STILL POND, - - MARYLAND

ROCK HALL ITEMS.

Death always sad, was extremely so at the home of Mr. Charles H. Smith, on Sunday evening past, and the victim of the grim monster, was the beloved wife of Mr. Smith. She was a most estimable lady, greatly esteemed by all who knew her, and was the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Saunders. Besides the husband and parents she is survived by a number of brothers and sisters, among them, being. Mrs. Tom Hickey, Mrs John Hickey and Messrs. Tom and Robert Saunders. They mourn, but not without hope.

Funeral services over the remains, took place in the M. E. Church on Tuesday afternoon. Rev. Warren Burr officiating before a very large assembly. The remains were escorted from the residence to the church, thence to the cemetery, by the R. H. Council Daughters of America, of which body the deceased was an honored member, conducted by P. C. Mrs. Lizzie Boyer.

The pall bearers were: Mrs. Susie Stevens, Lizzie Coleman, Lillie Downey, Annie Kendall and Misses Ada Joiner, Carrie Hubbard. Casey Bro's., Undertakers had charge of funeral arrangements.

Mr. J. B. Downey, who has been under medical treatment at the Maryland General Hospital during the past two weeks, is very much improved.

Mrs. Wm. Dickerson, of Quaker Neck, has been entertained during the week by relatives and friends in South Rock Hall.

Miss Delma Middleton has been spending the past week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Middleton, of this town.

Anyhow Capt. Tom Howard didn't get the shell fish commission job. Good enough. If some other good man had been made Commander of the fishing force that would have been good, too.

Mr. M. L. Maslin has the finest lot of corn in the district. It is making a vigorous growth.

The wheat fields in this section are looking fine.

Quite an abundance of asparagus is being shipped from this point.

Mr. E. E. Leary and employes are too busy to think these days. They are hustling to get their basket making operations under way. In a few days a large force of nailers will be at work on baskets.

The Spring fishing season's about closed and the men as a rule say the season has been a failure.

A few soft shells are being caught and this puts the crabbing fraternity in good humor. Trot-liners, of which there will be a greater number than ever before in these waters, ard preparing to begin crabbing operations in the next ten days.

The Odd Fellows, their families and invited guests, will celebrate the 82nd Anniversary of the Order in America, and the 16th anniversary of Maxwell Lodge No. 27, on next Wednesday evening. An interesting program is in preparation, a number of the Grand Officers of Maryland Grand Lodge will be present aud deliver addresses, would be pleased to have at least one of the NEWS Editors with us. Come down Messrs. Editors, and find a cordial welcome. [Thanks—EDS.]

Mr. George Davis has the improvement fever in a high form, and by moving back his summer kitchen and putting on its old site, the Collier dwelling from the adjoining property, has made a first class improvement and convenience to his premises in Allen's Lane.

The cool weather and rain of the early part of the week was a considerable set back to gardens in this section.

Mr. G. L. Maslin with a force of workmen this week is putting the public road leading from Alexander's blacksmith shop to Wagner's shop in first rate condition. George knows how to do such work, and if the Hon. Commis. would keep hands off, the road will be all that could be desired and at as low expense as could be had. His "best man in the ditch" with "grubbing hoe Jim" and all his force are excellent workmen. Sorry Joe is not on the roll too.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Porter, of Baltimore, are making a short sojourn among their relatives and friends at this place. They are looking extremely healthy and happy.

STILL POND NOTES.

Mrs. J. W. Harper and two children have been visiting friends in Baltimore.

Mrs. Jas. H. Warren and Mrs. Chas. Severson and little son Lindsey, were guests of relatives near Rock Hall on Sunday.

Miss Jennie Bowers, of Washington College, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Bowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Coleman, of Baltimore, are guests of his mother, Mrs. Samuel Coleman.

Mr. Chas. Ford is visiting relatives in Baltimore this week.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jervis who has been spending some months with relatives in Philadelphia has returned home.

Miss Alice Wood visited Miss Daisy Severson the past week.

Mr. James Severson is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Fletcher Connor, at Middletown.

The Epworth League social was held on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Wm. G. Rasin, quite a number were present and all report having a good time.

Mr. W. H. Krusen will lead the League service on Sunday evening, subject, Investing our Lives.

Mrs. James Birch who has been very sick for several weeks past is improving. Others on the sick list this week were Mr. F. H. Harper and Mr. Edward Schofield.

The Ladies Aid Society, of Kennedyville, met on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. John Bennett, quite a number were present.

