MILLINGTON MATTER.

Miss Sarah M. Jones died at the residence of her nephew, Mr. George Jones, near town Tuesday afternoon. Miss Jones had been in ill health for several monts, but the attending physician, Dr. C. P. Gowman, had no hope of her recovery from the first as he said it was a general breakdown of the system. Miss Jones was 74 years of age and had lived in the vicinity of Millington all her life. She was a member of Trinity M. E. Church, South. She was a sister of the late James R. Jones, who was well-known in this county. Her funeral took place Friday morning at 10.30 A. M. Services were held at the house and were conducted by Rev. J. H. Kuhlmann, pastor of Trinity Church. Interment was made in Millington cemetery.

Dr. and Mrs. N. W. Jeter gave a card party to a number of their friends last Saturday evening. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Dudley, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Spear, Mrs. R. W. Comegys, Dr. and Mrs. N. M. Jeter, Mrs. Martha McWhorter, Misses Vic Power, Millie Comegys, Evelyn Cochran, Eva Comegys, Mattie and Mary Hazell, Rose Comegys, Lillie and Hannah Ware, of Massey, Messrs. Paul Comegys, Harry Hendrickson and Mr. Barnhart.

Another enjoyable evening was spent Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Comegys, when they gave a card party to their friends. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Collins, Dr. and Mrs. N. M. Jeter, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Dudley, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Spear, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Comegys, Misses Vic Power, Julia Cacy, Millie Comegys, Rose, Eva and Lillian Comegys, Mattie and Mary Hazell and Everlyn Cochran, Messrs. Barnhart, Paul Comegys and Harry Hendrickson.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Spear was baptized last Sunday afternoon, during the P. E. service, by Rev. Albert Ware. The baby was given its father's name, James Edwin.

Miss Eva Comegys is holding a lucrative position with a first-class milliner in North Carolina.

Miss Etta Price, of Middletown, Del., is spending an indefinite period with her cousin, Mrs. James R. Jones, on Sassafras St.

Mrs. John E. Woodall spent several days last week with friends in Phila.

Mrs. J. P. Ahern and daughter, Miss Lura, spent several days last week in Philadelphia and Wilmington, Del.

Misses Rose Comegys and Mary Hazell have accepted positions with Armstrong, Cator & Co., wholesale milliners, of Baltimore.

Mrs. Sutton, of Blacks, spent last Sunday with Misses Vic and Helen Power.

Misses Lillie and Hannah Ware, of Massey, spent last Sunday with Misses Mary and Mattie Hazell.

Messrs. H. Tonkin and J. P. Ahern spent last Tuesday in Chestertown.

Miss Julia Cacy has returned from a visit of several weeks with friends in Chestertown.

GALENA ITEMS.

Messrs. Earle Barnes and Clifton Coleman, of Chestertown, are visiting Mr. Daniel Steele.

The young men of Galena held their 14th annual dance in the I. O. O. F. hall Friday evening, Feb. 24th. Owing to the bad roads, the guests were not so numerous as usual. The absense of several would-be-guests being very noticiable. Music was furnished by Aglesby Bros. of Chester, Pa. The potronesses were Mrs. J. P. Cochran, Mrs. F. P. Cochran, Mrs. A. W. Wilsen, Mrs, A. W. Cochran, Mrs. A. H. Johnson. Committee of arrangements, Messrs. W. A. Hyland, Jr., A. W. McCauley, S. H. McCauley, F. K. Cochran, J. E. Woodall. Those present were: Philadelphia, Miss Ruth Mitchell, Mr. Jarvis Whitaker. Middletown, Misses Mabel and Ethel Cochran, Julian Ford, Dan'l Cochran, Douglas Cochran, Wallace Beaston, Fred Crouch. Warwick, Misses Julia Lockwood and Beulah Crawford. Georgetown, Miss Fannie Woodall, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Wilson, Mr. James Woodall. Chestertown, Miss Bertie Beck, Hynson Beck, Harry Nicols. Still Pond, Misses Mary Strong, Mattie and Emma Davis, Grace and Nannie Price, Edward and Wm. Hepbron, Edward, Wallace and Walter Davis. Millington, Misses Eva and Lillian Comegys, Carroll Clark, and Paul Comegys. Massey, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Johnson. Sassafras, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cochran, Miss Fannie Johnson, Bradford Johnson, Jacob Shallcross, Wm. Shallcross. Galena, Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cochran, Mrs. I. A. McCauley, Miss Florence Cochran, W. A. Hyland, Jr., A. W. McCauley, S. H. McCauley, Kuth Cochran, J. S. Cochran, John McIntyre, Bradford Pierce, Louis Hayes.

