A DECIDED SUCCESS.

Amateur Performance Delight A Crowded House in Stam's Hall, Chestertown, Wednesday Night.

A thoroughly appreciative and fashionable audience thronged Stam's Hall Wednesday evening to witness an unusually clever and capable cast in the production of a "Modern School" or a "Modern Cinderella." This play was in direct contrast to the "School at Blueberry Corners" in that one represented the old time methods &c., and this the modern boarding school with fancy dressing, lady teachers, &c. Pretty love stories intertwined with wit and humor run through the plot and are presented with characters clever and capable. To particularize would be in bad form for each participant was an important part of a perfect whole. The school-girls' dance drill was a specially graceful and attractive feature as was the excellent solo by Mr. George L. White.

Mrs. Paul Turner was pianist and made the instrument respond to her graceful touch with sweet music. Mr. Howard Dyott, son of Mrs. J. Edmund Draper, sang several solos between acts and received hearty applause from the large audience. Mr. Dyott has a rich, mellow baritone voice of wonderful strength and sweetness over which he has almost perfect control. It was a treat to hear the young singer. The College Mandolin club also furnished sweet music and the whole affair was a decided success. The cast of characters follow:

Lord Beaufoy.....Wilbur Eliason
Dr. Sutcliffe.....Dr. Gault
Beau Farintosh.....Tom Massey
Jack Poyntz.....Geo. White
Mr. Krux.....Mr. Hitch
Vaughan, (Valet to Farintosh) Ray'd Simpers
Mrs. Sutcliffe.....Adele France
Bella.....Mrs. John Toulson
Naomi Tighe.....Jennie Hines
Tilly.....Hallie Toulson
Milly.....Ann Smith
Laura.....Emma France
Clara.....Irma Eliason
Kitty.....Sallie Beck
Hetty.....Louise Crane
Other School Girls...Eloise Ringgold, Mabel Toulson, Mary Hines.

A SIX MONTH'S LICENSE!

A Colored Woman Before Justice Hicks Charged With Bigamy—Her Excuse.

Annie Carroll, a well-known colored servant of Chestertown, was before Justice Hicks on Wednesday charged with bigamy. State's Attorney Beck represented the State and H. W. Vickers, Jr., the defendant. The defendant testified that she had been first married to Granger, then Dellas and thirdly to Brown. She says she went to Preacher Chambers, of the A. M. E. Church, who read something out of a book and afterwards told her that she was married only for six months! The preacher then cut a piece of paper and gave each half which showed the contract. Annie thinking her contract was for six months, says that after Brown left her she went to live with Woodland and later married Reisin, a well-known resident of Butlertown. The colored preacher at Melitota, David Johnson, when asked about the six months license said "whoever got up such a story might have been a man after the dollar. For you know, I am sorry to say, there are some bad men in the ministry like all other professions. There are lawyers, for instance, who would do anything for a dollar!"

Annie was held for action of Grand Jury.

HAND OF DEATH!

Bessie Wright Finds Her Mother Dead in Bed—Josiah Massey Dead.

JOSIAH MASSEY.

It becomes our sad duty to chronicle the death of "Col." Josiah Massey at his home near Chestertown Thursday morning after a long illness, aged 59. Mr. Massey has been quite sick all the winter and his life dispaired of more than once, but about Christmas he was able to get up and come to town where he mingled freely with his friends and seemed to grow better. But Brights Disease had a strong hold on him and after his return from town Saturday he was taken ill with pneumonia and died Thursday morning surrounded by his family.

The deceased married a daughter of the late John Evans, of Queen Anne's, who survives him with the following children, viz., Miss Elmore, who is in Washington; Josiah, tenant on Mrs. Snitcher's home farm; Misses Grace and Fannie, who are at home; Paul, who is carrying on the home farm; Miss Annie, who is a nurse at the Md. Gen'l Hospital, Baltimore. He was born near Lambson's Station, removed to Queen Anne's and later in the seventies returned to Kent and has lived near town ever since. He was a progressive farmer and a good citizen.

