A Well-Known Kent Physician Writes of His Cure And Complete Recovery.

The following is taken from the Medical Council, published in Philadelphia, Pa., and is a full description of Dr. Kelley's case of cancer and its cure by X-Ray treatment to which reference was made in a recent issue of the NEWS.

X-Ray in Treatment of Epithelioma of the Li.

To THE MEDICAL COUNCIL:

During the days immediatley following the blizzard of January 25th, 1905, I had much riding to do, day and night—most of it in a sleigh. The weather was cold, often disagreeable, and my face was entirely unprotected. It was then that a sore appeared upon my lower lip. I gave it no special attention, deeming it but a "fever-blister" occasioned by exposure to cold. In appearance it resembled a large seed-wart. It pained only when touched. As the days passed, and it failed to heal, my suspicions as to its nature were aroused, and in August following I sought advice, and had it examined by two eminent specialists at the Maryland University Hospital, of Baltimore, Md. Their diagnosis was epithelioma of the lip, malignant in character. An immediate operation was advised, without which, I was told, the the limit of existence would be two yrs. I, however, held the matter under advisement, and in the meantime met with a gentleman who had had a condition similar to mine, and who, upon the advice of his physician, had submitted to X-ray treatment, with the happiest results. I consulted the same physician who had treated him, Dr. Henry Chandlee, 742 North Avenue, West Baltimore, Md., an expert in X-ray work, who encouraged me greatly by promising success. After the examination in August, it began to pain me, and increase in size, and to involve the lip to a greater extent. I took the first X-ray treatment November second, and the last December twenty-second—sixteen in all, and each of fifteen minutes' duration. On December 11th, at the fourteenth treatment, the lip was entirely free from any indication of a cancerous growth. The present appearance of the lip is as though nothing had ever been the matter with it, showing a perfectly healthy appearance, and in no way differing from other portions of the lips. However, it is difficult for one who was unacquainted with the condition prior to treatment to comprehend either the nature or the fact of my affliction.

I shrunk from the knife, having in mind the case of a young man well-known to me afflicted in the same manner, but who survived the use of the knife but little more than a year, the last months of whose life were filled with intense suffering, the cancer making rapid progress after its apparent removal.

I give the facts in my case plainly stated, and will not enter into theoretical speculations, trusting that my experience may be of benefit to anyone who is afflicted as I was.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING.

At the home of the bride, No. 706 East Seventh street, Wilmington, a pretty home wedding took place last week when Sara Burris became the bride of Alfred Grantland formerly of Kent Co.

The bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Mrs. Gertrude Miller, who also played during the ceremony "Oh Promise Me."

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. Clay Turner, pastor of the Brandywine M. E. Church.

The bride's gown was of Crepe de Paris over taffeta silk with trimmings of point gause faces, she carried a bouquet of bride's roses.

She was attended by her sister Miss Bertie Gill as bridesmaid, who was gowned in pongee silk, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Robert Priestly acted as best man. The house was prettily decorated with potted plants and cut flowers. The color effect of pink and white being carried in the decorations.

A reception was held after the ceremony, which was attendsd by a large number of relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Grantland left on a wedding trip to Washington and Virginia.

The wedding gown was the gift of the bride's sister, Miss Margeret Gill, of Colorado Springs, formerly of this city, but has been living in Colorado for a number of years.

OUR QUEER LANGUAGE.

When the English tongue we speak.
Why is "break" not rhymed with "freak"?
Will you tell me why it's true
We say "sew", but likewise "few,"
And the maker of verse
Cannot cap his "horse" with "worse"?
"Beard" sounds not the same as "heard,"
"Cord" is different from "word;"
"Cow" is cow, but "low" is low;
"Shoe" is never rhymed with "foe,"
Think of "hose" and "dose" and "lose,"
And of "goose"—and yet of "choose."
Think of "comb" and "tomb" and "bomb."
"Doll" and "roll;" and "home" and "some,"
And since "pay" is rhymed with "say"
Why not "paid" with "said," I pray?
We have "blood" and "food" and "good;"
"Mould" is not pronounced like "could,"
Wherefore "done," but "gone" and "lone"?
Is there any reason known?
And, in short, it seems to me
Sounds and letters disagree.
