FATHER SUES DRUGGIST.

Claims $10,000 For Death of Child From Poisonous Medicine.

The question of the liability of druggists for selling alleged poisonous medicinal preparations is involved in a suit of $10,000 damages instituded in the Superior Court Baltimore against Theodore W. Koldeway for the death of Wm. F. Lancaster, aged 3 months, son of Wm. H. Lancaster, from the effects of the preparation known as "Kopp's Baby's Friend." Mr. Lancaster, father of the infant, brought the suit through William Colton, attorney.

Mr. Koldeway, the declaration states, is a druggist and a pharmacist, and on December 13 last he negligently and carelessly sold to Mr. Lancaster a preparation made of drugs dangerous to life labeled, "Kopp's Baby's Friend, King of baby soothers, pleasant to take and warranted perfectly harmless." At the time of the sale, it is alleged, Mr. Koldway knew that Mr. Lancaster intended to adminster the preparation to the latter's infant son. It is alleged also that directley in consequence of the effects of the preparation the infant died within 48 hours. The infant's death, it is claimed, was caused by the negligence of Mr. Koldeway and without any negligence or the want of care on the part of Mr. Lancaster.

A jury summoned by Coroner C. Frank Jones, which met at the Southwestern Police Station on December 18 last, rendered a verdict that the infant died from the effects of a dose of "Kopp's Baby's Friend." State's Attorney Albert S J. Owens issued at the time a statement which was published in THE SUN, in which he called attention to the verdict and said:

The case emphasizes the necessity of the refusal by the public to use any remedy not prescribed by a practicing physician, and at the same time the urgent need of a law prohibiting the sale of any patent or proprietary medicine containing any deadly drug unless the same is labeled 'poison.'"

A NATURAL DISTINCTION.

The following anecdote recently brought to Richmond by a Georgia lady is a true story.

A Boston couple were recreating near Augusta and met an old negro woman to whom they took a fancy. They invited her to pay them a visit and the black woman accepted, especially as her expenses were paid. In due time she arrived in Boston and was installed in the house of the white folks. She occupied one of the best rooms and ate at the same table with her host and hostess. At one of the meals the hostess said:

"Mrs. Jones, you were a slave, weren't you?"

"Yes, marm," replied Mrs. Jones. "I b'longed to Mar's Robert Howell."

"I suspose he never invited you to eat at his table," remarked the Boston woman

"No,' honey; dat he ain't" replied Mrs. Jones. "My master is a gentleman. He ain't never let no nigger set at the table long er him."

And in making this speech she meant no disrespect to her hostess. She meant merely to point out a natural distinction.

A Way To Get Good Roads

Senator Brown, of Garret, has a plan, which he may embody in a bill, by which the counties or some of them could get the benefit of the Shoemaker Road law without making appropriation in money. Mr. Brown has ascertained that the State Highways Bureau is willing to accept the equivalent of the county appropriation in road material in lieu of cash.

He thinks that the counties might set prisoners who are serving terms in county jails to breaking stone or collecting gravel or other road material, which could be taken by the Highways Bureau at a certain valuation instead of money. This plan, Senator Brown believes, would be of benefit in more ways than one. It would benefit the prisoners to give them healthful outdoor work, instead of keeping them locked in cells, and it would also relieve the taxpayers of support of many vagrants and others who plan to go to jail in order to get supported without having to work for a living.

WE would like to see the Town Commissioners try the experiment of scraping the streets with the road machine and hauling the mud away to low places. We believe it will greatly improve the streets; at least our thoroughfares will be more sightly with the mud removed. Easton tried this plan last week, and now most of the principal streets are hard and in good shape for the bad weather that is promised for next month.

The taxpayers of Salisbury are heart and soul in favor of improved streets, the meeting held in the court room Monday evening, without a dissenting voice, the City Council was authorized to issue bonds not to exceed $80,000 for doing the work. There were some who favored even a larger bond issue, but no one opposed the proposition to at once enter upon the work of giving Salisbury improved streets.

Curiosity Satisfied.

A woman cycled up to a butcher's shop and went in with a smiling face. "I want you to cut me off twenty-five pounds of beef, please," she said. The butcher was incredulous. "Twenty-five pounds?" "Yes, please." It was a big job, and when he had finished he asked her whether she would take it or have it sent home. "Oh, I don't want to buy it," she explained. "You see, my doctor tells me I have lost twenty-five pounds of flesh through cycling, and I wanted to see what it looked like in a lump. Thank you so much."

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.
