Annapolis January 1809.

I Certify that I have carefully examined the within abstract with the Original returns now in my possession and find that it is a true account of provisions furnished to the Troops of the United States at the post under my command Amounting to five Thousand three Hundred and forty seven Complete Rations —

| | | |