BIG SUBSCRIPTION DRIVE JUST GETTING STARTED

Several Nominations Received; Many Expected to Start Work at Once More Room for Live Workers

The mammoth subscription campaign announced in last week's issue or THE TRANSCRIPT in which nearly $2,000 in prizes are to be awarded the energetic men and women of this section, is just getting under way. More than a score of energetic men and women of this entire section have been nominated to win the valuable prizes, but as yet, hardly any of the candidates have actually started on their month's work of securing votes.

It is impossible to tell at this time just how many of the ones nominated will make the race, as some nominations have been sent in by friends of the candidates who do not know whether they will make the race or not, it is an assured fact that enough will compete to make this one of the most interesting campaigns ever before staged in this section of the state. a

PLENTY OF TIME LEFT TO ENTER

As this campaign is in reality just starting, and the time spent so far can be classed as the preliminary stage, there is still plenty of time for one to enter the drive and win any of the prizes. As yet, but very few subscriptions have been taken and one can enter right now and be leading the entire list of candidates during the first week. From the list of nominations received it will be noticed that many of the very best communities of the trade territory through which the Transcript circulates is as yet unrepresented, so if you wish a beautiful Studebaker six touring car all for yourself, turn to the full page announcement on another page of this issue and clip a nomination coupon, receipt books and full supplies will be sent you immediately. Don't wait for some one else to send in your name, do it yourself, and then you will be able to get started before anyone has a chance to obtain a lead over you.

When it is taken into consideration how many valuable prizes are offered and the ease with which subscriptions the Transcript can be sold, as announced in the opening each active candidate who reports as many as five subscriptions weekly and who fails to win a prize will be presented with a check for 25% of the total amount of subscriptions he or she collects. This removes the last vestige of chance from the campaign as the commission alone would pay anyone well, if they but used their spare time in boosting this popular paper.

In the first place the beginning of the drive count many times as many votes as will be allowed at the finish, thus assuring those who do their best work during the opening periods, that they need have little fear of those who wait to the last to get their votes. Up to and including July 21st, 60,000 extra votes will be issued on each club of Fifteen dollars of subscription collected, thus making a one year subscription average four times as many as will be allowed at the finish.

Another feature of this campaign is that the votes of the different candidates will never be published until after the judges have officially declared the campaign closed, and the prizes awarded. This means that the votes will be secret from the very start, thus removing the temptation to speculate. Where a candidate does not know how many votes are possessed by another candidate, the temptation to buy up subscriptions is entirely eliminated.

Every possible precaution has been taken to protect the interests of the real workers, and it is real work that counts in this drive. It is votes that will tell the tale and not the amount of money or the number of subscriptions collected.

Those who have not entered the drive as yet and would like to talk it over with the campaign managers before entering are cordially invited to call the Transcript office. The campaign department will be open every day from 8 a. m. to 7 p. m. and those who do not have a chance to call around in the day time are invited to call in the evenings, and even though you do not enter the Manager will be only too glad to explain this big drive to you.

If you life in rural sections and cannot get to town, just clip the coupon and the manager will immediately send you receipt books and full instructions. Delays are risky so do it now.

STORM PLAYS HAVOC

Lightning Stuns Lady and Kills Cows In Same Neighborhood—Trees Blown Down—Other Damage Done During Storm

Kent County was visited by a most destructive wind and electrical storm on Wednesday afternoon, and, although it lasted but a few minutes, did much damage. The storm struck Kent Co. on the bay shore and cut quite a wide swath through one of the best sections of the county.

While seated at the supper table at her home near town, Mrs. J. P. Newnam was stunned by lightning for several minutes and the entire family badly frightened. At the table were Mr. Newnam ani son, William Newnam, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Ayres and son, Robert, Jr., all of whom were somewhat shocked at the same time.

Mr. Frank Shinn, who resides near Chestertown, had three cows killed by lightning on Wednesday afternoon and had a narrow escape himself. He was milking when the storm began to rage, and, having a sort of premonition that he should discontinue for the time, went into the house to await the passing of the storm. Mr. Shinn states this was the first time he ever did this, it always being his custom to finish milking when he began. No sooner had he left the cow stable, than lightning killed the very cow he had been milking and three others, skipping one on both sides. Had Mr. Shinn continued milking, he would, without doubt, been struck by the same bolt that killed the cows. They were partially insured.

During the storm hail fell in large quantities for a few minutes, and while no extreme damage was done, nevertheless, some damage resulted, many corn fields being cut and water melons and cantaluopes injured. Corn was also blown to the ground in many places, but will doubtless come back to normal conditions again.

At times the wind reached the proportions of a cyclone and did considerable damage. One end of the factory being erected at the foot of Mill St. was blown down, several large trees were torn from their roots and dashed to earth, while Mr. Jacob Thompson's auto was badly damaged when a tree fell across it on Cannon street, near the home of Mr. Charles Gill.

Lightning struck the chimney on Prof. Howell's residence at Washington College.

Considering the time it lasted, the storm did more damage than has been done by a storm in Ken this summer.

Mr. Wm. Maslin, in Quaker Neck, suffered severely from the storm. His entire corn crop, tomato crop, vegetables and garden were entirely destroyed by the hail. Mr. Fred Davis and others in that section also lost heavily. The storm extended as far as Wye Mills, where several corn fields were riddled.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF KENT COUNTY

After a long and continuous solicitation of my many friends from all parts of the county, asking me to become a candidate for Treasurer, I have decided to do so, subject to the Democratic Primary. Your vote and support will be appreciated.
july 7-tf. GEO. W. SUTTON.

Big Shoot At Betterton

WEDDINGS

The wedding of Mr. Elmer M. Starr, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Starr of near Chestertown, and Miss Lulu Grace Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob F. Lee of Bruzewood, Pa., was quitely solemenized by the Rev J. V. Royes at the M. E. Parsonage in Bedford, Pa. on Monday, June 18, 1923. After a few days spent in motoring to points of interest, the young people returned to their future home near Chestertown.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Reed, of Chestertown, announce the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth, to Prof. Roy Woodland, of Washington College.

Mr. Irving Sparks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arlington L. Sparks, of Chestertown, and Miss Linda Sheats, of Baltimore, were quietly married Thursday last in Washington. Immediately following the cermony the happy couple left for a ten-day wedding trip on Lake George. They will be at home to their friends after July 11.

Prof. Albert Leonard Leary and Miss Anna Porter were married at noon on Saturday, June 30, in Stevensville M. E. Church by Rev. Mr. Jones. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Florence Porter. Rev. A. F. T. Raum of Snow Hill, was best man. The ushers were Mr. James Porter, brother of the bride, and Prof. Irvin Smith, of Belair, Md. Mrs. Leary has been a teacher in Stevensville High School. Prof. Leary is the younger son of Mrs. Isaac Leary, of near Rock Hall, and is now principal of Denton High School.

—The Dempsey-Gibbons championship prize fight attracted much attention in Chestertown and the results were received by the Lyceum Radio Station, with Messrs. Fred Russell and Professor Louis J. Thibodeau "listening in." The only surprise about the fight was the fact that Gibbons was able to weather the storm until the end, which he did, assisted by a nimble pair of legs and a good, strong pair of arms, which he held on for dear life with when the occasion demanded it, which was quite often.
