DEATHS

This community, quick to extend the hand of sympathy to those saddened by grief, was touched to the heart by the sudden death of Mrs. Ida Eugenia Duyer, beloved wife and almost life-time companion of Mr. Frank E. Duyer, of Chestertown, on Monday evening. The end was caused by heart trouble, with which Mrs. Duyer has suffered intermittently for many years. She was 60 years of age. Mrs. Duyer was attending a meeting of the Ladies Aid Society of Christ M. P. Church, at the home of Mrs. J. H. Simpers, with whom she was closely connected by ties of friendship, when the end came. She was in about as good health as usual, was laughing and talking in her usual jovial way and was in the midst of one of the events of her life which she most enjoyed, and passed peacefully and painlessly away with a smile upon her face.

She is survived by her husband, one of the most prominent builders and contractors of the county, and two daughters, Misses Maude E. and Rose H. Duyer; also five sisters, Mrs. Hyson Dill, Mrs. George Dill; Mrs. George V. Byron, Miss Anna Wood and Mrs. J. E. Newton; and one half brother, Mr. Frank Wood.

The funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. N. O. Gibson, pastor of Christ M. P. Church. Rev. Mr. Gibson paid a just tribute to the worth of the deceased to the community and the loss which the church has suffered through the death of Mrs. Duyer. Interment was in Chester cemetery. The pall bearers were as follows: William T. Duyer, Lawrence E. Duyer, William Peacock, Wilmer Dill, Clinton C. Jones and Fred G. Usilton. Undertaker C. L. Dodd.

Mrs. Duyer was a lady of particular and unusual charm. Of an exceptionally jovial disposition, she appreciated and enjoyed the humorous things of life, at the same time having a kind and loving heart that was big enough to give sympathy and express sorrow for the many who came to her with their woes. She was a lady of great refinement and possessed an intense love for the good things in literature and passed many happy moments in a busy life reading the delightful and beautiful in fiction and in history. She was almost a life-time member of Christ M. P. Church, and the work of the church and ministering to those who needed help, as well as the joys and the comforts of a beautiful home life, were among the greatest joys of her useful life. She was a lover of flowers and trees and all the beauties of nature and passed away at a time when the earth was strewn with nature's choicest floral gifts.

She lived a peaceful, happy and most useful life, and passed away leaving a host of warm friends and acquaintances, who mourn almost as deeply as those who stand closer in the shadow. In her death the church has lost an earnest worker and a good member, her friends have lost a companion who cannot be replaced, while the whole community has lost a most valuable and a most useful citizen.

Charles William Wheat died on Tuesday, May 9, at his late home near Worton of tuberculosis, aged 27 years. The deceased leaves a mother, Mrs. Mary E. Wheat and the following brothers and sisters, Mrs. Mary E. Coleman, Mrs. Maud B. McLeod, George W. Wheat, Mrs. Mildred J. Rodney, Mrs. Grace Welch, Samuel B., Elwood R. and James R. Wheat. Funeral services were held on Friday morning at 10.30 o'clock in St. James M. P. Church conducted by Rev. Mr. Simms; interment at St. Paul's cemetery. The following were the pall bearers: his three brothers, Samuel, George and Elwood Wheat, Bertie Coleman, Frank Welch and Walter Rodney. S. L. Dodd undertaker.

Sebastian B. Gaudel died suddenly at his home south of Rock Hall Saturday, May 4, aged 65 years and 3 days. He went out to feed the cow and, failing to return in a few minutes, as expected, his wife went to investigate and found him lying in the yard. Death was due to myocarditis complicated by arterio sclerosis. The deceased moved there about two years ago from Bluefield, W. Va. Besides his wife he leaves a brother in Minnesota and a sister in New York. Funeral was held May 9, at Rock Hall M. E. Church, conducted by Rev. W. H. Revelle, interment in Wesley Chapel cemetery. T. H. Casey, undertaker.

News reached Rock Hall the latter part of last week that Edward B. Willson, son of the late R. B. Willson, of Rock Hall, had been killed in an auto accident in New York. Young Willson had made his home in St. Petersburg, Florida, for some years and was in New York on business.

Mrs. Henrietta Townsend, wife of Mr. Wm. C. Townsend, and daughter of the late J. Henry Porter, died at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. C. J. Todd, in Wilmington, Del., Thursday, May 11, at noon, of palpitation. Her remains will be brought to Chestertown by train and funeral held here at one p. m. on Sunday afternoon. Besides her husband, she leaves six children, Edna, George, Hulbert, Russell, Etta, and Clifton. Rev. O. E. Jones will have charge of the funeral services, interment in Chester cemetery.

AMERICAN LEGION NOTES

Items Gathered Here And There Concerning World War Men That Will Interest Our Readers

The tickets for the raffle of the Ford car by the local American Legion have almost all been sold.

When state officials of the American Legion in West Virginia heard that several ex-service men's organizations were considering asking Jack Dempsey to appear before them they issued a statement which refused any sanction to any affair to which the world's fighting champion might be invited.

