MINUTE TALKS BY THE BUSINESS MEN'S ASSOCIATION

Clean Up Campaign

From Monday, May 21, to Thursday, May 31, will be ten days devoted to cleaning up, painting up and beautifying things in general. Everyone is strongly urged to co-operate in taking stock of community sanitary conditions. Everybody—in the schools; in the home; in the store—is asked to clean up, paint up, brighten up. The merchants of the Town and County are requested to give their establishments a thorough house-cleaning. Rearrange your stock; replenish your stock; clean up and redecorate your windows; repaint your fronts and signs; change your news advertisements and get into the spirit of the ten day campaign. The farmers throughout the county are urged to brighten up their homes and clean up their premises in general so that not only Chestertown, but the county at large will be the cleanest prettiest spot on the Eastern Shore.

Memorial Day

Details of plans for Memorial Day May 30, will be published later, but in the meantime please get your homes and stores in shape for a proper observance of this important anniversary. The clean-up campaign will lead up to the Memorial Day ceremonies.

The Shore Trip

Elsewhere in this paper is given an account of the interesting tour of the Del-Mar-Via Peninsula taken by a party of fifteen men representing the Business Men's Association.

Suggestions

We would welcome any suggestions in the form of letters as to how the people like the Minute Talks and we would be very glad to publish any suitable matter that is submitted to us by our readers. If there is anything of community nature you would like discussed please send it to us and we shall give it every consideration; or any other helpful hints you may have in mind. We want your co-operation. This is your column. Address The Business Men's Association, Chestertown.
