In the Retail Dry Goods Business of the United States we claim to lead.

The statement is not made in any boastful spirit, but only in the sense that devoting all our resources, all our experience, all the advantages of capital and personal attention to the one great special business, we naturally secure—and therefore extend to our patrons—advantages certainly unsurpassed, perhaps unequalled.

With the tendency in these latter times to concentrate all branches of business under one roof, we do not sympathize, so far as our own action is concerned. We do not, however, criticise others, nor the principle of doing business referred to. On the contrary we are quite willing to admit there are advantages to the seller, and perhaps also to the buyer, in such a method of doing business. An increased appearance of activity is maintained because of the great variety of merchandise shown, and the consequent increased number of buyers, and it is sometimes a convenience to customers to be able to purchase all sorts of supplies together. But there is no floor space in any one retail house in the world which would enable a firm to transact the Retail Dry Goods Business on the scale on which we transact it and also deal in other branches in like proportion, and the personal attention of no single firm can possibly be given to all kinds of merchandise.

The selling space for dry goods in our house is as great as is devoted in any other single house, not only to dry goods, but to many other branches of merchandise in addition. We long ago decided to confine ourselves to this one business of Dry Goods, but to transact it, if possible, on a grand scale, and in this way be enabled to conduct it wisely in all its details, and to offer advantages to buyers that would be special, and on the whole unequalled elsewhere. We have adhered to this method of doing business, confining ourselves to Dry Goods, and goods for women's wear, and the result seems to justify our judgment.

While pursuing this definite plan we always welcome every new thought and improved method in the conduct of our great business and are enabled thereby to render our patrons the most complete service.

Our thoroughly equipped Mail Order Department stands ready to furnish information, samples, etc., and correspondence is solicited. Orders through the channel of the mails receive the same careful and prompt attention as is given to customers purchasing at our counters.

ANOTHER

Big Cut in Prices.

DO YOU ever stop to think that we can sell the same goods for less profit than our competitors? Why, because our expenses are so much less. We figure this way: Suppose our expenses are $200, that of our competitors $600. We can sell same goods on a profit of 8 per cent. while they, to even things up, would be compelled to sell their goods at a profit of at least 24 per cent. It is unreasonable to ask them to sell at our prices. People come here expecting to buy cheaper than they can elsewhere. Well, we won't disappoint you; we must keep our reputation up for low prices and quare dealing.

FUN FOR OUR FRIENDS.

"I cannot live without thee!"
He sang, and truly meant;
For she had all the money,
And he had not a cent.

Teacher (to a boy in his class): "John, correct the following sentence: 'It are very cold.'"

John (as he wipes the perspiration from his forehead): "It are thundering hot."

Sweet Girl (affectionately): "Papa, you wouldn't like me to leave you, would you?"

Papa, (fondly): "Indeed, I would not, my darling."

Sweet Girl: "Well, then, I'll marry Mr. Poorchap. He's willing to live here."

Highway Robber—"Come shell out!"

Rural Minister (sadly)—"If I had such energetic fellows as you to pass the plate now and then, I might have something to give you."

The small boy's dreams are rosy hued,
And on his face is seen no frown,
With just one thought is he imbued—
The circus soon will come to town.

An enthusiastic editor wrote: "The battle is now open." But, alas! the intelligent compositor spelt "battle" with an "o" and his readers said they suspected it all along.

That man is not you.

PUBLIC SCHOOL CHILDREN, ATTENTION.

The committee appointed by the County W. C. T. U. for awarding the prizes offered to the children of the public schools of Kent county, have decided upon the following subjects: For the 7th and 8th grades, "How shall a young person show his or her temperance principles, and why?" For the 5th and 6th grades, "What is the effect of intemperance on the health and morals?" For the grades lower than the 5th, "How do alcohol and tobacco injure the mind and body?"

Each essay must be composed and written by the child whose name it bears, and the grade must be certified by his or her teacher. Essays must be sent, with post-office address, to the chairman of the committee for that grade, not later than the 7th of May. They are to be examined, the successful essay read at the county convention, May 23d, when the prizes will be awarded. $10 for the best in the 7th and 8th grades, $8 for the best in the 5th and 6th grades, and $5 for the best composition by a scholar below the 5th grade. If the essay should show that it has been written by an older person, it may be discarded by the committee. Announcement of committees will be made the last of April. Watch for it.

The Blotted Page.

The writing master entered the classroom and passed from one pupil to another to review the task he had set before them.

He paused before the newcomer; the page was blotted, scratched, and disfigured with the stain of many tears.

"Master," said the boy, in trembling accents, "I have labored in vain; my hand is crippled; there is no resemblance between these crooked lines and the model I have endeavored to imitate; but, master, pity me, for I have done my very best."

By his side sat his companion. "Behold my paper!" he exclaimed. "It is fair and clean, unsullied by a blot, untouched by an ungainly mark. O, master, in my wisdom I forebore to incur your displeasure. Is not a blank page preferable to the tear-stained, misshapen attempts of a crippled hand that cannot, and never will, be able to make a fair copy?"

The master threw aside the clean white page without vouchsafing to cast a glance upon it, but he leaned with infinite compassion and tenderness toward the pupil who had done his best; gently he took his hand and guided it over the lines, with words of love and encouragement; and the humble pupil took courage and rejoiced, while his idle companion looked upon his fair white page, and saw its brightness overshadowed by the displeasure of the master.—New York Observer.

THE GRAVE.—The grave buries every error, covers every defect, and extinguishes every resentment. From its peaceful bosom spring none but tender recollections. Who can look down upon the grave of an enemy and not feel a compunctious throe that he should have warred with the poor handful of earth that lies mouldering before him?

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

MOTHERS, Do You Know that Paregoric, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, many so-called Soothing Syrups, and most remedies for children are composed of opium or morphine?

Do You Know that opium and morphine are stupefying narcotic poisons?

Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons?

Do You Know that you should not permit any medicine to be given your child unless you or your physician know of what it is composed?

Do You Know that Castoria is a purely vegetable preparation, and that a list of its ingredients is published with every bottle?

Do You Know that Castoria is the prescription of the famous Dr. Samuel Pitcher. That it has been in use for nearly thirty years, and that more Castoria is now sold than of all other remedies for children combined?

Do You Know that the Patent Office Department of the United States, and of other countries, have issued exclusive right to Dr. Pitcher and his assigns to use the word "Castoria" and its formula, and that to imitate them is a state prison offense?

Do You Know that one of the reasons for granting this government protection was because Castoria had been proven to be absolutely harmless?

Do You Know that 35 average doses of Castoria are furnished for 35 cents, or one cent a dose?

Do You Know that when possessed of this perfect preparation, your children may be kept well, and that you may have unbroken rest?

Well, these things are worth knowing. They are facts.

The fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Fletcher is on every wrapper.

$3,000.00 A YEAR FOR THE INDUSTRIOUS.

If you want work that is pleasant and profitable, send us your address immediately. We teach men and women how to earn from $5.00 per day to $3,000 per year without having had previous experience, and furnish the employment at which they can make that amount. Nothing difficult to learn or that requires much time. The work is easy, healthy, and honorable, and can be done during daytime or evenings, right in your locality, wherever you live. The result of a few hours' work often equals a week's wages. We have taught thousands of both sexes and all ages, and many have laid foundations that will surely bring them riches. Some of the smartest men in this country owe their success in life to the start given them while in our employ years ago. You, reader, may do as well; try it. You cannot fail. No capital necessary. We fit you out with something that is new, solid, and sure. A book brimful of advice is free to all. Help yourself by writing for it to-day—not to-morrow. Delays are costly.