The local American Legion is preparing to have a big celebration again this year on Decoration Day, May 30. Last year the event was a tremendous success. That it will be equally so this year goes without saying.

After the college trustees had refused their request to have the college president removed from office, students at Colorado College set off a huge giant firecracker on the president's lawn, burned red fuses and hauled the American flag to half mast. For the latter act they aroused the wrath of American Legion members, who demanded that the flag be rightly hung.

News reaches some places quicker than it does others. The American Legion has received a letter from a world war veteran who says, "I understand the government is giving us adjusted compensation with the option of taking land or money. I've just discovered an island in the St. Lawrence river that I want, so tell the government that I'll take that."

With its hotels, lodging houses and even streets full to the brim with wounded ex-service men, victims of the late war, Rochester, Minn., a town of less than 14,000 souls greatly resembles the small French villages that were located just back of the Allied line of battle in 1918, to which our maimed men were carried. Mayo Bros., the renowned surgeons, are located at this place and the soldiers have gathered there for treatment and relief.

Jobless and without money, F. W. Smith, of Omaha, Neb., ex-soldier and head of family of three, grasped at the chance to make money offered by the employment service and sold a pint of his blood for $25. By this act he saved the life of Edward Belitz, Belgrade, Neb., who had been severely wounded.

The American Legion now has branches in practically every known part of the world, according to a report made public at national headquarters of the organization. Ex-service men in Denmark and others in New Zealand are the latest to band themselves into a Legion outfit, the report shows. These two brought the total number of Legion posts, scattered throughout the world, to 11,013.

Praise For Eastern Shore

Natives of those counties of the State of Maryland that lie to the east of Chesapeake Bay are enthusiastic boosters of their part of the world. According to them, the "Eastern Sho" is a paradise on earth, and the traveler who has visited this beautiful district of broad waters and pleasant countrysides is not disposed to quarrel with their enthusiasm. To illustrate this love of home land, the late Franklin K. Lane used to tell of a legend related to him by an elderly clergyman who proudly claimed the Eatsern Sho as his birthplace. Said the old gentleman: "Adam and Eve, while still residents of the Garden of Eden, fell sick. The good Lord was worried about them—so worried that He called together a council of His Angels, told them that He thought our ancestors' health would benefit by a change of scene, and asked for suggestions as to where they should be sent to obtain this change. The Angel Gabriel spoke up. 'The Eastern Shore of Maryland,' he suggested. But the Lord shook His head. "Oh, no, He said, that wouldn't be sufficient change."—Popular Magazine.

CHURCH NOTES

Mr. William Wallace, of Wilmington, the new choir leader of Chestertown M. E. Church, began his work on Sunday last. He made a most favorable impression with everyone. He has a rich baritone voice and has received a liberal education in music. He and family will locate here permanently. Mr. Wallace will be a big addition to the musical life of the community and he has received a most hearty and cordial welcome.

STREETS TO BE IMPROVED

A vote for the Bond Issue is a vote in favor of the building of over 1½ miles of new side walks in Chestertown on the following streets, subject to minor changes:

High St. from Mill to College Ave.
Mill St., from Cannon to High.
Cross St., from Cannon to High.
Cross St., High to Maple Ave.
Kent St., Calvert to Washington Ave.
Queen St., Cannon to High.
Cannon St., Cross to Water.
College Ave., High to School House.

Also in favor of improving the street beds of the following streets:

Princess St., from Cannon to High.
Cross St., from High to Maple Ave.
Mill St., from Cannon to High.
Kent St., from Cannon to High.
Water St., from High to Maple Ave.
Cannon St., from Kent to Wafer St.

and for curbs and gutters on parts of Washington Ave.

This building program covers a large portion of the town and gives some new work in every section.

A vote in favor of these improvements is a vote in favor of progress, in favor of making this the ideal town of the Eastern Shore, a vote against these improvements is a vote against progress, is a vote to retard the progress and growth of our town and will make us go backward instead of forward. Let's co-operate for a bigger a better, a more progressive and attractive town. In union there is strength. Let us unite on Monday, May 15, for the advancement of our town, our county and ourselves.

SPORTS

(Other Sorts on page 7)

The southern trip of Washington College has not been so successful to date. They lost to Georgetown Tuesday, 5 to 1 and to Lynchburg Wednesday by the same score. Georgetown has one of the strongest college teams in the country.

The Cambridge baseball team failed to show up on Friday last to play the Chestertown High School team.

Crumpton M. E. Sunday School team defeated Christ M. P. Sunday School team Saturday by the score of 11 to 7.

The boys who will take part in the Rally Day athletic stunts are hard at work training for the event they are in.

The Chestertown baseball team is now organized, with Mr. Fred S. Russell as manager and Mr. Walter Wright as president; Secretary-Treasurer, C. H. Morris; Asst. Sec., Richard Collins. This new organization will not ask contributions, but will issue season tickets, thus giving to each well wisher of the community a run for his money, and it is hoped and believed that Chestertown has a sufficient number of baseball fans who will support the team with the same enthusiasm that teams of the past few years have been supported. The team will be composed of all home players. The season will open the middle of June.
