Program of Photo-Plays To Be Shown At The

LYCEUM THEATRE

CHESTERTOWN

Showing Only The Best In Motion Pictures

Tonight—D. W. Griffith presents "The Mother and The Law"; also News and Comedy.

Tonight, Mar. 25—Paramount super-production, "The Sheik," featuring Agnes Ayres and Rudolph Valentino. A flaming romance of desert love; Flinging away the trappings of civilization! Leaving the "lady" only a woman, the "gentleman" only a man. The tale of a lawless Arab Chief who loved an English beauty—and took her! Stormed her caravan—carried her off to his tent—lost her—fought for her—mastered her—won her, heart and soul! A romance all colored with barbaric splendor. Swift and free as a galloping Bedouin. Racing through scenes that thrill with their beauty and daring. Admission 30 and 50 cents.

Monday and Tuesday, March 27 and 28—Irvin V. Willat production, "FIFTY CANDLES," from the popular Saturday Evening Post story, released thru Hodkinson. "Fifty Candles" is a mystery story taht keeps the audience in a state of expectancy from start to finish. It has thrills galore and enough sensational developments to give the most hardened movie fan the thrill of his life. Added attraction Tuesday, second episode of "WINNERS OF THE WEST," great historical serial.

Wednesday and Thursday—March 29 and 30—First National Attraction, Charles Ray in "The Old Swimmin' Hole," from Jas. Whitcomb Riley's famous poem. From the opening scene to the close the story is brimful of heart interest. Charles Ray as Ezra, is "just plain boy," wholesome but mischievous. He would rather fish and spend his time at the old swimmin' hole than study. He loves Myrtle, the flirtatious belle of the country school, but after bringing him to his knees and robbing him of all his treasures she jilts him for his best friend, "Skinny." However, there is happiness awaiting him in the loving graces of the ever faithful Esther. Ezra is so busy falling in and out of scrapes that it is a wonder that he finds time for sweethearts. It is skillfully directed and so wonderfully acted as to obviate the necessity for a single sub-title. It steals into the heart of the audience until the breath of new mown hay seems to prevade the darkened theatre and the audience is wafted back on the wings of memory to their own school days. The play has received most enthusiastic notices wherever shown.

Friday and Saturday, March 31 and April 1—Gloria Swanson in "The Great Moment—a Paramount super-production.

"The Great Moment" was written especially for Gloria Swanson by the world famous author, Elinor Glyn.

"The Great Moment" is a tingling story of gypsy blood that would not mix with blue. For the girl wanted life, not titled ease. Behind the scenes life in official Washington! Barbaric revels in Russia! Social intrigues in England! Tingling escapades in the mountains of the west! All bound together with a golden thread of gypsy love. Glittering Gloria's first big starring picture, blazing with romance and luxury.

Regular Admission Prices.

Special and appropriate music by Prof Robert Burns.

DEATHS

Mr. Arthur Legg, formerly of Quaker Neck, who recently sustained serious injury in a gunning accident, died Tuesday night in the Wilmington Hospital where he was taken for treatment. Death was the result of pneumonia. His remains were brought to Kent county by train Wednesady evening. He was 33 years of age. He leaves a wife, Mrs. Vickers Legg, and five children. The funeral was held yesterday, Friday, at 11 a. m. at Cliffs. The bearers were Howard Hadaway, Frank Hadaway, W. E. Dickerson, Gustavus Startt, Gilbert Brown and Geo. Townsend. Interment in Chester cemetery. Funeral services conducted by Rev. N. O. Gibson.

Mrs. Margaret Logan, wife of Robt. M. Logan, died at her home near McGinness' Corner, Queen Anne's, on last Thursday at 7.30 a. m., after a lingering illness, aged 64. Funeral services were held Friday from her late home, interment in Crumpton cemetery. Besides her husband, she leaves three daughters and five sons to mourn her loss. She was the sister of Cat. B. F. Cosden, of Chestertown.

Mrs. C. M. Sparks, of West Grove, Pa., died of pneumonia March 10. Mrs. Sparks was an aunt of Miss Jeannette Gooding.

Grange Notes

Still Pond Grange met in Grange Hall, Tuesday, March 21, at the usual hour. Owing to road conditions around Still Pond, the attendance has been rather small since Feb. 1. Yet the mud prevails outside, there was no "mud slinging" in our meeting Tuesday evening. Two of Still Pond's members are "Pomona officers" and we are justly proud of their ability and efficiency as grangers.

Bro. Leonard Price's timely suggestion to Still Pond members, concerning the jogging of State Road Commission's memory about conditions that exist through our town and urge their early attention to same, was heartily supported.

Much of the business meeting was engrossed in discussing the supper and entertainment to be given at Grange Hall April 1. The supper will consist of salads and all accessories. The entertainment will be under the direction of our most worthy choir manager and all know her ability along these lines. So for 35c come and have a feast of plenty—for body and mind.

The lecture hour was a most enjoyable one, a "home pleasure hour," for grangers, with jokes, riddles, readings and worth-while discussions. It was an hour well spent and also some good information was handed out.

Grangers, come out to your meetings and gather what grains of knowledge and pleasure are scattered around.

PRESS CORRESPONDENT.

Bounty For Hawks

In response to an inquiry, State Game Warden LeCompte states that persons killing either chicken or bird hawks, which are the only two species of hawks for which a bounty is paid under the law, may take same to either the District Deputy Game Warden or any justice of the Peace, and make affidavit as to when and where said hawks were killed, and forward same to this Department, at which time we will be very glad to remit by check 50 cents for each hawk killed. This article was published in detail in a recent issue of this paper.

"The Sheik" Remarkable Picture.

One of the most remarkable pictures of the current season is "The Sheik," a Paramount picture produced by George Melford, which comes to the Lyceum Theatre, Friday and Saturday. It is said to be a photographic masterpiece. Agnes Ayres, a beautiful Paramount star, and Rudolph Valentino, a talented leading man, are the featured players.

New Night Officer—The Town Commissioners have appointed Mr. Rufus Collins night officer for Chestertown in place of Officer Foreacre, resigned. Mr. Collins is a most estimable man and will, we believe, make an excellent man for this position. He went on duty last night.
