TUESDAY next, Oct. 9, is the last day for registering voters or for transfering. Democrats who are not already registered should do so next Tuesday. Tuesday, Oct. 16, is for revision only. You cannot register on that day.

WE publish in another column in this paper the County Republican ticket, which was nominated by their convention last Monday. Among the candidates on this ticket will be found a woman, Mrs. Minnie Falls. Mrs. Falls has the honor of being the first woman nominee for office in this county. We hope Mrs. Falls will not be seriously hurt by the fall she will get at the Fall election on November 6.

GOVERNOR RITCHIE is making an aggressive campaign throughout the state and is being received with favor wherever he goes. The Democratic platform has made a favorable impression with the voters of the state and they are satisfied that it represents their wishes and interests far better than the Republican platform, which seems to straddle every important issue of the present campaign. Governor Ritchie will visit the Eastern Shore the week of October 22 and is expected to be in Kent on Oct. 25. Arrangements are now being made for his visit here and full particulars will be published in our next issue.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Harris and Mrs. R. H. Collins left Thursday for a ten-day stay in the Blue Ridge Mountains.

Dr. and Mrs. Waters and Mrs. R. W. Gill, of Washington, visited friends in town this week.

Mrs. Raymond Williams and little daughter, Mary Guion, and Mrs. Herbert Skipper, are guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. John Welch.

We are glad to note that Mr. John Welch, efficient and accommodating conductor on the Kent train for nearly forty years, is back at his post again after being sick for several weeks.

Mrs. James Brice, Sr., visited friends in Kent county this week.

Mrs. Frank Robinson has been confined to her home by sickness for a month or more.

Miss Mildred Collins, of Centreville, is the guest this week of Mrs. R. H. Collins.

The glittering fascination of society and the stage lured her to night life of London.

A life of religious devotion in a bleak monastery claimed the one man she loved.

At last the most famous love story of all time comes to the screen in a blaze of passion and power.

Establishes Sunday School Record

The Rally Day service of the Bethesra M. P. Church, Salisbury, on last Sunday was marked by special recognition of John G. Brittingham, who on that day rounded out his twenty-five years service as secretary of the school. A quarter of a century ago he was elected and during the entire period he has never missed a single session. This is believed to be a unique record in the Sunday School world. A few months ago the New York Times published a picture of a young man whom they called the World's Champion Sunday School Goer. His record was fiften years unbroken attendance. Salisbury's champion has ten years lead and is still going strong.

The Breath of Autumn Itself is Recognized in Our Opening DISPLAY OF FALL GOODS

Upon entering it will be noted that we have unusal arrangements on shelf and counter—just piles and piles of charming Fall apparel that creates the atmosphere of Autumn. And this atmosphere is further exuded by the new modes which are predominating the selections being made by discriminating women. We want you to come in and to carefully inspect our purchases—they were selected by us for just this purpose.

THE NEW COATS ARE PRETTY

as you will see when you come here to inspect this early season display. In some garments a startling change has been made from those shown in previous seasons. Long slender lines, with colorful touches of sharp contrasts are predominating. We want to have the pleasure of showing you these new creations soon.

Gowns Most Formal

Charming dresses, with lines so correct that they breathe the very air of formal occasion. Cut and fashioned in perfect harmony with the latest modes, they are representative of what fine, is exclusive and feminine in Autumn gowns.

NEW FURS

In beauty of design and pelt these new furs rival any we have ever shown, and, even if you have purchased yours, it will be well worth your time to see this display.

FALL SHOWING OF SILK

An event that brings to your attention saving opportunities in the newest and most wanted silks for Fall and Winter wear. Our complete stock of silks and fine dress goods are now on display, so if you have planned a new gown or wrap now is the time to buy the material needed. Unusual emphasis is laid upon the purchase of silks. Japan's great catastrophe has sent prices of raw silk soaring, and in the near future such material will be priced at figures making it almost prohibitive, it is thought.

The Art of Dress

A careful study of the art of dressing correctly centers about the smaller dress accessories. Our display of these important little things is most interesting, especially to the woman who would be dressed in the latest mode. Our Millinary Department is complete. Snug little top pieces that so becomes the Miss, to the mode sedate and dignified hats that become the Matron. A visit to our store is incomplete unless these hats are seen.
