'No, sir.'
'Been a run on
'No, sir.'
'Then everything is all right, eh?'
'Yes, sir, except a rumor around tow
u had robbed the bank of $50,000 and Europe.'—Wall Street News.

Musical note: Yes, Jemima shall go to have her voice cultivated,' said a prou
to a fair haired girl who stood beside hi tionately stroking his snowly locks.
'Can't I go too,' asked the younger John.
'You!' exclaimed his parent in surpri
you have no voice.'

The following morning, when Johnny neighbor's boy next door, he remarked air of one who had been relieved of a ble duty:
'I guess we needn't shoot any more cats, Bill;
dad's likely to send them to Italy.'—Brooklyn
Eagle.

Plantation philosophy: A man can't aff ter go at a piece ob work with too much ness. A dog sometimes runs over de rabbit.
De fame ob a man is only showed by comparison. De lower yer turns de lamp in de room de brighter de fire seems to burn.
A man who can get inter a spring house an' keep from drinkin' de milk outen de crock jar is as much ob a fool as he is honest.
I hears smart men say dat time is different at different places. I believes dat's a fact, fur de time al'ers seems longer ter de boy what holds de hoss den ter de man what goes inter de whisky-shop.—Arkansaw Traveler.

The other day we happened in at a swell furnishing goods store, and seeing in the showcase some underwear that look pretty good we asked the price of it. The clerk, with an air that said 'I'll make you gasp,' replied:
'That's silk, sir. It costs $75 a set!'
We simply said:
'Let's see it.'
He took it out and we examined it, tossed it back contemptously and asked:
'Haven't you something better?'
The clerk was the one to look aghast. He said he didn't think anything better was made.
'Well,' we growled, 'we don't like that,' and we sailed out, leaving that clerk almost a worshipper of ours. And it didn't cost us a cent.—Boston Post.

from these things the lessons that naturally impress themselves upon the philosophical mind. Finally, they came to the fish stalls, whereupon the gentleman—who had never left off orating upon the products which man had brought together for his comfort or growth—picked up a lobster which lay in a barrow, and discoursed as follows: 'You may discover here, my son, an indication of the lesson which the ways of Providence constantly teach us, not to form our opinions from external indications. This humble and at first sight hideous crustacean, than which nothing could be more forbidding in appearance, affords one of the most delicious articles of food that the sea produces. Its shells, also, in life green, slimy and repulsive, become by boiling a resplendent scarlet, suggesting to us, as I may say, the uses of adversity, in passing through which the human soul takes on a more resplendent''—but at this juncture the lobster, evidently pleased to hear itself so handsomely spoken of, stretched out a claw and insisted on shaking hands with the sage, giving him such a grip, indeed, that he was surprised into language as far removed as possible from his previous philosophical moralizing, and danced up and down in an agile manner most surprising in a man of his years.

Dr. HARTER'S
REV. A. I. HOBBS Writes:—
After a thorough trial of the IRON TONIC, I take pleasure in stating that I have been greatly benefited by its use. Ministers and Public Speakers will find it of the greatest value where a Tonic is necessary. I recommend it as a reliable remedial agent, possessing undoubted nutritive and restorative properties.

JOHN N DODD
FUNERAL DIRECTOR
—AND—
Furnishing UNDERTAKER, CHESTERTOWN, MD.
CASKETS, Burial Cases, Coffins, Fine Cloth Work, Shrouds, Burial Robes, Merino and Satin Linings, &c., of all descriptions and kinds, and all the requisites of first-class Funeral Furnishings constantly on hand, or furnished at the very lowest prices.
METALIC COFFINS and CASKETS, furnished upon short notice when desired. A full line of SHROUDS and BURIAL ROBES.
Patent Improved
COLD AIR ICE CASKETS for the preservation of the dead; also Embalming Fluids. I have recently introduced a remarkably cheap BLACK CLOTH CASKET, which in appearance is almost equal to the finest. Remember I do not confine myself exclusively to fine and high-priced work, but have an endless variety at medium and low prices.
I have THREE HEARSES, two large ones and one small white one for children and young persons; and with my handsome new Glass Hearse and fine pair of Black Horses, can furnish as fine a Funeral Turnout as can be seen in our large cities. I am constantly adding new features and improvements to my business, in order to keep up with the times; and as there are such changes in style and kind constantly going on, and, as is generally the custom, some friend is called into the embarrassing position of ordering what he supposes may be wanted, it would be much more satisfactory to all concerned to name the price of the article wanted ALWAYS REMEMBER that I guarantee to furnish anything in my line, of the same kind and quality, at lower prices than any other establishment of the kind. Ever grateful for the very liberal patronage heretofore extended me, I respectfully beg a continuance of the same.
Residence second door above my shop.
Respectfully,
Aug10—tf. JOHN N. DODD.
