LYCEUM THEATRE

CHESTERTOWN

Showing Only The Best In Motion Pictures

Friday and Saturday, April 21-22—Thomas Jefferson in "RIP VAN WINKLE."

As a novel "Rip Van Winkle" has brought joy to millions—kiddies and grown-ups alike—from the time Washington Irving penned the immortal lines right up to our own day.

In play form it has won for itself a place unique in the annals of the American stage and has served to make Joe Jefferson—who created the role—famous and wealthy.

And now, upon the silver sheet, Joe Jefferson gives new life to this ageless classic.

Admission 20, 20, 30.

Two shows Saturday night, starting at 7.15 and 8.45.

Monday and Tuesday, April 24 and 25—Elaine Hammerstein in "HANDCUFFS OR KISSES." A story that abounds with romance, action and human interest. Added Attraction—News, Movie Chats and "Winner of the West."

Wednesday and Thursday—April 26 and 27—CONSTANCE TALMADGE in "WOMAN'S PLACE." The Woman's Party ran Josephine for Mayor—but they wouldn't let her talk. They picked her for beauty not brains. But when she found her fiance was the opposition men's candidate not all the women in the world could stop Jo saying what she thought. Imagine the humor Constance Talmadge radiates in that role, with fourteen trunks of Parisian gowns as her political platform. It's a John Emerson-Anito Loos story, too—so be prepared for genuine joy. You'll get it. Admission—10c, 15c, and 25 cents.

Friday and Saturday, April 28-29—JACKIE COOGAN in "Peck's Bad Boy."

Hooray Kids! The baddest boy in the world is coming to town. Little Jackie Coogan was a good youngster in "The Kid," thereby endearing himself to millions of theatre-goers; but, oh, my, how he has changed! They say you will like him just as much, however.

Grownups will enjoy this picture as well as the younger folk. Don't miss it. Come early.

Two shows Saturday night, starting at 7.15 and 8.45.
