CELEBRATED 25TH ANNIVERSARY

Chestertown Junior Order United American Mechanics Passed Quarter Century Mark And Is Now Headed Toward The Half-Century Milestone

The Chestertown Council No. 177, Junior Order United American Mechanics, one of the most progressive orders in Kent county, is now headed toward the half-century milestone, it having passed its twenty-fifth year of existence last Wednesday evening, March 15.

On this date, in honor of their 25th anniversary, the members of the council, with the members of the Chestertown Daughters of America, the wives of the members of the council and a number of friends of the council, held perhaps the most elaborate anniversary celebration which has been held by this council in Firemen's Hall. A big crowd packed the hall and listened to some well-made speeches by Mr. J. W. Johnson, Mr. H. L. Mennerick, Mr. W. S. Howe, all Past State Councillors, of Baltimore, Mr. William F. Malin, also Past State Councillor, and Mr. W. L. Fowler, who was the first Councillor of this order, who made the address of welcome. Mr. Charles N. Satterfield, State Councillor, of Chestertown, introduced the speakers in a most appropriate and timely manner.

Besides the speaking, Messrs. John Barnes, Norman Graves, Julian Coleman, Price Rolph, Charles Armstrong and Clarke Davis rendered some vocal music appropriate to the occasion.

Following the other events on the program, a most sumptuous banquet was held, the spread consisting of all the delicacies of the season, which did not terminate until a late hour.

CHESTERTOWN

Showing Only The Best In Motion Pictures

Tonight—D. W. Griffith presents "The Mother and The Law"; also News and Comedy.

Monday and Tuesday, March 20 and 21—ane Grey's great story, "THE MYSTERIOUS RIDER"—A Benj. B. Hampton production, reelased throuyh Hodkinosn. Zane Grey paints the modern West in "The Mysterious Rider" with a brush that is truly inspired. Columbine, Hell-Bent Wade, Wils Moore, Jack Bellounds, as well as Old Bellounds, Sr., Ed Smith and Lem Billings are characters that, or all you know, may be living today in the shadow of the mountains and canyons that Mr. Grey brings to teh screen in his stirring and virile story of Wils Moore's love for Old Bellounds' adopted daughter, Columbine. Also International News and first episode of "WINNERS OF THE WEST." Don't miss this.

Wednesday and Thursday, March 22 and 23—Wesley Barry, the freckled-faced "funomenon," in "DINTY"—a Marshall Neilan production, released through First National. With a bundle o fnewspapers under his arm, and a voice twice as loud as any other kid in San Francisco's Chinatown, "Dinty" fights the world or a living, and makes himself Newsboy King, at the head of the Newsboys' Trust. He does it all to provide a home for his old Irish mother. Then when his mother dies, "Dinty" has to fight down the feeling that life "Isn't such a much," after all, and he battles to get back into the gae and make himself the success his mother always longed to see him.

Friday and Saturday, March 24 and 25—Paramount super-production, "THE SHEIK," featuring Agnes Ayres and Rudolph Valentino. A flaming romance of desert love! Flinging away the trappings of civilization! Leaving the "lady" only a woman, the "gentleman" only a man. The tale of a lawless Arab Chief who loved an English beauty—and took her! Stormed her caravan—carried her off to his tent—lost her—fought for her—mastered her—won her, heart and soul! A romance all colored with barbaric splendor. Swift and free as a galloping Bedouin. Racing through scenes that thrill with their beauty and daring. Admission 30 and 50 cents.