Notice to Builders.

ANDERSON'S—MADE IN GLASCOW, SCOTLAND

THE GREATEST WASH GOODS BARGAIN of the SEASON

There's nothing to being one in a crowd. It's a mediocrity—colorless, tasteless, hopeless mediocrity.

Difference is what counts—the thing that deserves attention, and gets it.

Anybody can have a "Sale of Wash Goods" –a few pieces of this or that, marked a little below regular prices.

But nobody will have a sale like this—the entire stock in America of the best known wash goods weavers in the world.

15c a Yard. Regularly 35c to 50c

32 inches wide. White grounds with colored stripes of various widths; colored grounds with white stripes of various widths; Jacquard weaves, with self figures.

Now About the New Corsets

While a season changes everything in fashion from a woman's hat to her shoe, the most radical change this season has been in the corset. Past modes have been laid aside. Diagonal seam corsets are on the wane. Every figure that can be, is moulded into a slimmer tapering waist, with higher bust effect; a drooped, close-fitting hip; a comfortable easy bust, with plenty of room for natural breathing space. That, in a word, is the science of the new corsets. Needless to say that an unusual number of shapes are essential.

The store is at the very pinnacle of best in style and number of models. No pains have been spared to bring ultra-best, as well as most accurate in line and fit.

There are several points to be studied in the intelligent selection of a corset. Individuality above all; and to some extent the gown that is to be draped over it. Whether it be Princess frock, Princess girdle or Princess effect, the right corset is to be found here.

Corsets for such are longer below the waist, almost a skirt. There are specially tractable, clinging materials for this sort of corset. The lines, the boning, indeed the entire corset, is modeled to give longer slimness to the waist.

But there's a corset here for every style of gown or suit, and for every figure. The range for choice is wider than in any other store—it is merely a question as to preference.

Gretchen Corsets are ours exclusively—and we are proud of them.
Redfern Corsets are in high favor with "dressy" women.
R & G Corsets are excellent—and there are the P. N., Royal Worcester, Nemo, Warner's Rustproof, Thomson's Glove Fitting, American Lady and W. B. Nuform.
Ferris, Equipoise Waists and H. W. Waists, Ferris Bust Supporters, H. W. Brassieres, Ideal Waists for Children, Hose Supporters, Bust Forms, Sachets, Silk and Tape Girdles and Silk and Linen Laces.
This is a complete corset store—you should kno it.

Our Mail Order Department is equipped to give prompt and accurate service The McCall Bazaar of Fashions will be mailed free every month on request. Samples of Silks, Dress Goods, Wash Fabrics and so on will be cheerfully sent if you will write for them.

Howard and Lexington Sts., BALTIMORE

LOCUST GROVE LOCALS.

Miss Anna S. Matthews and some of her friends took the school children "May flowering" through the woods and meadows belonging to Mr. Samuel J. Comly's farm Friday. Each person took with them a sandwich or some cakes, fruit, confectioneries, etc. On the bank of a cool, refreshing stream running through the meadow they partook of the eatables.

Rev. Robert H. Comly, of Hulmeville, Pa., has returned to his home after a pleasant visit to relatives and friends here.

Mrs. Mary McGuire entertained the past week her brother, Mr Harry Wallace, of Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. James S. Webb and Miss Susie Hall attended the wedding of their neice, Miss Bessie Webb, to Mr. Charles Smith, Wednesday.

Mrs. R. O. Kavin and children, Mary and Robert, of Philadelphia, spent a few days of the past week with Mr. and Mrs. George Sutton.

Mr. Hill Beaston, of Wilmington, spent Sunday with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Watkins and daughter, Mary of Philadelphia spent Tuesday of last week with Mrs. James S. Webb.

Little Miss Vera Pennington is visiting Mrs. A. R. Chrisfield.

Mr. Richard Haggerty, of Kennedyville, spent Sunday with his brother, Mr. James Haggerty.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Bonwill and children were entertained by the latter's parents Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Devalenger has returned to her home after a pleasant yisit here.

Mr. M. F. Toulson, the miller of Galena Mills, met with a very serious accident Tuesday. He was fixing a belt and was caught in the belt and broke his arm and hurt his face very badly.

WORTON ITEMS.

Miss Anna Grey, a popular young lady of Wilmington, was a guest last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Turner.

Miss Ellen Bacon, of Chestertown, spent a few days at the home of her cousin, Mrs. G. N. Cooper.