The Galena cornet band will hold a meeting for the purpose of reorganizing on Friday evening March 10, at 7:30 P. M.

STILL POND NEWS.

Mrs. George Atwell, who has been visiting friends in Philadelphia has returned home.

Washington's birthday was remembered last week by our school.

Miss Ruth Robinson has returned home after spending quite a long time with her sister Mrs. Kelley, in Baltimore.

Mr. Isaac Robinson and Mr. Scarborough, of Baltimore, visited our town on business last week.

The Farmers Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Bonwell, Thursday of last week. It will hold its next meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Harris.

The Epworth League was led Sunday evening by Rev. T. F. Beauchamp, the subject being Medical Mission.

Miss Florence Rasin has returned home after visiting in Wilmington.

Miss Bessie Wheatley, of Chestertown, spent Sunday in our village.

January and Feb. have been very hard on our merchants, as the snow and the bad roads have made it unfit for any one to travel.

Miss Jennie Coleman entertained a few of her friends at a pit and flinch party Thursday evening.

Those on the sick list are Mrs. Parrot, Misses Lucille Parr, Mae Hackett, Lydia Hackett, Mable and Laura Norris and Mrs. Richards.

BE WISE.

WARWICK ITEMS.

The Fourth Quarterly Conference of Warwick Circuit Methodist Protestant Church, was held in Mt. Olivet Church, Warwick, on Tuesday, Feb. 28th, with quite a number present from Sassafras and Warwick appointments. Reports from the different branches of the work showed all to be moving along nicely. Mr. Louis P. King was elected delegate to the conference which meets in Salisbury in April, and Robert S. Griffin alternate. The Quarterly Conference by a unanimous rising vote instructed the delegate to use all means in his power to have our present pastor, Rev. Frank S. Cain, returned to us for the coming year.

The bazaar and supper held last week by Camp 8, P. O. S. of A., was quite a success. Quite a neat little sum was realized, and the Camp takes this means of thanking the ladies and friends who helped so much to make it a success.

Quite a number of persons visited our town the past week, among whom we noticed Mrs. R. D. Aiken and Mrs. Lynch, who were guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Wilson.

Mrs. Spear and daughter, Miss Mamie, were the guests of Mrs. S. D. Wilson and Mrs. J. W. Parris.

We are sorry to note the fact that Mrs. Wm. Price, one of our oldest inhabitants fell Tuesday morning and broke her arm.

Mr. and Mrs. Urie P. Ginn, from near Odessa, spent Saturday and Sundap with Mrs. Ginn's mother, Mrs. Curtis Vinyard.

Miss Porter, of Smyrna, spent from Saturday until Monday with Mrs. S. E. Gunkle.

Miss Emma Vinyard and Miss Helen Eaton spent Saturday in Wilmington on shopping bent.

Miss Bessie Bishop spent last Wednesday and Thursday at the parsonage as the guest of Rev. Mr. Cain and wife.

Mr. George Bowman is quite sick with pneumonia.

Dr. J. J. Wright is quite indisposed at this writing.

Others who are suffering with the lagrippe or heavy cold we notice are Rev. Frank S. Cain, B. F. Vinyard, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Bishop, Mr. J. H. R. Price. We hope to see them all restored to their usual health in the near future.

Mrs. Frank Worden is quite ill.

BETTERTON BRIEFS.

In the "items" of last week, telling of the recent play given by the local talent of Betterton there was one name omitted, for the benefit of those that didn't read it, and those that did read it, that name and the rest will be given, Mrs. Frank Clark, Mrs. James Sutton, Mrs. Frank Young and Mrs. Will Pennington; Misses Lillie Crownhart, Florence Jewell, Violet Moore, Flossie Smith, Elsie Silcox and Lillie Harrison; Messrs. Chas. Brice, Lit Crew and Jamie Brice. Several have asked the committe to repeat the play, but have been refused as the young ladies wish to present during Easter, the old fashioned drama "Aunt Jerusha's Quilting Party," and the repetition of the "Comedietta" would interfere with rehearsing.

