BLIZZARD PRICES!

Realizing the difficulty experienced in traveling we have decided to offer inducements which we think will hardly fail to convince everyone that "we are not asleep" and fully justifies our claim, that our prices are lower than our fellow merchants, and that we are determined to sell regardless of "profit or loss"—on the weather. For example note the reduction in our full ard varied line of FURNITURE, which we quote as follows:

Best Solid Oak Cane Seat Chairs, per set of seven pieces	$5 00	Buffets, were 10.00, reduced to	6.0
Iron Bedsteads single or double	1.75	Extension Tables, 6 ft	4.2

A HEALTHY OLD AGE

OFTEN THE BEST PART OF LIFE

Help for Women Passing Through Change of Life

Providence has allotted us each at least seventy years in which to fulfill our mission in life, and it is generally our own fault if we die prematurely.

Mrs. Mary Koehne

Nervous exhaustion invites disease. This statement is the positive truth.

When everything becomes a burden and you cannot walk a few blocks without excessive fatigue, and you break out into perspiration easily, and your face flushes, and you grow excited and shaky at the least provocation, and you cannot bear to be crossed in anything, you are in danger; your nerves have given out; you need building up at once! To build up woman's nervous system and during the period of change of life we know of no better medicine than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Here is an illustration. Mrs. Mary L. Koehne, 371 Garfield Avenue, Chicago, Ill., writes:

"I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for years in my family and it never disappoints; so when I felt that I was nearing the change of life I commenced treatment with it. I took in all about six bottles and it did me a great deal of good. It stopped my dizzy spells, pains in my back and the headaches with which I had suffered for months before taking the Compound. I feel that if it had not been for this great medicine for women that I should not have been alive to-day. It is splendid for women, old or young, and will surely cure all female disorders."

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick and ailing women to write her for advice. Her great experience is at their service, free of cost.

Czar's Uncle Falls Victim.

Grand Duke Sergius, uncle of the Czar, was decapitated by a bomb thrown from a sleigh occupied by two men, as he was passing through the Senate Quarter in Moscow.

His coachman also was killed and his carriage wrecked.

One of his supposed assassins exclaimed: "I don't care. I have done my work well.'

United States Ambassador McCormick cables that the assassins were students, and that two of the party of three were killed.

St. Petersburg was thrown into excitement, but not altogether surprised at the assassination, as it was reported the Grand Duke, together with Grand Duke Alexis and General Trepoff, was condemned to die by the social revolutionists of Moscow.

It is stated the proclamation of assassination also included the name of the Dowager Empress.

A belief exists in St. Petersburg that a bomb-throwing program is about to be carried out by terrorists.

The Paris Temps states that Sergius was the greatest influence in staying the Czar's hand toward liberality, and he had been marked for the bomb for some time.

In Berlin it is reported the terrorists marked Sergius, the Czar, General Trepoff and Minister Bouligan for death.

Count Mengden, son-in-law of Count Cassini, Russian Ambassador at Washington, is a member of the court at Moscow.

The strike situation at St. Petersburg is again threatening, and Cossacks and infantry have been ordered to that city.

THE MARDI GRAS.

Low-rate Tour to New Orleans Via Pennsylvania Railroad.

For the especial benefit of those desiring to witness the unique Mardi Gras celebration at New Orleans, the Pennsylvania Railroad has arranged for a personally conducted tour, to leave New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington, Friday, March 3. A special train of high class Pullman equipment will be run, in charge of a tourist agent. Three days will be devoted to New Orleans, the party returning direct to New York.

Tourists will occupy this train continuously, so that hotel accommodations and meals in New Orleans will not have to be considered. A special grand stand will be provided on the main line of the great parades. Round-trip rate, including round trip transportation, pullman berth in both directions and during stay in New Orleans, all meals in dining car during entire trip, and seat in special grandstand at New Orleans: $65 from Baltimore and $63 from Washington. Proportionate rates from other points Detailed itineraries and full information may be obtained of Ticket Agents; Hugh Hasson, Jr., Passenger Agent Baltimore District, 315 North Charles Steeet, Baltimore, Md.; B. M. Newbold, Passenger Agent Southeastern District, Fifteenth and G. Streets, Washington, D. C.; or Geo. W. Boyd, General Passenger Agent, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia, Pa.

LYNCH'S ITEMS.

Mrs. J. C. Jones received a letter Wednesday from Mr. Wm. W. Rouse, of Winchester, W. Va., extending an invitation for her to take a trip to Florida and California for her health as he and family were going to be gone some time and thought it would be a benefit to all. While Mrs. J. appreciates all this means in every sense of the word, and has an own uncle out there in San Francisco, she will as she did last year decline the kind offer with thanks.

