Easter Monday Apl. 17. 1843

The Vestry & congregation met at the Church and proceeded to elect the Vestry for the ensuing year When William H. Fitzhugh, Benjamin Stringfellow, Jarvis Spencer and John T. Mason were unanimously voted out — and then W. H. Fitzhugh, Jarvis Spencer, John T. Mason and Charles McGill were unanimously elected for the ensuing year

The Vestry then adjourned to meet at Dr. Dorsey's at seven O'Clock the same evening

7 Olk. P.M.

The Vestry met at Dr. Dorsey's. Present the Revd Rector, Jarvis Spencer, John T. Mason, James R Jones, Fr Dorsey & Charles McGill

A Committee to superintend the building & repairs of the Church was appointed. Viz. The Revd. Theodore B Leyman Rector, James R Jones, Charles Magill and Fr Dorsey who adjourned to meet on the 18. Inst. at Dr. Fr. Dorsey's

April 18. 1843.

The Vestry met at Dr. Fr Dorsey's. Present the Revd Rector Dr. McGuire, Jarvis Spencer, James R Jones, John Thompson Mason & Fr Dorsey.

An agreement was entered into with W. Jacob Hefflefinger to make the necessary repairs on the church, and the following agreement entered into by the Said Jacob Hefflefinger and Theodore B Leyman, James R Jones, Charles McGuire and Fr Dorsey as the building committee —

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc2634_scm855-0432