BUSINESS OFFICE in the Kent News Building, where we shall be pleased to see our friends and the public.

CHESTERTOWN, March 23, 1893.

The Celebrated Cleveland Bay Stallion,

PRIDE OF ENGLAND,

Registered No. 161, Imported, Stands Alternate Weeks at Elkton and Chestertown, Maryland.

PRIDE OF ENGLAND, 161, is a beautiful Blood Bay Color, stands 17 hands high and weighs 1300 pounds.

Pride of England is registered in the Ontario Coach and Roadster Horse Breeders' Association of St. Thomas, Canada, as No. 161. He is a descendant of the best producing families on both sides for speed, beauty, endurance and general utility.

Tracing from Mark Twain, Moonstone and Old Clear Grit [859] as producers of speed, and through Rattler and Hornpipe to thoroughbred and imported coach horses, through Fox Hunter, Pride of England [161] sired by Mark Twain, he by Moonstone, by Old Clear Grit [859], he by Lapadist by Touchstone, the English race horse.

Mark Twain's dam Big Nell, by Foster's St. Lawrence, he by Old St. Lawrence. Mark Twain is sire of Nelly Baker with four-year-old record of 2.32 with six weeks' handling. She gave a trial mile on Woodbine track, Toronto, in 2.21¼, and a half mile in 1.08.

Moonstone's dam by Bradly's thoroughbred, he by Oliver's thoroughbred. Moonstone is sire of Nettie C., record 2.23, and several others that show their ability to trot close to 2.30.

Old Clear Grit [859] was one of the greatest Canadian sires. Sire of Amber, record 2.23, made in Australia, and the fastest record for two, three and ten miles in Europe, Flora F., 2.24¼, Bay William, 2.27¼, Little Billy, 2.23¾, Billy M., pacer, 2.19¾, Fuller, pacer, 2.13¾, St. Patrick, 2.30¼, and a large number that trot under 2.40.

Pride of England [161], dam Fanny [55] by McQueen's Rattler, he by Wilson's Rattler, he by Biggart's Rattler, by Sir Henry, he by the Garrett horse, by Leonidas Imported Thoroughbred. Biggart's Rattler sire of Joe Brown, 2.23, also sire of Warner's Rattler, sire of Mary Davis, 2.26.

Pride of England [161], grand dam by Hornpipe by Imported Thoroughbred, great grand dam by Fox Hunter, he by imported coach horse.

It will be seen by the above that Pride of England is gilt-edged on both sides.

Breeders cannot possibly err in breeding their brood mares to this noble stallion, as the intensity of his breeding is in itself a certainty that his stock will partake largely of the characteristics of their sire.

TERMS OF BREEDING.—$25, one-half during the season and the other half when mare proves in foal. For more than one mare special terms.

DANIEL WARREN, Groom.

LAUDANUM, BY YOUNG SMUGGLER.

Record 2.50 without training, at Poplar Grove track last 4th of July. His owner went twice to the driver and told him to let him go. The judges on the third heat were going to take the driver out of the sulky, but the driver promised to take the next heat, which he did, whic gave him his present record.

Judging a Man by His Cigar.

If he doesn't smoke any he is in luck.

If he always has a pocketful, he's a poor man.

If he smokes many of them in a day he has no fear of death.

If he smokes it right through he's a man of force of character.

If he affects the Old Kaintuck Long Nine he is contemplating suicide.

If he never has more than one he's cautious, and will probly die rich.

If he's always borrowing matches to light up he's a bloody, bloomin' nuisance.

If he tells you that his toby is better than your Henry Clay, he's got a lively imagination.

If he keeps it right between his teeth until it's smoked out, he's a man of determination.

If he chews the end much he's nervous and doesn't care a picyune for appearances.

If he lights up frequently he's as variable as the winds and thinks too hard with his thoughts.

If he smokes it clear down until it burns the ends of his mustache, he's of a thrifty disposition.

If he insists on you sampling his brand, he probably has designs on your life, or is generous to a fault.

Where Life Goes Out.

The Mohammedans always, whether in their own country or one of adoption, bury without coffin or casket of any kind.

During the time of the old Roman Empire the dead bodies of all except suicides were burned.

The Greeks sometimes buried their dead in the ground, but more generally cremated them in imitation of the Romans.

In India, up to within the last few years, the wife, either according to her wishes or otherwise, was cremated on the same funeral pyre that converted her lead husband's remains into ashes.

When a child dies in Greenland the natives bury a live dog with it, the dog to be used by the child as a guide to the other world. When questioned in regard to this peculiar superstition, they will only answer: "A dog can find his way anywhere."

The natives of Australia tie the hands of their dead together and pull out their nails; this if for fear the corpse will scratch his way out of the grave and become a vampire.

The primitive Russians place a certificate of character in the dead person's hands, which is to be given to St. Peter at the gates of heaven.

Bilious Colic Prevented.

Persons who are subject to attacks of bilious colic can almost invariably tell, by their feelings when to expect an attack. If Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy is taken as soon as these symptoms appear, they can ward off the disease. Such persons should always keep the Remedy at hand ready to immediate use when needed. Two or three doses of it at the right time will save them much suffering. For sale by M. A. Toulson, Chestertown, Md.; J. F. Ireland, Galena, Md.; Dr. N. Comegys, Millington, Md.

HAVE the fence tight around the field in which the lambs are confined; once they begin getting out they will be difficult to restrain.

Who Says Rheumatism Can Not be Cured?

My wife was confined to her bed for over two months with a very severe attack of rheumatism. We could get nothing that would afford her any relief, and as a last resort gave Chamberlain's Pain Balm a trial. To our great surprise she began to improve after the first application, and by using it regularly she was soon able to get up and attend to her house work.—E. H. Johnson, of C. R. Knutson & Co., Kensington, Minn. 50-cent bottles for sale by M. A. Toulson, Chestertown, Md.; J. F. Ireland, Galena, Md.; Dr. N. Comegys, Millington, Md.

WHILE sheep intended for later market need not be crowded now, yet it is very important to keep a good thrifty condition.

It is Good.

The more Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used the better it is liked. We know of no other remedy that always gives satisfaction. It is good when you first catch cold. It is good when your cough is seated and your lungs are sore. It is good in any kind of a cough. We have sold twenty-five dozen of it and every bottle has given satisfaction.—Steedman & Friedman, druggists, Minnesota Lake, Minn. 50-cent bottles for sale by M. A. Toulson, Chestertown, Md.; J. F. Ireland, Galena, M.; Dr. N. Comegys, Millington, Md.

WIDE sliding doors are best for the sheep sheds, as it lessens the risks of slamming on them, or of their injuring themselves by crowding.

IT would be worth the while for the ladies to bear in mind that if they task a gentle course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla in the spring, they will have no trouble with "prickly heat," "hives," "sties," "boils," or "black heads," when summer comes. Prevention is better than cure.

IN attempting to cheapen the cost of keeping sheep, the wool and the carcass should not be overlooked, but care be taken to improve steadily.

PASTURE down the fields farthest from the barn site and save those that are close to the stables for later pasturing.

THE shoulders produces the best wool, the belly the worst and the back and sides an average.

IF working back into sheep again look out for good wethers as well as wool, and try a combination.