Our kind neighbor Mr. Vandyke is very sick but we hope for his recovery. Dr. Kelley, of Still Pond is attending him and doing all in his power to benefit him.

Dr. Maxwell is still busy attending patients. Mr. J. W. Copper is much better.

COLEMAN NEWS.

Mrs. Noble Gears, of Worton, has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Joe Duyer who has been quite sick for the past two weeks.

Mrs. William Wyble has returned home after an extended trip to her son in Philadelphia.

Mr. Charles Conwell spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Locust Grove.

Miss Minnie Greenwood visited Miss Mamie Dempsey on Wednesday.

Owing to the icy roads our blacksmith has been quite busy.

Our town has been quite dull this winter we had no mail for a week.

Mrs. Coleman and daughter have been very sick.

Mr. Charles Smith and Mr. Lee Joiner have moved into our town and received a warm welcome by all.

Valentines were scarce this year. One of our young men was very lucky to receive wood with his valentine, for wood and coal are scarce.

Mr. Edward Dempsey and two sons have been on the sick list.

Mrs. Campbell has moved from our town and is very much missed.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Price and two children spent Sunday in Galena. Mr. Price also had a fine milch cow to slip and break her leg and had to kill her.

Sleighing and coasting is the order of the day.

ENJOYED THE OLIO.

Eastern Shoreman Had The Whole Show To Himself.

A gentleman from Rock Hall, looking for amusement, had a great time at the Maryland Theatre Tuesday afternoon. He didn't care how much money he spent, and "Willie" Tomlin, in the box office, sold him a front orchestra seat when he applied, long before the matinee hour.

"Tolerable cold out, ain't it?" he said to the doorman as he passed through. "I came here to see the show, and I'm going to see it—here's my ticket."

Then he followed the fire escape directions and "turned to the left,' instead of going into the theatre proper, down the stairs into the rathskeller. The mandolin orchestra was violently attacking "The Bohemian Girl" when he took his seat.

"Ain't many people here, are they?" he remarked to a waiter.

"Not yet; it's a little early." said the obliging carrier of things.

The old man settled himself for comfort, and the orchestra switched into a passage from "Lohengrin," following it up with "Bring Me Back, Back, Back," and a medley of popular airs. After each number the lone man in the audience applauded warmly. He was enjoying it. Leader Audley F. Dudley, smiled with satisfaction, and "Ed" Smith worked harder at the piano. Hackney, Kansler, Weber and Pasco agitated the mandolins with a new energy, and yet the old man applauded. A crowd had begun to gather, and he was genial in company. Finally the hour arrived for curtain, and the mandolins were put up until the intermission.

The old man got up and walked briskly to the street door.

"Enjoyed the show," he remarked to another waiter, as he passed into the street; and the Salter Orchestra men are just beginning to realize that they were mistaken for the whole performance and the audience was thoroughly satisfied with the olio.—Baltimore News.

A Wonderful Saving.

The largest Methodist Church in Georgia, used 32 gallons of L. & M. mixed with 24 gallons of oil, thus making the paint cost about $1 20 per gallon. They calculated to use 100 gallons of other paint. Saved about $80.00, and also got a big donation of L. & M. Dealers gladly sell L. & M., because their customers call for it, and say they used it 12, 14 and even 30 years ago.

Don't pay $1.50 a gallon for linseed oil, which you do in ready-for-use paint.

Buy oil fresh from the barrel at 60 cents per gallon and mix with L. & M.

It makes paint cost about $1.20 per gallon. Sold by Smith & Graham, Chestertown; F. H. Harper & Son, Still Pond; J. W. Ivens, Worton.

MRS. CECELIA STOWE,
Orator, Entre Nous Club.

176 Warren Avenue,
CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 22, 1902.

For nearly four years I suffered from ovarian troubles. The doctor insisted on an operation as the only way to get well. I, however, strongly objected to an operation. My husband felt disheartened as well as I, for home with a sick woman is a disconsolate place at best. A friendly druggist advised him to get a bottle of Wine of Cardui for me to try, and he did so. I began to improve in a few days and my recovery was very rapid. Within eighteen weeks I was another being.

Cecelia Stowe

Mrs. Stowe's letter shows every woman how a home is saddened by female weaknes and how completely Wine of Cardui cures that sickness and brings health and happiness again. Do not go on suffering. Go to your druggist today and secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui.
