James Wise Aug. 13th 1873
Thos J. Jones " " "
Jos Owings " " "
Jos B. Tyler " " "
Jas C. Hamilton " " "
Philander Shipley " " "
Blanchard Spencer " " "
Wm D. Lane " " "
Wm Crosswell Edwards Feby 19th 1874
Samuel L. Croft Mar. 29th 1875
Alexander M. Roberts June 22d 1875

Such further time, as will enable to mature a proper decision.

I Remain Dr Sir
Yr Most obliged Servant
Geo. C. Stokes.

To Doct. Fredk Dorsey
Registr.

The Vestry then adjourned to meet at Doct Dorsey, on Saturday Mar 5 1853

Fr Dorsey. Regt

Saturday Mar. 5. 1853

The Vestry met at Doct. Dorsey, not being a quorum adjourned to 18th.

March 18. 53.

The Vestry met at Doct. Dorsey's Present William Motter Jacob Hollingsworth, Joshua Crist John P. Leamard Fr Dorsey. Col. Hollingsworth appointed in the Chair

On Motion made & seconded Wm Robert Fowler was elected to fill the Vacancy by the death of Wm Pindellow, and he was accordingly notified of his election then the Vestry adjourn. Until Saturday 19. March, there not being a quorum adjourned

Fr Dorsey Regt

March 23. 1853

The Vestry met at Doct Dorsey's Present: William Motter Jacob Hollingsworth John P. Leamard Doct. Charles Magruder & Fr Dorsey

Col Hollingsworth in the Chair

On Motion it was resolved to go into an Election for a Rector, the Revd George C. Stokes, having declined an acceptance of his Call When the following Letter from him was rectd upon

Baltimore July 22. 1853

My Dear Sir, Although I have given the invitation which your Vestry have extended to me, thoughtful consideration, and altho I cannot think myself, either in ability or experience worthy of the high trust & confidence, you have imposed upon (when I have been scarcely tryed)

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc2634_scm855-0485