When a woman is nervous her imagination gives fantastic and threatening shapes to the most familiar objects. By day she starts in fear at every sudden or unfamiliar sound. By night the furniture of her room takes on affrighting forms of ghost or goblin. You can't reason with the nerves. Neither logic nor love can quiet them. They must be nourished and then the outcry of the nerves will cease as naturally as a hungry child ceases to cry when fed.

For nervous women there is no better tonic and nervine than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It cures the diseases which produce nervousness in women, irregularity, debilitating drains, inflammation, ulceration and female weakness. It tranquilizes the nerves, encourages the appetite, and induces refreshing sleep.

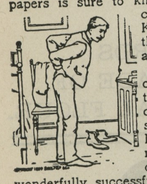
"When I began taking your medicine I was not able to stand on my feet ten minutes at a time," writes Mrs. Hattie Borradaile, of 113 Spring Street, Nashville, Tenn. "Had falling of uterus, and kidney and liver disease, and was so weak and nervous I could not keep still. Would take nervous spells and almost die at times. I had several different doctors attending, but they could not do me any good. The last one I had said I would never get up again. Told him that I was taking your 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and he said, 'Might just as well take that much water each day.' But I thought I would give the medicine a fair trial. Before I had finished the first two bottles I was able to get outside the house and walk around the yard. I kept on taking the medicines and they cured me."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure biliousness.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

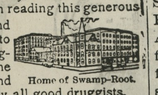
Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.



It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.



Home of Swamp-Root.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

I have had occasion to use your Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine and am pleased to say that I never used anything for stock that gave half as good satisfaction. I heartily recommend it to all owners of stock.

J. B. BELSHER, St. Louis, Mo.

Sick stock or poultry should not eat cheap stock food any more than sick persons should expect to be cured by food. When your stock and poultry are sick give them medicine. Don't stuff them with worthless stock foods. Unload the bowels and stir up the torpid liver and the animal will be cured, if it be possible to cure it. Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine unloads the bowels and stirs up the torpid liver. It cures every malady of stock if taken in time. Secure a 25-cent can of Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine and it will pay for itself ten times over. Horses work better. Cows give more milk. Hogs gain flesh. And hens lay more eggs. It solves the problem of making as much blood, flesh and energy as possible out of the smallest amount of food consumed. Buy a can from your dealer.

SENATOR GORMAN SAILS.

Non-Committal as to Nominee For Governor —Result in Baltimore City—Says Contest Has no Significance, as it is only to be Expected After a Close Election.

Senator Arthur Pue Gorman, of Maryland, was a passenger on the Atlantic Transport Line steamship Minnehaha, which sailed Saturday for London. Mrs. Gorman accompanied him. The Senator is making his first trip across the Atlantic, and it was reported in Baltimore that one reason for his going away at this time is to avoid being within reach when the "slate" for the State ticket is made up. Two of his friends, it was said, are candidates for the nomination for Governor, and the Senator did not want to take sides in the matter.

"That story is not true," said Mr. Gorman just before the vessel sailed. "I am going over to visit my daughter, Mrs. Gambell, who is now in London with her husband. We are going without plans of any kind and are just going to drift about. I cannot tell when we will return."

Senator Gorman was asked regarding the political situation in Baltimore. He said:

"I cannot discuss the situation there to any extent. McLane has won out so far, but, like every close election, there is to be a contest. That has no significance, and the contest is only what could be expected after any close election."

In reply to a question as to whether ex-Mayor Hayes is still a political factor the Senator replied:

"Mr. Hayes is now in private life. As to whether he is a factor I cannot say."

"Does the fact that the Republicans got several of the city offices indicate that Mr. Rasin is losing his political control in Baltimore?"

"Mr. Rasin is not engaged in active politics. Maryland is a very close State. It is fighting territory and the results are always close. We are fighters down there."

The Mail and Express gives the following as the text of part of an interview with the Senator.

"What do you think of Cleveland's chances for a third term?"

"Young man, I always try to avoid trouble. Under no circumstances do I wish to discuss national politics."

"What do you think of President Roosevelt's negro policy?"

"The same answer applies to that."

"Do you think that Mr. Roosevelt is the strongest man in the country politically?"

"I certainly do not."

"Who is?"

"Well, a man of my acquaintance, but I will not give his name at present."

Some friends were poking fun at the Senator as to his first trip. He pulled P. A. S. Franklin, the manager of the Atlantic Transport Line, who is a great figure in the ship combination and a friend of the Senator, to one side and said:

"I understand that I am to get a great shaking up. What do you think?"

"Nothing of the kind," said Mr. Franklin. "This is the steadiest ship on the ocean. You will be in for every meal."

"Nicely said," remarked the Senator. "But see here. You are agent for this boat, and I take it you would say nothing else. I am a bit squirmy, even now."

CRUMPTON ITEMS.

Miss Lelia Dudley and Miss Katie Merrick, of Ingleside, were the guests of Mrs. E. J. Merrick last week.

Miss Ethel Clements spent last Saturday and Sunday with her parents.

Miss Ada Stevens is visiting relatives and friends in Wilmington and Philadelphia.

Mr. Edward Walls spent several days of last week in Baltimore with his daughter, Mrs. Walter Sheats.

Rev. and Mrs. E. O. Ewing are entertaining the Rev. J. F. Cowan, of Boston.

Mrs. John Merrick, accompanied by her little daughter, Lillian, is spending some time with her mother at Westminster.

It is whispered around that we are to lose one of our most charming young ladies in a very short time. Which one is it? As Crumpton boasts of so many pretty girls, we are quite anxious to know who the lucky one is.

Mr. and Mrs. William Atkinson and daughter, Sarah, were in Baltimore this week to attend a reception given on Tuesday by the parents of Mrs. Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. John Broening, in honor of their fortieth wedding anniversary. The event was a delightful occasion to the aged couple in having their children and a host of friends to gather around them and partake of the good things which they had prepared. These family reunions remind us so forcibly of the time when we will all meet in our Father's home on high, where the tender words "good-bye" will not be spoken and no farewell tears are shed.

Mr. William W. Walls has been enjoying new potatoes of his own growing and we hope he will soon have some in the market for the rest of us to get a taste. It is not well to be selfish. Bring your potatoes down town Mr. Walls, we are getting hungry for something new.

Mrs. Augusta Sparks is visiting her son, Mr. S. Walter Sparks, in Baltimore, this week.

Miss Lulu Walls is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Katie Sheets, Waverley.—Centreville Record.
