Nov. 15. 1841

The Vestry met at the Parsonage. Present the Revd Rector William A. Fitzhugh, James Spencer, John Tolson, Joseph Tolson, Peregrine Tolson, James R. Jones and Ira Dorsey.

On motion made & seconded it was unanimously Resolved that the Salary of the Revd Theodore B. Lyman, be increased to $700. for the present year to commence on the first day of October past.

On motion made & seconded it was unanimously Resolved that a committee of two persons be appointed to examine the acts of the Register and the State of the Church and report at their next meeting, and that William A. Fitzhugh and James R. Jones be that committee.

Resolved that to provide a fund for the payment of the contingent expenses, organist, sexton, salary for fuel, lights and other ordinary contingent expenses of the Church it is necessary and expedient that a tax be paid by the pew holders, viz five dollars each on double pews, four dollars each for pews rented at $30. and on the remaining pews two dollars each per annum from the commencement of the year, say the first day of April 1842

Resolved that the agent of the pew holders be invited to this tax for the current year ending on the first of April next, and notice at the same time given that such amount will be added to the rent from and after said first of April and be thereafter the price of said pew.

Resolved that pew holders be invited to make such arrangements, as will enable them to act in a manner agreeable to them when the fixed prices of the pews occupied by them which prices are indispensable to the Church and will be required from the occupants, and in case any one be unwilling to pay the regular price of a pew, he be requested to relinquish it and select another, the price of which may be agreeable to him