SUPPLY AND DEMAND

IS LINKED AS

CAUSE AND EFFECT!

The purchasing of a $1.99 suit of clothes is relative to the well-known fact that 'he who steals my purse steals trash.' A city and county store with eagle-spread advertisement, like is often seen, reads like this: "Here I am with my low prices, it will astonish you to read how goods can be bought for that price," has no more right to exist than a bob-tail street car in the city at this day. It is too old and slow and ugly.

When you are in Rome do like Rome does. A large canvas sign in front of a clothing store in Chestertown is in style. So we were compelled to copy one of them 'Great Reduction Sales for 30 days.' This is in front of our door just up with the rest, but our Reduction sale is not only for 30 days, Our Reduction and Square Dealing is for the Nineteenth Century.

LADIES' and CHILDREN'S SHOES of all kinds.
Handsome Line Ladies' and Gents' Furnishing Goods,

It is useless to give you Eagle Spread Quotations, or to show Square Pictures in this space to show that we are Square Dealers. Give us a trial and it will tell by itself. This is an age or reason.

HORSE OBJECTED TO BICYCLE.

He Ran After It and Kicked Rider and Wheel.

A Special dispatch to the American dated Shippensburg, Pa., June 14, says: F. P. Lavanture, a bicycle rider of Newville, met with an odd accident while running along the pike. He passed a horse grazing at the side of the road. The horse became skitish, and trotted after him. He rode fast to get away, but of no use, and when the horse got alongside of him he kicked the bicycle and rider into a stone pile. The bicycle was wrecked, and the rider badly cut and bruised.

"That is Mr. Penman. He is a poet." "What does he do for a living?"—Puck.

Cynic—"I can't see why a man who is happy when single should ever marry." Friend—"He never does."—Puck.

She—"Let us stop dancing, my hair is coming down." He—"Never mind, I'll pick it up."—Le Mond Comique.

Prison Librarian—"What sort of book would you like to have?" Convict—"Got any bicycle catalogues?"—Puck.

Scorcher—"Do you think the horse will survive the bicycle?" Pickimup—"I don't think anything else will."—Truth.

Mr. Newhub—"What does it mean when a bride promises to obey?" Mrs. Newhub—"Simply that she perfers not to make a scene."—Puck.

"Would you consider it proper to precede the father of your sweetheart down stairs?" "It may be proper, but it isn't always safe."—Yale Record.

Connoisseur—"How dare you claim that that bureau is 500 years old? It is no more than fifty." Dealer—"Oh, that kind always ages very rapidly."

"I saw a man today who had no hands or feet play a piano." "That's nothing! We've got a girl down our way who has no voice and who sings."

The dredging machine commenced work in Rock Hall harbor Monday. The cut-off channel across the bar will be completed first.

Mrs. Pancake—"I can't see why a great big fellow like you should beg." Hungry Hank—"Well, mum, I s'pose me size help to gimme an appetite!"—Truth.

Mr. Isaac Horner, proprietor of the Burton House, Burton, W. Va., and one of the most widely known men in the State was cured of rheumatism after three years of suffering. He says: "I have not sufficient command of language to convey any idea of what I suffered, my physicians told me that nothing could be done for me; and my friends were fully convinced that nothing but death would relieve me of my suffering. In June, 1894, Mr. Evans, then salesman for the Wheeling Drug Co., recommended Chamberlain's Pain Balm. At this time my foot and limb were swollen to more than double their normal size and it seemed to me my leg would burst, but soon after I began using the Qain Balm, the swelling began to decrease, the pain to leave, and now I am entirely cured. For sale by M. A. Toulson, Chestertown.

BEFORE I could get relief from a most horrible blood disease, I had spent hundreds of dollars TRYING various remedies and physicians, none of which did me any good. My finger nails came off, and my hair came out, leaving me perfectly bald. I then went to
