matter that bothers givers is what to buy. We come to the rescue, and suggest, is there anything more useful than a suit for your boy or husband, especially when you can get quality, fit and the lowest prices in the State from C. N. Oehm & Son, Hanover and Pratt Sts., Baltimore.

IT is not necessary to pick our words in mentioning the Philadelphia Times, the prospectus of which journal appears in another column. The Times has got to be a sort of necessity with some people of this community and it ought to be with many more. It has many imitators all over the land, but there is really nothing like the Times from Maine to California. We have persuaded ourselves at times that the reason the people like it so much is that it is constantly giving its readers juicy bites from the sunny side of the journalistic peach.

BARRETT, NEPHEWS & Co., of 43 North Charles street, formerly No. 110 West Baltimore street, the old established dyeing house, is prepared to do all kinds of work in their line with neatness, cheapness and dispatch. In dress goods of all wool and also of cotton and wool, etc., their success is greatly superior to that of a year ago.

The firm lay aside every year a certain amount of their profit to buy the most improved machinery, and during their existence have expended over one half million of dollars in that department alone. This firm calls especial attention to the rapid advances made by them during the past few years in the art of dyeing.

It has been the desire and aim to present to their customers work perfect in every respect.

"THE BEST PRACTICAL ART MAGAZINE."—THE ART AMATEUR for 1883, judging from the publisher's announcement, will amply maintain its high reputation as the "best practical art magazine" of the day. To an abundance of beautiful, full-size working designs for painting, embroidery, wood-carving, and other art work, with copious practical instructions for all classes of amateur artists, it will continue to add a profusion of charming illustrations of porcelain, furniture, needlework, and bric-a-brac, together with an endless supply of entertaining information on decorative and industrial art. Numerous artists' sketches will be published as usual; the leading exhibitions will be largely illustrated and piquantly criticised, and artists of merit will be biographically noticed. A series of beautiful embroidery designs from the South Kensington Royal School of Art Needlework, and a number of articles on china painting by Miss McLaughlin of Cincinnati, will be published during the year. It is not too much to declare, with the London Academy (which places it above any magazine of the kind in England), that THE ART AMATEUR is a "marvel of variety, beauty, and cheapness." This opinion may be readily verified by sending thirty-five cents for a specimen copy to Montague Marks, Publisher, 23 Union Square, New York. The subscription price is $4 a year.

[illegible] greatest possible accura[illegible]; the [illegible]terest for humanity; the [illegible], and the misdeeds, the wisdom, [illegible], the notable folly, the sole sense, [illegible]ing nonsense—all the news of the [illegible] world at present revolving in space.

Because people have learned that in its re[illegible]marks concerning persons and affairs the SUN makes a practice of telling them the exact truth to the best of its ability three hundred and sixty-five days in the year, before election as well as after, about the whales as well as about the small fish, in the face of dissent as plainly and fearlessly as when supported by general approval. The SUN has absolutely no purposes to serve, save the information of its readers and the furtherance of the common good.

Because it is everybody's newspaper. No man is so humble that the SUN is indifferent to his welfare and his rights. No man is so rich that it can allow injustice to be done him. No man, no association of men, is powerful enough to be exempt from the strict applications of its principles of right and wrong.

Because in politics it has fought for a dozen years, without intermission and sometimes almost alone among newspapers, the fight that has resulted in the recent overwhelming popular verdict against Robesonism and for honest government. No matter what party is in power, the SUN stands and will continue to stand like a rock for the interests of the people against the ambition of bosses, the encroachments of monopolists, and the dishonest schemes of public robbers.

All this is what we are told almost daily by our friends. One man holds that the SUN is the best religious newspaper ever published, because its Christianity is undiluted with cant. Another holds that it is the best Republican newspaper printed, because it has already whipped half of the rascals out of that party, and is proceeding against the other half with undiminished vigor. A third believes it to be the best maga[illegible]