Mr. Massey was a man of rough exterior but underneath was the kind heart and loving disposition and those who knew him most loved him best. Nature gave to him the gift of humor and he was always ready for a joke. Even in his suffering and while lying prone upon his back he would look upon the sunny side of life. He was a man of unusual intelligence, had the wit of the keenest and quickest kind and his shots seldom missed the target.

He was a lover of nature—of the woods, the fields and flowers and took a special interest in raising bass in a pond made for the purpose. He was a believer in the family and the fireside and his home was always a bright spot to anyone who came therein. His home was a type of hospitality noted in Southern stories and his table was always open to friends. Mr. Massey was at his best in his home.

The deceased took an active part in Democratic politics and loved dearly to mingle with friends and foe in the primary combats extracting always all the fun there was in it. He never held but one office, that of secretary to the Board of Election Supervisors, which position he filled faithfully. He was an ardent Catholic and was seldom out of his place. The funeral will take place this morning at ten o'clock from Sacred Heart Church, interment in Chester cemetery, Father McKenna officiating, John N. Dodd, undertaker. The bearers will be Messrs. J. T. Dixon, H. L. Boyd, R. D. Hynson, Fred. G. Usilton, S. Rol. Hurlock, Wm. McKee.

Mrs. Emily F. Wright, aged 60 years, residing at 815 W. Fayette street, Baltimore, was found dead in bed Sunday morning at 8 o'clock by her daughter, Miss Bessie Wright. Mrs. Wright had apparently been in the best of health and had just returned from a weeks visit to her daughter Mrs. Allie (Wright) Elliott at Rock Dale; when she retired Saturday night seemed in high spirits. When her daughter went to call her for breakfast Sunday morning she received no answer, and upon investigating found her mother dead in bed. She was before marriage Miss Voshell of Kent county. Mrs. Wright is survived by her husband, Mr. Robert H. Wright and four children, namely, Allie, Elmore, Walter and Bessie.

The remains were brought to Chestertown Tuesday night on the Emma A. Ford and the funeral held immediately.

Interment in Chester cemetery. J. N. Dodd undertaker, Dr. D. L. Greenfield officiated.

Mrs. Addie Sparks, the beloved wife of Mr. Medford Sparks, is no more. She was loved by all who knew her and kind to all her friends. She was the daughter of the late A. Thawley. She has been sick some time but her two sisters stood by her nobly during her last illness. She is survived by a loving husband and two babies, several sisters, brothers and a mother to mourn her loss. Rev. O. T. Baynard and Rev. W. C. Poole officated. enterment in the Church Hill cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs. Carroll and Kenneth Leverage, Harry Anderson Charles Spry, Harry Steward, Charles Meredith. Age 21.

Mrs. Ella Campbell died at the home of her son, Mr. Wm. Campbell, near Still Pond on Tuesday at 3 o'clock, of general debility aged 78 years. Funeral services were held at her late home on Friday afternoon, Rev. C. T. Denroche officiating. Interment at I. U. Cemetery. Undertaker Wm. H. Krusen in charge.

New Schedule.—The Chester River line have arranged a new schedule beginning March 2nd, but leave the public to find out particulars from handbills. The boat will leave Chestertown at 7.30 A. M., instead of 8 A. M. The Gratitude will leave Baltimore Monday and Wednesday at 2 P. M. for Rock Hall, Chestertown and Crumpton; returning steamer will leave Crumpton 6 A. M. Tuesday and Thursday.

J. W. SKIRVEN & SON shipped 8 lambs to Philadelphia this week. Local buyers are offering $4.50 for spring lambs.

THE Young Kent Guards will give a minstrel matinee in Stam's Hall this Saturday afternoon. Price of admission 10, 15 and 25 cents.

LIVE LOCAL NOTES

Boats To Resume.—The Tolchester management announce that if the weather keeps open in all probability the Sassafras river steamer will resume her regular trips March 3rd, and the Port Deposit route March 5th.

Fined—Four fishermen of Kent county were arrested at Centreville Landing Tuesday on the charge of splashing. They were H. Rollowson, W. R. Ashley, W. A. Holland and Charles Ashley. They were each fined 25 cents under the Acts of 1870.

