Cambridge defeated the Chestertown High School baseball team Friday at Washington Field, 14-4.

In a well-played and hard-fought baseball game Saturday morning the Chestertown High School baseball club showed a complete reversal of form over that displayed the day previous, the Chestertown High School team defeated the Beacom's Business College team by the score of 4 to 2.

The Gettysburg-W. C. game, scheduled for Saturday afternoon, was not played because of the shower that came before the athletic events were concluded.

Baker is holding his own at third for the New York Yankees. Herzog, the other star Eastern Shore baseball man, is coach, instructor and general supervisor of baseball for the United States army in the Third Army area.

Willie Kamm, third baseman of the San Francisco Club in the Pacific Coast Baseball League, has been sold to the Chicago Club in the American League for $100,000 and two players valued at $25,000, it has been announced.

Mt. St. Mary's swamped Washington College at Emmitsburg Tuesday, the score being 20 to 3. Mt. St. Mary's clinched the game in the first inning by scoring six runs.

Washington College defeated Western Maryland College at Westminster Wednesday, 5-1. Bradford was on the mound for Washington and held the Western Shore boys safe at all stages of the game.

Greib looms as the greatest light-heavyweight that has appeared upon the pugilistic horizon in this country in many years. Carpentier and Grieb will likely meet for the world's crown in this class. These men are both scientific of a different type and the battle should be a good one.

Washington College won the greatest game of the season on the local field Friday afternoon against the University of Delaware, in spite of the fact that they had a patched-up team. The old reliable, Wright, was on the mound for Washington College and was the master of the situation at all stages of the conflict, allowing Delaware but five hits, and most of these after two were out. Carrol was on first, Duffy going to center; Adkins went to short, with Dumschott on second, Johnsten playing on third, as usual. Duffy, Bounds and Johnston did the heaviest batting for W. C., with Griffith being the speed king on the paths.

Miss Indiana Comegys died at the Church Home on Tuesday, the 29th of May, after a lingering illness. Miss Comegys taught in Kent County for many years and was loved and revered by her pupils and all who came in contact with her. In later years she has been a resident of the Church Home, where she was ever ready to help and cheer those around her.

Her funeral was held in the chapel of the Church Home on Wednesday, May 30, and the interment was private.

Mrs. Catherine M. Potts, of Camden, N. J., died May 30, aged 86 years. Her remains were brought to Chestertown Wednesday by train and interred in Crumpton cemetery after services at Union M. E. Church, conducted by Rev. J. H. Rowlenson. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Mary E. Thompson, Mrs. Maggie Houstead, of N. J., and Mrs. Estella G. Ford, of Chestertown, also two sons, Bud F. and Daniel Potts. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

The pall bearers are: B. F. Potts, Daniel Potts, Charles McKee, Jas. B. Newnam, Willard Thompson, Mr. Garrison.

Mrs. Matilda Kendall, widow of the late John Kendall, died Monday afternoon after a long illness at the home of her adopted son, George Kendall, near Rock Hall, aged 81 years. The deceased was of a home-loving, affectionate disposition. Born in Delaware, she moved to lower Kent from Delaware when 14 years old and the rest of her long life was passed in that section. She leaves also a grandson, William Harvey Kendall, two sisters, Mrs. Rachel Copper, of Lynch, and Mrs. Charles Kesley, of Millville, N. J., and a brother, William Atkinson, of Sandy Bottom. The late Joshua Atkinson was a brother. The funeral was held at two o'clock on May 31, at the S. D. A. Church of which she was a member. The bearers were Charles and Marion T. Miller, Benjamin Durding, John and Walter Hadaway and Henry Urie. Interment in Wesley Chapel cemetery. T. H. Casey, undertaker.

BETTERTON

The shad supper held at the Chesapeake House last Saturday evening was very successful. The proceeds were for the high school.

The Children's Day service held on Sunday evening at the M. E. Church was probably one of the best programs of the kind ever given here. The children responded well to their training and the weather was ideal.

The fishing season, which was one of the most unprofitable ones Betterton has ever known, is practically over. The hotels and cottages are being made ready now for the summer guests. Quite a number of the hotels had guests for Decoration Day.

A number of the Masons here attended the meeting in Chestertown on Wednesday evening. Rev. S. S. Hepburn made the address.

Prof. Laughlin, a former principal of the High School, and Mrs. M. E. Greenwood, of Betterton, were married at her home on Wednesday morning by Rev. S. S. Hepburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Ladal Beardsley, of Philadelphia, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brice, at the Rigbie.

Mrs. Fannie Munser, of Baltimore, is visiting Miss Louise Crew.

There was a time when an automobile dealer considered the sale of the car as his entire responsibility to his customer.

But in the nature of things it developed that the automobile owner needed more than a new car to be entirely happy.

We are proud of the fact that we were among the first to recognize and accept the dealer's responsibility for the satisfaction of the owner.
