PROGRAMME

Friday and Saturday, Jan. 5 and 6—The first American Historical Production,

"CARDIGAN"

This picture is of the utmost educational value. It visualizes the early history of our country, should be seen by every school child and is the one picture to date which has a universal appeal. The picture has been endorsed by the National Committee for Better Films, leading educators, ministers, public spirited citizens and hundreds of others. It is the one picture which is 100 per cent clean, is highly entertaining and is the first earnest effort to do something worth while.

N. B.—No advance in prices.

Monday and Tuesday, Jan. 8-9—Pathe Comedy-Drama

"Handle With Care"

Taken from the popular story, "The Men Who Would Die for Her."

Also Torchy comedy, "Poor Boy."

Wednesday, Jan. 10—Playgoers Feature,

"FACE TO FACE"

Good as a Nick Carter thriller.

N. B.—Valuable present given to holder of lucky ticket Wednesday night.

Thursday, Jan. 11—Larry Semon in

"The Simple Life"

Also Movie Chats, Sports Review and Hurricane Hutch.

Friday and Saturday, Jan. 12-13—American Releasing Corporation presents

"SISTERS"

From the novel by Kathleen Norris.

"Sisters" is a perfect motion picture portrayal of one of the greatest novels ever written about marriage.

It is a story of a courageous girl who fought to hold her husband from her own selfish sister and won her fight. It emphasizes the fact that marriage is for better or for worse and can be made for the best.

It is 100 per cent clean.

Also Pathe Review and comedy.

N. B.—Regular admission prices.

ESTEEM
By Edgar A. Guest

There is a fortune richer far
Than gold and silver treasures are,
And it is won by patient strife,
A gentle and a well-lived life;
By courage in the days of stress,
By helpful ways and cheerfulness,
'Tis seldom won by brilliant deeds,
No skillful cleverness it needs;
No cunning tongue or gift of grace
Can lift man to this lofty place.
Once lost the richest purse in vain
Would seek to buy it back again.
What is this weatlh of which I pen?
The friendship of your fellowmen.

Behind all outward show you find
The culture of the gentle mind;
Nor caste nor creed can place a ban
Upon a true born gentleman;
Who walks the world with head erect
May justly claim the world's respect.
The man too big to cheat or lie,
Who takes but what his purse can buy,
Whose name has come thru every test
A shining symbol of his best
May own but little here of gold,
And seldom may his fame be told,
But he shall have until life ends
The good opinion of his friends.

To be respected for your wealth,
Here is the greatest joy on earth,
To live your life so none can say
That you have walked a shameful way,
To come through sorrow's time of tears,
And bitter days and dreary years,
Still brave of soul and clean of hand,
Fit with the best of men to stand,
Is victory—nor wealth nor grace
Can make such glory commonplace.
The man who walks in honor's ways
And owns his neighbor's love and praise
Has more, when life's long tale is told,
Than those whose wealth is all in gold.

DEATHS

Mrs. Louise Parker Harley died early last Tuesday morning at her home on Queen street, Chestertown, aged 63 years. She is survived by the following children: Mr. Seth Harley, of New York; Miss Lula, Baltimore county; and Miss Edith, of Chestertown, the latter having ministered with constant devotion and loving care to her mother throughout a long period of illness. Mr. Charles W. Kibler is a brother of the deceased. Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from her late residenre, conducted by the Rev. C. L. Atwater, interment in Church Hill cemetery. The The bearers were James T.Dixon, John H. Newnam, C. E. Kirby, J. Raymond Simpers, Merrick Clements and J. F. Wheatley. Undertaker W. T. Hicks had charge of funeral arrangements.

The funeral of Miss S. Sophronia McIntyre, whose death we noted last week, took place on Saturday at 1 p. m., from the home of her brother, Mr. J. B. McIntyre, Rev. O. E. Jones officiating. The bearers were Messrs. J. W. Barnes, J. C. Davis, George Burk, J. E. Allen, George Bacon and Earle A. Barnes. Interment in Chester cemetery. Undertaker C. L. Dodd.

Mrs. Charles E. Davis, of Rock Hall, received word Sunday of the death of her sister, Mrs. Catherine J. Horner, at her home in Havre de Grace. Mrs. Horner had frequently visited in Rock Hall and had a number of friends there. She was 83 years of age. Mrs. Davis and her brother, Benjamin H. Coburn attended the funeral in Havre de Grace Wednesday, interment in Aberdeen cemetery.

