which fork-which spoon should you use?

The authoritative answer is in "Correct Service for the Formal and Informal table", edited by the social secretarics of Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont and Mrs. Oliver Harriman. Published under the auspices of the Makers of Community Plate. Beautifully illustrated, practical, authoritative.

We shall be glad to present you with a copy—free—if you will drop into our store sometime this week.

MR. SILCOX MAY LOOSE THUMB AFTER BURN BY X-RAY

Thomas S. Silcox, a well-known farmer of Betterton, is a victim of a peculiar malady on his right hand which is giving him much concern. A week or more ago Mr. Silcox went to a Baltimore specialist for an X-ray treatment of an infection of the fore-finger on his right hand. In treating the forefinger, the thumb which had been left exposed was burned. Mr. Silcox returned to his home in Betterton encouraged at the prospect of a cure for the infected finger, but after several days the thumb began to cause trouble, and when he consulted his family physician, he was advised to have the thumb amputated in order eo save his hand. Mr. Silcox hurried to Baltimore on Saturday and the specialist found that the bone of the thumb had been badly injured. Mr. Silcox may lose the thumb as the result of the operation to one of the fingers which seems to be cured of the tumorous growth.

EVERY HOUSEWIFE IS ASKED TO TRY A SACK OF ROSE BUD IF NOT ALREADY A CONSTANT USER

A Trial Will Be Convincing of its Many Superior Points For General Use

So confident are we that Rose Bud Flour will stand the most severe tests that we invite every housewife to try it in any manner desired. Make it up into biscuits or rolls or cakes—see if each isn't just a little bit superior to those made from the ordinary flour. As an all-around flour for general household use it positively cannot be beaten. It's finely milled flaky whiteness proves itself when used. There is nothing about it that will cause your bread to be soggy and dark in color To the contrary you will find that everything made of Rose Bud Flour is superlatively fine. Try a sack.

Try it on Waffles and See If They Do Not Turn Out Beyond Your Best Hopes

Take this old-fashioned recipe and make a batch of waffles. Use Rose Bud Flour and you'll find that you've made the most delicious edible imaginable:

1½ cups Rose Bud Flour, 1½ teaspoons Royal Baking Powder, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoonful sugar, 1 cup milk, 1 tablespoonful shortening, 3 eggs.

Sift and mix dry ingredients into bowl, add milk and melted shortening. Separate eggs or egg, beat in yolk and fold in in well-beaten white. Bake in very hot greased waffle-iron.

For Best Display of Rose Bud Four

Any Merchant Who is Handling Rose Bud Flour is Eligible to Enter the Contest for the Prizes.

As an incentive to all merchants who are selling Rose Bud Flour, to pep up their retail sales by better display of the product, we are going to give two cash prizes for the best store display of Rose Bud Flour. Where there are windows, window displays will count more than counter displays. However, if the store has no display window, those made on counters will receive as many credits as the window displays elsewhere. During the weeks of November 26 and December 3 we will send an inspector to each store who will decide the winner of the contest. We feel that this plan will largely increase the retail sales of Rose Bud Flour. Goods well displayed always have a strong suggestive selling power over the customer, and if all merchants handling our product will better display their stock sales will be greatly increased and larger profits will result.