We are glad to report Mrs. Charles Crowding very much improved. She is recovering though slowly from a heavy and severe illness of peritonitis.

Mrs. Everett Sheats visited friends in Chertertown last week.

It is with many regrets that we record the death of Mrs. Anne Spear, who has lived among us for quite a number of years. She was a good woman, a regular attendant at Union M. E. church, of which she was a member, and one who was always ready to help in any way if she could. We shall all miss her.

The business and social meeting of the Epworth League was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Duyer last Friday evening.

SASSAFRAS ITEMS.

Children's Day will be observed in the Rehoboth M. P. Church the first Sunday in June.

The services in the Rehoboth M. P. Church were largely attended. Rev. F. S. Cain preached an eloquent sermon.

Mrs. W. H. Spry visited relatives in Wilmington last week.

Miss M. M. Kuhns, who spent several years in missionary work in Japan and who represents the Woman's Foreign Missionary of the M. P. Church in Maryland, has been entertained by Miss Bessie Gunkie, of Warwick.

Mrs. Rachel Stradley has again been quite ill. She is improving.

Mrs. Louis Dreka left on Thursday for a sojourn to Philadelphia relatives.

Mr. Irving Spry is visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Ford, Still Pond.

Mrs. D. Gibbs, of Middletown, Del., is being entertained by her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Griffith.

Messrs Robert S. Griffith and Phenus Jones, chosen delegates of the M. P. Church, attended the quarterly conference on Saturday morning at Mt. Salem M. P. Church.

Mrs. John Tarbutton has been invited to write an essay on "Sabbath School Work" for the convention to be held at Cecilton on the 19th and 20th of this month. Messrs. Robert S. Griffith and Frank A. Sylvester have been chosen delegates.

Mrs. Henry Rosen has been again quite sick, though she somewhat improved.

Miss Therza Shallcross was tendered a mask serenade surprise party on Wednesday evening last. About thirty-five of her friends were present and by the horn and sound of the chimes all told too well of the high esteem in which Miss Therza is held. There was some very quaint costumes and we think the gentlemen in knickerbockers and high hat acted to perfection and the little old lady was very demure, not saying anything about the "society press." All was very ludicrous and immensely enjoyed and a delightful evening was well spent. Ice cream, ices and cakes were abundantly served during the evening.

THE LADIES STORE—H. F. JEFFERSON—CHESTERTOWN, MD.

Radiant Showing of the Latest Fancies of Dame Fashion

You know the meaning of the above headline. You know it means that the store is all aglow with the bright things for Spring and Summer wear. Days—yes, weeks—of study and effort have been given to make this opening the greatest of them all. Have we been successful? Read the following eloquent paragraphs of items and prices, then come around to our store today, tomorrow and investigate to your heart's content.

Millinery

The new Millinery blooms and blossoms, with the genius of Paris, London and New York, giving forth ideas by the score, to be quickly absorbed by the wise feminine heads upon which the new headwear will gracefully sit.

To say this is our best showing expresses but feebly the attempt. It means a harvest of ideas from which our customers can garner to their own satisfaction.

Mode effects of Chiffon and Horsehair are staple. All of these are shown in popular colors of the season, as well as in the natural straw. There is some shades of Green, particularly those of the reseda form. All shades of Blue are very popnlar, from Aliee Blue up to the Navy. Lilac, Lavender, Raspberry and Heliotrope regarded while Silver Gray and Old Rose are among the very strong novelties.

Dress Goods

The newest, the best, the latest and the cream of the market is here. With an eye single to your purse and taste we have made a selection the peer of any in this section. The fabrics, the weaves, the color combinations, and (let us say right here,) the price will delight you. Come to-day, tomorrow or this week and see our new list of fabrics.

The New York Sun's Fashion writer sees Mohairs strong in favor. They are to have a bigger run during the coming months than ever before in the history of the trade and we have 'em. We have them in all the fashionable effects of the present day, thin supple textures, full glossy surfaces, heavy coarse sicilians, changeable to all colors that run the whole gamut of modish hues. Suitable for the school girl, the shopper, the traveler and in fact any and all purposes and the beauty of it all is the particular low price.

50-Inch Mohair, in all shades.....50c

Wool Taffettas are also very strong in favor. We have them in all the popular shades, Alice Blue, steel, Mode, Dark Blue and Black.

48-Inch Wool Taffeta, for waistings and suiting, in all shades at per yard.....$1.00

Linen Suitings

With the advent of springtime the public instinctively turns to this store for authoritative information on dress of all occasions.