Mrs. Fannie B. Maslin, daughter of the late William Godwin and widow of the late Samuel G. Maslin, who lived near Fairlee for many years, died after a long painful illness at the home of her mother in Baltimore, Dec. 31. Her remains were brought by ferry Tuesday morning and the funeral held at Fairlee M. E. Church immediately after, the Rev. W. B. Horner officiating. Interment in Chester cemetery.

Mrs. Geo. H. Hess, of Chicago, died on New Years day in her 87th year. She left eight children, of which Mrs. D. W. Ingersoll, of Quaker Neck, is the youngest. She left also twenty-nine grandchildren and five great grandchildren. Mrs. Hess lived in Westchester Co., N. Y., in her youth and graduated from St. Mary's Hall, Burlington, N. J., almost 70 years ago.

Miss Jenning, who was so well known in Chestertown and vicinity on account of her helpful talks to Sunday School teachers, was killed in a railroad accident last week. She had a pleasing personality and made many friends in her visits here.

Free Seeds To Come Back

The Agricultural Appropriation Bill, carrying $68,981,553, was passed Wednesday by the House at Washington after Speaker Gillett had thrown out on a point of order a motion to send it back to committee with directions to include $360,000 for Congressional free seed distribution.

Picking Strawberries In Alabama

While the north is covered with several inches of snow, blizzards are howling through the mountain regions of the west, and even Kent county is expected, every day almost, freezing weather or continued snows, down in Alabama the 1923 strawberry season has opened and the first crate of the early variety was shipped to Montgomery, Ala., Wednesday. The crop, with warm weather prevailing, is in a splendid condition and many shipments are planned for next week. The first shipment was the earliest in the history of this section.

Kent Roads In Bad Condition

The roads, in many parts of Kent County, are in a most deplorable condition. The constant freezing and thawing of the roads is the cause of this condition, according to County Engineer Applegarth, who thinks they will be worse, if the winter continues as it is.

In some parts of the county the mud is feet deep in places and farmers living in these sections are compelled to undergo considerable hardships in getting about.

Quaker Neck, Morgnec, Piney Neck and Broad Neck are said to be among the worst roads in the county.

WEDDING

The wedding of Miss Lillian L. Brice daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Brice of Eastern Neck, and Mr. George Spencer Stevens, took place at the rectory of St. Paul's P. E. Church, Tuesday morning, December 26th, the rector Rev. Louis B. Sheen, officiating. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stevens, of Millington. Those who attended were Mr. Harvy Brice, brother of the bride, Miss Stevens, sister of the groom, and Mr. Dixon, the latter two of Millington, where the bride has been a teach in the Elementary School for some time. The young couple made a short trip to Baltimore and are now residing in Millington.

Albert Lee Story and Sarah Medora Bramble were married at the M. P. parsonage at Kennedyville on Dec. 27, 1922, by Rev. J. F. Wooden.

A Big Verdict.—Mrs. Emma Beck of Sudlersville, has just been awarded $6,000 damages by the courts of Florida for injuries substained two years ago when she was hurt by a break in the pavement at Lakeland where she was visiting her sister, Mrs. Edgar Wilson. Mrs. Beck's hip was broken and the injury is permanent. The town took an appeal from the verdict of the jury, but the higher court upheld the award.

New Crumpton Bridge Completed

The new bridge at Crumpton, connecting link between Kent and Queen Anne's counties, has been completed and traffic was resumed over it Thursday. This will be quite a convenience for people in that section of the county who have been compelled to go across the Chester in boats or make wide detours to reach their destination. The government inspected the work and found it very satisfactory.

It has required four months to complete the structure at a cost of $7000.

A joint meeting of the County Commissioners and the County Road Engineers of the two counties was held in Centreville Thursday and arrangements completed for the payment of above sum.

Mr. Merrit Coleman has been made bridgekeeper, while the expenses for the maintenance of the bridge for the next two years will be paid by Kent County.

The bridge is a most attractive one. It is made of wood and is said to be most substantial.

President Backs 100,000 More Scouts

President Warren G. Harding shows his interest in the following manner in the Anniversary Roundup of the Boy Scouts of America, which is an effort to make the Scouting Program available to a twenty-five per cent increase of boys, with a total of half a million members by the Thirteenth Anniversary of Scouting in February.

There will be presented in his behalf "The President's Flag" to each one of the twelve national regional chairmen whose region shows that they have reached their quota. Also, in the name of the President, there will be presented a streamer to each one of the six hundred local councils which reaches its goal; a smaller troop pennant to each individual scout troop in the country that reaches its quota, and perhaps also, an individual band to each scout in the troop which receives the troop award.

At the present time 400,000 Scouts and 125,000 men actively interested in Scouting are working towards a successful goal.
