November 1st 1790 The Vestry met, present Revd Geo. Bowers
Thomas Spriggs Alex. Cagell & Ely Williams

Mr Alex. Cagell engages to use his utmost endeavors in completing the collection of subscriptions for the Revd Mr Bowers Salary, and with Captain Rigm Davis to apply to Mr Chas. Onial to officiate as Clerk to this Congregation Chosen Alex. Cagell and Rigm Davis are appointed to open a subscription for the Revd Mr Bowers Salary the ensuing year which is to be paid at one hundred pounds and also a subscription for the Clerk

February 7th 1791 The Vestry met present Revd George Bowers Alex. Cagell Alex. Cagell & Richard Pindell

Who proceeded to the choice of a Collector to collect Mr Bowers Salary for the present year and the balances due on all the old subscription papers when Mr Henry Gamwell was unanimously chosen who is to receive Four pounds in full for his services

The Vestry then proceeded to the choice of a Treasurer when Capt. Rigm Davis was appointed.

The Vestry accepts of Mr Chas. Onials proposal to act as Clerk of the Church and agree to pay him the sum of Twenty Dollars for his service for eight months to commence the first day of April and to end the last day of December next, and the Registrar is directed to give Mr Onial this information

The Register

The Register is directed to furnish Mr Henry Gamwell with a copy of his appointment, and the list of balances and is to pay the money as he collects it into the hands of the Treasurer

Adjourned till 1st Monday in March next Monday 25th April 1791. The Vestry met, present Revd George Bowers

Alex. Cagell, Alex. Cagell & Richd Pindell

Adjourned till the first Monday in May next,

Agreeably to notice given a number of the inhabitants of Washington County met at the Court House on the second day of May and proceeded to the choice of seven persons to act as a Vestry when, Daniel Hughes Alex. Cagell Ely Williams Richard Pindell, Rigm Cagell, William Gordon & William Reynolds were chosen, who met and proceeded to the choice of Church Wardens when Rigm Davis and Richard Snitker were elected for the ensuing year

Adjourned till the first Monday in June next