CHESTERTOWN BASEBALL TEAM OPENS SEASON WITH VICTORY OVER ST. MICHAELS—OTHER NEWS OF THE SPORTING REALM

Washington College closed its baseball season on Monday with a victory over St. Paul's of Wilmington. While W. C. has not showed good form in many contests, they have, nevertheless, at times displayed good baseball and won a great majority of their important games.

The baseball season for the summer has begun under conditions that should make every fan feel like patronizing the home club and keeping the sport alive here and the town on the baseball map of the Eastern Shore. Other towns, beside the league towns, have teams, and some interesting games should result. Chestertown has the material for a good team and if the Kent County fans will turn out and give the encouragement to the team that comes with the receipts at the gate, the season will be most interesting.

The Chestertown baseball team has a strong opponent for July 4th and a big turn-out is looked for.

Morvich, hailed as the successor to Man-of-War, met his master Saturday when Benjamin Block's wonder colt trailed eight lengths behind H. P. Whitney's entry at the finish. But, then, Man-of-War was beaten once!

The U. S., Great Britain, Ireland, Canada and France own more than 93 percent of the registered automobiles of the world. The exact figure is 11,651,622.

George Sisler, of St. Louis, is first in batting in either league, first in runs scored in either league, first in total hits in the leagues, 1st in total bases in either league, first in three-base hits in either league; first in stolen bases in either league; first in either league to make 100 hits this season; also close to the top in two-baggers and home runs in the American League.

The Chestertown baseball team, composed of all-home players, played the first game of the season at St. Michaels on Saturday, and won the score being 12 to 5. Usilton was on the hill for Chestertown for several innings, Lee Robinson being at the receiving end of the battery. Edward Robinson succeeded Usilton. The team showed good hitting ability and played sharply in the field at times.

Parksley is making a runaway in the Eastern Shore League. Cambridge, which is composed of four of this year's Washington College team, is playing good ball, but don't seem able to stop Parksley.

The Chestertown baseball team will play St. Stephen's Athletic Club, of Wilmington, Del., this afternoon on Washington Field. A good crowd is expected. Go out and help the home team to win!

The St. Michaels-Chestertown baseball game on Washington Field, which was scheduled for Wednesday to mark the opening of the season here, was not played because of the rain. St. Michaels was on hand and had gone at to practice when the rain descended in torrents, causing the few spectators who had braved to approaching storm, to huddle beneath the grandstand while the elements thundered their mightiest and literarally bombarded the attendance, with blinding streaks of lightning and tremendous peals of thunder.

A good schedule has been arranged for next Wednesday and Saturday. To keep the Chestertown team going, the people must turn out or buy season tickets, which are being sold for $5 each, and entitle the holders to admittance to every game of the season.

The unprovoked assault upon Umpire Knowlton in a game at Crisfield recently is a sample of how a person will allow the instincts of the brute to become predominant in his make-up, unless he keeps a close grip upon himself in the face of unrestrained excitement. Baseball, football and, in fact, all other sports, bring out the best as well as the worst there is in a man. In the stress and strain that a close contest causes a spectator—especially one with rough instincts—to undergo, he is apt to degenerate to proportions that make him an element dangerous to society. It will be well, then, for all of us to take a lesson from the affair at Crisfield and keep a firm grip upon ourselves at all times, lest we, too, for the moment loss control of ourselves, and in an unguarded moment, do something which will make us sorry the balance of our lives.

Kennedyville and Chestertown will play on Washington Field Wednesday next. Kennedyville always puts up a hard fight and we look for the game to be one in which all elements of a contest will play a most important part.

Word comes from Cambridge to the effect that Duffy has been dropped from that team. Duffy is a mighty good ball player, but not a star actor, and it takes some time for him to get in good playing condition. One thing we will say, and it is that we doubt if the entire Eastern Shore League has a ball player that is as good as Duffy would develop into had Capt. Kibler remained with Cambridge. Duffy is one of those easy, listless sort of chaps who round into form in warm weather and play the game for all its worth then. He is also a mighty fine man for a team and we regret that Duffy has not made good with Cambridge.

Bill Johnson, of Washington College, perhaps the best all-around third baseman that ever played the game at the institution, is hammering the ball hard at Cambridge and is said to be the best third baseman in the league. Johnson has one big advantage over Flowers and Duffy, and that is general health and the vitality that comes with it. He is brimming with good, red blood and overflowing with the nervous energy that comes with the same. We look for Johnson to do big things in baseball in the future.

A final word regarding the Chestertown baseball team: Rally to their support and make the team a success. It costs practically nothing to maintain the team and a summer baseball team is a mighty good thing for a town like Chestertown.

Pryor Armstrong, perhaps the best all-around athlete that the Chestertown High School has produced in a generation, is slated for the University of Maryland this fall, we understand. We wish him all kinds of good luck.

There was a time when an automobile dealer considered the sale of the car as his entire responsibility to his customer.

But in the nature of things it developed that the automobile owner needed more than a new car to be entirely happy.

We are proud of the fact that we were among the first to recognize and accept the dealer's responsibility for the satisfaction of the owner.
