Monday Oct. 12. 1840.

The Vestry met at the Parsonage. Present Frisby Tilghman Joseph. Sotterrick John S. Hamilton. Peregrine Fitzhugh Charles J. Shird. William H. Fitzhugh & Ira Dorsey.

William H. Fitzhugh was appointed the President pro tem:

An motion made & seconded John Thompson Mason was unanimously elected Vestry man -

The Vestry then went into an election for Rector, and on motion made & seconded it was thereupon resolved to proceed to the Election of a Rector in the room of the Revd. John Wiley recently resigned upon which it appeared that the Revd. Theodore B. Lyman, was the unanimous choice of the Vestry and he was accordingly elected Rector of the Parish

The Register was instructed to communicate to the Revd. Gentleman, the fact of his election and the agreement of the Vestry to allow and pay to him quarterly an annual Salary of $600. with the use of the parsonage and appurtenances.

And also, that with a view to his greater usefulness, his more comfortable and permanent settlement among us, and the promotion of peace and harmony The Vestry deem it proper and necessary to stipulate, that the said salary will be paid ratably to the Rector up to the second Monday after next Easter Sunday and that from that day, they will consider a new year of his Service to begin and to be terminated on the second Monday after Easter in the Year 1842 - and in like manner in every succeeding year. It is also decided by the Vestry that it shall be part of the contract, that either party may at any time determine the same, by giving to the other Notice in writing to