A measuring Social was held at the home of Mr. G. E. Owens, on Thursday evening. A large crowd was present and every one spent a delightful evening, wondering that they had grown so tall in such a short time.

Miss Elizabeth Gallagher, of Baltimore, after spending a week with Mrs. Horce Brice, is visiting friends in Chestertown.

Mrs. Harvey Brice, who has been visiting relatives in Baltimore for sometime returned home Saturday.

Mrs. Clarence Roe, of Delaware, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Silcox.

Mr. Howard Owens paid a flying visit to Philadelphia last week.

Many of the citizens say that they have never seen the roads in a worse condition.

We are very sorry to state that Miss Elsie Crew is under medical treatment in Baltimore.

Up to this writing there is not a single air hole in the bay. We have most given up hopes of ever seeing a boat.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Mr. George F. Newton, who has been in poor health for several weeks past, returned to his home in Secretary, on Monday afternoon. Mr. Newton is one of our most highly esteemed students not only at the college; but also by the people of Chestertown. Mr. Newton's health has been failing gradually since Christmas and he had to abandon his work a few days ago. It was with sad foreboding that his many friends bade him farewell on Monday. May He, who holds the rivers in His palm, and tempers the wind to the shorn lamb, be merciful.

Miss Pauline Connor has returned to college after a most delightful visit of two weeks at her home.

The weekly gymnasium exhibition was given before the young ladies of Normal Hall, on Wednesday afternoon. After a most delightful afternoon in which many difficult feats such as the "Khan-Khan," "Jootsy Jootsy," "Fly away," "Muscle Stretchers," "Hand Spring," "Giant Swing," "Cut Off," the preformance closed with building a "Pyramid." The young men are expecting to return the visit in a few days.

While wrestling in a wrestling bout in the gymnasium on Wednesday Mr. A. S. Garrison was severely jolted up but did not sustain any very serious injury.

Speaking of somnambulism, a senior awaking from a dream the other night attempted to leap from the second story window. The best authorities have not yet fully decided whether it was a case of somnambulism or a case of?

Among the former students who returned for the Mt. Vernon reception were Misses Beck, Anthony, Burchinal, H. Toulson, M. Toulson, and Messrs. Warren, Price and Judge Parks.

Afraid of Strong Medicines.

Many people suffer for years from rheumatic pains, and prefer to do so rather than take the strong medicines usually given for rehumatism, not knowing that quick relief from pain may be had simply by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm and without taking any medicine internally. For sale by M. A. Toulson.

WORTON ITEMS.

Not seeing anything in your valued paper from Worton for some time, I thought I would let you see that we are not entirely frozen out. The boys have had some fun almost every week. Despite the cold they have been wasting powder and shot, shooting blue rock. I believe that Mr. Romie Shriven has had the highest score with Charles Geiser a close second.

The Union Christian Endeavor met at Mr. John W. Carters, last Tuesday evening, and enjoyed a pie social with about seventy members and friends present, where they enjoyed themselves with games and social discourse.

The Rev. Mr. Hubbart will deliver an extra sermon Sunday the 5th, before going to conference. I believe that members and friends all unite in wishing his return. All who wish to hear an extra good sermon will do well to attend the services.

Worton needs a new school house as the one at Cat's Corner is no better than a barn. It is almost impossible to heat it and in fact it is not fit for children and teachers to sit in. It is a wonder that teachers and all are not sick. The school should be in the village as the road to the school is almost impassable after a thaw and it is very often that after a rain one could row a boat from the old fair grounds stable to Mr. William's gate. We have two of the pluckiest little ladies in the county for teachers, they have come many a morning that a stout hearted man would hesitate to come as far as they do.

