Mcpherson & I suppose in the Cudbear Adventure ———.

te is attended to, it will naturally follow that at the present day Estate could not be a Shilling — inasmuch as at & before his Circumstances were very Unhappy — and what has kept him from his Wifes Possessions —. There is no doubt however but his Affairs is under for Mr. McPherson & Mr Meldrum — which surely ought be paid by them. —

In my Opinion every thing should stand upon its own bottom — and every Subject answer for its own engagements —. Thus Mr McPherson & Mr Meldrum should pay their own Debts — The Cudbear Adventure pay the Debt to Mr Jas Gordon at Glasgow — the George Town Improvement the Debt to Mr Russell as originally Contracted — and Mrs Gordon to pay her Own Debt due to her Brother at the Marriage — in short if Possible a Line should be drawn between Her Estate and His and each Answer for their Own Engagements and Justice be done to every body. — Such a Separation however I am afraid is impracticable as Matters are Jumbled together and Our Laws do [illegible] therefore to find the best Method possible for the [illegible] Creditors who [illegible] Satisfaction

Ease of Mr Jas Gordon & his Relations —.

I shall make it my Study to adopt such Measures as will be most likely to answer the above purposes & give Satisfaction & have Justice done as far as possible to every body —.

The above is a short Sketch for Mr Gordons satisfaction & to be Considered as referred to in the Estimate —
