Picknell 35381

Record 2:15¼

Made in Third Heat of Winning Race

Bred by C. W. Williams, Galesburg, Ill. Foaled 1901. A model in every way. His size, 15.2 hands, weight close to 1050 pounds, and color, mahogany bay, are ideal. His disposition and manners are perfect. His breeding, the highest of fashion—a son of the greatest sire of his age, living or dead, Allerton 2.09¼, world's champion trotting stallion to high wheels, from one of the greatest producing daughters of Baron Wilkes 2:18, the famous Futurity sire. A race horse himself, never having worn hobbles nor other false rigging; started green in the late summer of 1906 in six races, winning two of them, and was well up into the money the other four, he has, (though prominent horsemen have pronounced him capable of a record of 2:05 or better), been retired to the stud, sound, clean, superbly handsome, with vigor and vitality unimpaired, saving for his offspring what a mere racing-machine wears out on the track.

PICKNELL will make the season of 1909 at my stable, Kent and Calvert Streets, Chestertown, Kent Co., Md., at $15.00 the season, or $25.00 to insure approved mares.

Will not be responsible for accident or escapes, but best care taken of mares sent to me. For extended pedigree that will interest any horseman or for fuller particulars call on or address

Muckraking The Boys.

It seems that the Has-Bins those of Mature and elder years forget that they were once young, at which time not so many temptations fell to their lot, yet it is considered awful by them that children and youths with healthy minds and bodies-with the exuberance of life, should get into innocent escapades, the children and youths of to-day-the Its-with their manifold, social, athletic and sporting associates, commongly with Tom, Dick and Harry whose experience in life and and mischievenous in general, set the pace. With temptations strewed and neglected affairs of business to draw upon their thoughtless (but so called awful) escapades, and cast them to the four winds of the scandal association. God help them, but the has-bins, Oh well, if stock of their escapades, were honestly taken It's little affairs would look like thirty cents, with a deduction of twenty-five for truthtfulnes and honor. The has-bins would have to acknowledge their skill in side steping the nosy-pokers and speed in vanishing from sight and thought of the gossipers, a speed that would throw dust in Dan Patch eyes not withstanding their heavy load of hurry to get to cover. Children are accredited with telling the unvarnished truth.

Now Mr. Mrs. and Miss has-bin, get back to childish intentiveness, erase muckraking and its methods from the vocabulary of your future thoughts and acts so far as the It's are concerned. Quit reciving the fifteen minute news gossip, especially when issuing extra copies every two seconds filled with sweet morsals of gossip before the act occurs, furnish the It's a helpfull ladder of four rounds forbearance, consideration, forgiveness and kindness, and see how quietly they will climb, and tenaceously they will hold on, and how strenuously they will strive to show their appreciation, their hearts will expand with love and kindness, leading them to the stream of usefulness and to the past of manly boys.

Its the boyish energy into the road of Mischiet, Labor, Good Deeds or Wickedness. To which road are your precepts in life directing them. Are you the member of the scandal association who ask the minister to decide your dispute regarding the age of your presiden, the devil, and was informed that you must keep your own family record. Are you a member of the automobile brigade thats cleaning up the high-ways and by-ways of all gossipers, and intention ally runing down down all members of the scandal association.

If the latter, kindly obtain a speed permit for a two second pace back and forth giving a guaranteed death rate of ten to the second for a period of years until the atmosphere is cleared of sut, and the road to honor is safe from the gossiping highwaymen and scandal murders of morals.

The Hand of Death.

Prof. J. Alfred Greenwood died at his home in Rock Hall last Friday morning after a long illness. He leaves a widow and four children, two daughters, Mrs. Joseph Kendall and Mrs. George Oettinger, and two sons, Mr. Clarence A. and Prof. Arthur J. Greenwood.

Funeral services were held Monday morning, the religious rites being conducted by Rev. J. T. Richardson, pastor of Rock Hall M. E. Church. Prof. Milton Melvin superintendent of Public School, delivered a touching eulogy and Mr. Jefferson Ayres read the burial ceremony of the Knights of Pythias ritual. The interment was in Chester Cemetery.