Chicken Thieving.—Mrs. John Fowler's hen roost was robbed of a dozen or more of fine chickens one night last week. Wesley Blake's home was visited and a scarred chicken was indentified. Blake was arrested and after a hearing was committed to jail to await action of Grand Jury. Blake says he has been to House of Correction for pitching crap, another time he was sent to penitentiary for stealing a buggy wheel and the next time he was sent up for stealing the whole buggy!

A Propeller.—The power boat Bertie E. Tull, owned by Kent countians, will be rebuilt and re-engined. Her side wheels will be removed and the power gas engines taken out. In their place will be installed an 85-horsepower Globe marine gasoline four-cycle engine built by Page Engineering Company. It is understood the necessary ship carpentry work for putting in a screw propeller will be done by Mr. E. J. Tull, of Pocomoke City, who built the Tull.

Real Estate Sales.—Mr. Charles P. Jester, of Baltimore, has purchased "Oakland" containing 100 acres, located near Tolchester. It is at present tenanted by Mr. Wm. A. Bramble. Mr. Jester intends improving it and making it an attractive country place for boarders and visitors to the noted bayside resort.

Capt. Penn. Jester has purchased of Mr. Jere Miller the beautiful Bowman farm near Fairlee, now occupied by Mr. Miller and containing 75 acres. The price not public, but it is said to be about $5,000

Artic or Snow Owl Killed.—Master J. Albert Rochester, the 17-year-old son of Mr. J. McCleary Rochester, of near Church Hill, recently shot an Artic or Snow owl. The bird was a very handsome one and has been mounted and is now on exhibition in Moody & Lusby's window, Chestertown. It measures five feet three inches from tips of wing and twenty-three inches from bill to end of tail feathers. Young Rochester is an excellent shot and kills many owls and hawks.

New Boat Arrives.—The new freight boat, "Leland Mills," mention of which was first made in the NEWS some weeks ago, arrived at Bacchus and Usilton's wharf, Chestertown, Monday and will make regular trips to Baltimore hereafter. This boat was purchased of Capt. Andrew Woodall, of Georgetown, by a company of Queen Anne's farmers backed by strong influences in Baltimore. Capt. Norman Riggin, of the Tolchester Co., is in command and Messrs. Tucker and Meredith are managers. The steamer has 3200 bushels capacity and made about 11 miles per hour with a 35 horse-power gasoline engine.

The new line will receive the support of many merchants in Chestertown who have become dissatisfied with what they claim to be the exorbitant freight rates of the old company. Sheppard's wharf at Crumpton will be the starting point.

Tomatoes.—The farmers of Still Pond and vicinity held a meeting at the office of Mr. Wm. H. Krusen on Wednesday for the purpose of discussing the growing of tomatoes, etc. Mr. H. L. Crew was appointed chairman of the meeting and J. N. Bennett, secretary. The subject of labor was discussed and the farmers objected to the packer employing home labor, as it deprives them of sufficient help to pick the tomatoes, cut off corn and help in the kitchen. The contract was debated upon and all were of the opinion that the size of marketable tomatoes should be specified in contract the same as with Keifer pears, and the general opinion was that two inches should be the smallest marketable tomato. Mr. E. W. Hepbron made a motion that a committee of five farmers be appointed to consult with the packer about the price of tomatoes and form of contract. It was seconded and carried and the chairman appointed Messrs. E. W. Hepbron, C. H. Price, S. G. Roseberry, E. M. Bonwill, Jr., and J. N. Bennett. The said committee held a meeting and offered the following suggestion, that the farmers demand $9 per ton, or fifteen cents per basket and to have baskets exchanged for every load delivered at the canning house. Marketable tomatoes should be notess than two inches, and the same to be paid for once every week.

THE interest of Mr. W. H. Boyers in the "Silk Farm," situated near Still Pond, was sold at public sale Tuesday and bid in by Horace Garner colored, plaintiff in the proceeding, at a bid of fifty dollars.