We have had quite a large trial before the magistrate, during the week. Mr. Sam Joiner replevied a carriage and harness from Mr. John F. Usilton. Mr. Usliton bought the carriage from Mr. Joiner with the understanding that the carriage was to be Mr. Usilton's until Mr. Joiner paid for it. Mr. Joiner claimed he only owed Mr. Usilton $6.00, while Mr. Usilton claimed $25.00. The magistrate after hearing the case decided that Mr. Joiner should pay Mr. Usilton $10.00 and take the carriage. Mr. Usilton paid the costs in the carriage.

JAKE.

Will of Charles E. Dickey.

The will of Charles E. Dickey, admitted to probate in the Orphan's Court, Baltimore, on Monday, bequeaths $50,000 to his widow, Mrs. Elizabeth J. Dickey, and his two daughters, Mrs. G. Wright Nicols and Henrietta S. Dickey, in trust for his daughter, Elizabeth Sadtler Dickey. If the last named daughter dies before her mother the $50,000 is to become part of the residue of the estate. Should she survive her mother the $50,000 is to vest absolutely in Mr. Dickey's six children, Katharine S. Nicols, Philip S. Dickey, Charles H., George S., Henrietta S. and Edmund S. Dickey. The husband and wife of any child dying without descendants is to receive one-third of his or her share. The residue of the estate is bequeathed to Mr. Dickey's widow and his three sons, in trust to pay the entire net income to Mrs. Dickey for life. Upon the death of Mrs. Dickey the residue is to be divided among the six children, the husband or wife of any child dying without descendants to receive one-third of his or her share. Mrs. Dickey was named executrix without bond. The will is dated April 28, 1904.

William E. Grinnage, S. G. Elbert, vs.
James Saunders and Laura Saunders his wife, Elvin Saunders and Caroline Saunders his wife, Comegys Caulk alias Comegys Cork, alias Thos. Caulk, alias Marshal Caulk and Cora Caulk his wife, Ara Matilda Rasin, formerly Ara Matilda Saunders and Wesley Rasin her husband, Chas. Hackett, Florence Hackett and Phenia Saunders, widow of Mark A. Saunders, all colored.

In the Circuit Court for Kent county, in Equity. No. 1354.

THE OBJECT of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain real estate in Kent county, of which Mark A. Saunders, colored, late of Kent county, died, seized and possessed.

The bill states that Mark A. Saunders, late of Kent county, deceased, was in his lifetime indebted unto S. G. Elbert in the sum of $9.00 on open account, and to William E. Grinnage in the sum of $38.00 on open account.

And the bill further states that the said Mark A. Saunders being so indebted, departed this life in the year 1896 intestate, possessed in fee simple of a tract of land situated in the First Election District of Kent county, but possessing no personal estate and leaving a widow surviving him and the following heirs at law, who are all adults, viz.: James Saunders and Laura Saunders, his wife, who reside in Wilmington, Delavare, Elvin Saunders and Caroline Saunders his wife, who reside in Chester, Pennsylvania, Comegys Caulk, alias Thomas Caulk, alias Comegys Cork, alias Marshall Caulk and Cora Caulk his wife, who live either in Queen Anne's county or Kent county; Ara Matilda Rasin and Wesley Rasin, who live in Queen Anne's county, Charles Hackett and Florence Hackett, who live in Queen Anne's county, Phenia Saunders, widow, who live in Queen Vnne's county.

And the bill states that in order to pay the claims of your orator it is necessary for the real estate of the said Mark A. Saunders to be sold.

To the end therefore that the real estate of Mark A. Saunders be sold or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the claims of your orators and those of the other unsatisfied creditors of the said Mark A. Saunders.

It is thereupon this 2nd day of February, 1905, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county as a Court of Equity, that the plaintiffs by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper printed and published in Kent county once a week for four successive weeks before the 6th day of March, giving notice to the said defendants and each of them who may not be residing in the State of Maryland, or who may be temporarily absent therefrom, viz.: James Saunders and Laura Saunders his wife, Elvin Saunders and Caroline Saunders his wife, Comegys Caulk, alias Thomas Caulk, alias Comegys Cork, alias Marshal Caulk and Cora Caulk his wife, Ara Matilda Rasin, formerly Ara Matilda Saunders and Wesley Rasin her husband, Charles Hackett, Florence Hackett and Phenia Saunders, widow of Mark A. Saunders, of the object and substance of this bill and warning them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor on or before the 23rd day of March next, to show cause if any they have why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