Mr. Greenwood was born February 10, 1846, in Fairlee, this county, his father, John Greenwood, being also a native of that place. The latter spent his entire life as a farmer, and was prominent in his locality, being an active Democrat. In 1852 and 1853 he served as sheriff of his county, and about 1854 held the office of county commissioner. For a great many years he was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in which he took an active interest. He was fairly prosperous in his work as a farmer, and died at the age of Seventy-seven years. The family is of English descent, the father of John Greenwood, William having been born in Southampton, England. He emigrated to this country about 1778, setting in New York, where he remained for a few years. Thence he went to Delaware and carried on a farm in the second district of this county, where his death occured at the good old age of eighty-four, when he was still active in mind and body. He served in the war of 1812, belonging to Reed's rifle corps, add took part in the battle of Corksfield, which occured in the fifth district. His wife, Mary Twiford, the grandmother of J. Alfred Greenwood, was also a native of England. She was brought to this country at an early age and married here. Her death occured in 1882. She had seven children, six of whom died young. After her husband married a Miss Adkinson, of Caroline County, and they left one son, James W.

Caroline Adkinson, mother of J. Alfred Greenwood, was a native of Rock Hall, Kent County. Like her husband, she was a faithful adherent of the Methodist Episcopal Church. She died at the age of fifty-four years, leaving five children, namely: John, a resident of the third dirtriet, and an active politican; J. Alfred James, a farmer residing in the third district; Henry, also a farmer of the third district; and Martha I., who died at about the age of fifty years.

The early education of the subject of this sketch was obtained in the public schools of his native county. At the age of fourteen years he went to Baltimore, and secured a position as clerk in a general commission store, remaining there for about five years. Thence he returned to Kent County and began teaching school, a profession he has followed, for over thirity-six years. During all this time he missed only two weeks' time from his work, with the exception of the time taken up by vacations. For eleven years of this time he taught the old home school in which his early education was received. His labors have been confined to this county, and during his whole experience as a teacher he has never been discharged from a school. Some years ago he accepted the position of principal of the Rock Hall city schools and had four assistants. The satisfactory state of the schools is strong proof of his ability and that his ideas and methods are modern and progressive.

Mr. Greenwood's wife, to whom he was married January 11, 1872, was formerly Miss Mary M. Toulson, of Kent County, a daughter of Thomas Toulson.

Though a life-long Republican. Mr. Greenwood found little time or inclinanation for active politics. For about twenty years he held the position of postmaster at Fairlee, where he also kept a general store. This latter business he carried on until 1894, when he went to fill his post at Rock Hall.

Mr. Greenwood, his wife and family were all members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, taking a warm interest in its welfare, and the former was superintendent of its Sunday-school.

IN MEMORIAM.

In remembrance of Mrs. Joseph Taylor who fell asleep in Jesus May 17th, 1909.

In the church yard softly sleeping,
Is the one I love so dear.
All alone a tender watch I am keeping
O'er the little ones left to my care.
Angels guard my darling loved one,
As she slumbers gently there.
—DEVOTED HUSBAND.

Our darling mother from us is gone,
Her voice we loved is stil l,
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
God in his wisdom has recalled
The boon his love has given,
And tho' her body slumbers here
Her soul is safe in heaven.
—BY HER CHILDREN.

Tis hard to break the tender cord
When love has bound the heart.
Tis hard so hard to speak the word,
Must we for ever part?
Dearest loved one we have laid thee,
In the peaceful grave's embrace,
But thy memory will be cherished
Till we see thy heavenly face.
—LOVING MOTHER.

Peaceful be thy silent slumber,
Peaceful in thy grave so low.
Thou no more will join our number,
Thou no more our songs will know.
Yet again we hope to meet thee
When the day of life is fled.
And in heaven with joy to greet thee
Where no farewell tears are shed.
Gone but not forgotten.
—SISTER MAGGIE.

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear friend Miss Mary Royer who departed this life one year ago today June 9, 1909.

How sad this day one year ago
When Mary dear she died
How sad our lives without her
Words can never describe.
Farewell dear Mary is a solemn word
Which thrills through every heart
But oh it is the will of God
That dearest ones must part.

A Friend S. E.

YOUR BACKACHE WILL YIELD

To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Rockland, Maine.—"I was troubled for a long time with pains in my back and side, and was miserable in every way. I doctored until I was discouraged, and thought I should never get well.
