THE THIRD NATIONAL BANK

OF CHESTERTOWN, MD.

The Only National Bank in Kent County

"THE BANK WHERE YOU FEEL AT HOME."

THE FOLLOWING COMMUNICATION EXPLAINS ITSELF:

TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS, THIRD NATIONAL BANK,

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND.

Gentlemen: I am writing to state the progress made by the Boys' Corn Club members who have been aided by your liberal gifts and prizes offered and to express my appreciation for your co-operation.

Not least among the duties of a County Agent is to conduct Boys' Club Work. In fact, I am of the opinion that perhaps it is the greatest Agricultural Extension work being conducted in Kent County. The work is so big and so broad that co-operation is welcomed. I congratulate you for being the first bank to request and enter into a definite line of co-operation with Boys' Club Work of Kent County.

In regard to your offer to furnish free to all Boys' Club Members who raise corn this year, enough of the best seed corn available to plant an acre each, the following have received and are now growing corn furnished by your bank:

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Howell Crew | Worton, Md. | Thomas Stevens | Millington, Md. |
| Stanley Sutton | Chestertown, Md. | Herman Voshell | Millington, Md. |
| Martin Sutton | Chestertown, Md. | Thomas Newnam | Millington, Md. |
| Albert Sutton | Chestertown, Md. | Noland Robinson | Millington, Md. |
| Spencer Kelley | Chestertown, Md. | Thomas Rowan | Massey, Md. |
| William Anderson | Chestertown, Md. | Charles Massey | Massey, Md. |
| Auton Lucht | Chestertown, Md., R. D.3 | Edward Caldwell | Galena, Md. |
| John Coburn | Rock Hall, Md. | Marion Sutton | Blacks, Md. |
| George Orr | Rock Hall, Md. | Norman Pennington | Kennedyville, Md. |
| Harry Thompson | Rock Hall, Md. | Maxwell Rasin | Worton, Md. |
| Bennie Willson | Rock Hall, Md. | Harold Williams | Worton, Md. |

These boys are all very enthusiastic in their undertaking and are competing to win the following prizes which I understood was the offer made by you:

To the boy winning First Prize ..... $20.00
This boy to attend Club Week at the University of Maryland out of the $20.00—which will cost him about $10.00.
To the boy winning Second Prize ..... 15.00
To the boy winning Third Prize ..... 10.00
To the boy winning Fourth Prize ..... 5.00
To the boy winning Fifth Prize ..... 3.00

This co-operation by the Third National has greatly stimulated Boys' Agricultural Club Members to raise more and better seed corn. There are twice as many boys raising corn this year because of your co-operation as otherwise would have raised corn. It is my intention to help these Club Members select the best seed corn which they raise from their acres and sell it to farmers next spring and thus improve the seed corn and corn yields of Kent County.

It is very gratifying to me to have such staunch co-operation as your bank is giving to Boys' Club Work in Kent County, because it brings us closer to the goal for which we are striving, Better Agriculture in Kent County.

Sincerely yours,
HORACE B. DERRICK,
County Agent, Kent County.

DIRECTORS.

Heavy Rain Floods This Section

The heaviest rainfall of recent years fell in Chestertown and surrounding territory on Wednesday afternoon. Beginning at about 5 o'clock, a veritable flood poured from above which has been termed by some as a cloudburst. The streets of Chestertown were inundated by a foot of water at times, which threatened to engulf the low portions of this section. A continuous rain fell from five until ten o'clock.

While Chestertown was literally flooded, down the county was hardly touched by the rain and farmers were cultivating corn the following morning.

Over at Church Hill the rain was the hardest in the memory of Dr. Dudley, Sr., and some of the oldest inhabitants. In the low parts of the state road between Roberts and Church Hill the road became impassable after nine o'clock, several feet of water covering the road and sweeping through the ravines at a pace that made traveling dangerous in places.

Out at Radcliffe Mill, Mr. P. M. Brooks, the proprietor, and several of his men had a hard time keeping the water out of the mill, and were compelled to stay up nearly all night to do so.

Melville's Comedians Please in Easton

Melville's Comedians, of Tampa, Florida, opened up here in their big tent on the Cohen lot on Market Space extended for a week's engagement. They gave their first performance on Monday night before a large crowd, nearly every seat in their large tent being taken. The play was greatly enjoyed by all and the acting of the ladies and gentlemen was as fine as that of theatres in any large city. Between the acts fine vaudeville acts were given and were much enjoyed by all. As comedians they are hard to beat. The management and everyone connected with the troupe are refined ladies and gentlemen. If you want to see a good show and the best vaudeville acts you should not fail to attend the Melville aggregation every night while here.—Easton Gazette.

Schedule of Chestertown B. B. Team

The Chestertown Baseball Club has a big schedule for this and next week, as follows:

Today, Saturday—Tiger Athletic Club, of Baltimore.

Tuesday, July 4 (morning and afternoon)—West End All Stars, of New Castle, Del.

Wednesday—Centreville vs. Chestertown.

Saturday—Epworth, of Wilmington, vs. Chestertown.

These games, which will be played on Washington Field, should be well-attended by our fans and should be very interesting to lovers of baseball. A ball team can't be maintained without popular support. So, baseball fans, attend these games and show the team that you want them to keep going during the summer months.

Penna. Governor Entertained In Kent

Kent County had the honor of entertaining the governor of one of the biggest states in the union last Saturday and Sunday, when Governor Sproul, of Pennsylvania, was royally entertained at the palatial home of Mr. Maurice L. Clothier, of Philadelphia, on the Pond Farm, on the Sassafras river. Governor Sproul is well-known to all readers of papers, a great deal having been printed concerning him during the past few months.
