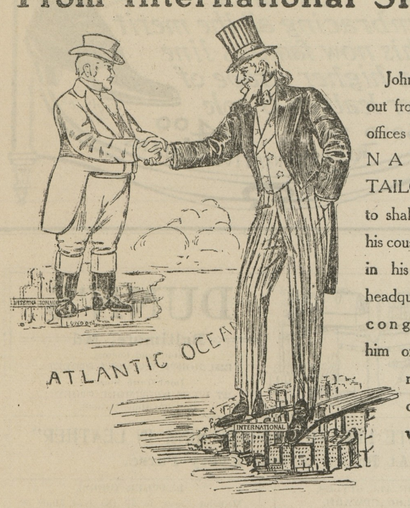
Hands Across the Sea
From International Sleeves



John Bull reaches out from the London offices of the INTERNATIONAL TAILORING CO. to shake hands with his cousin, Uncle Sam, in his New York headquarters. He is congratulating him on his enormous purchases of English woolens for the Griffon and International Clothing Manufacturers to make into Ready-to-Wear Fine Clothing especially for MOODY & LUSBY, the Clothing House of Chestertown.

You've probably heard of "Our Clothing" and "Our Prices" but in case you have not, you will find that you can buy advantageously here

Large assortment, well selected stock, popular prices, and you will learn by comparison that we either sell for less or give you something better than most dealers for the same price.

Pay Attention to This

If you are already a customer you know this to be the case; if you are not acquainted you better look us up. Don't be long about it either, for we have been quite busy distributing these values in—

Fall and Winter Suits and Overcoats for the Men, Boys and Children

Since October first, and closer to the holidays the more busy we become and the more depleted the various lines become.

DON'T YOU PUT OFF

for the fifteenth of December what you might have done day before yesterday, but come at your earliest convenience.

In connection with the largest line of Clothing you'll find the greatest array of FURNISHING GOODS and HATS.

CHESTERTOWN, - - MARYLAND.

LIVE LOCAL NOTES

Messrs. Charles S. Smith and John C. Davis have purchased A. Levine's stock of jewelry, silverware, etc., and are offering the same at a great sacrifice sale. See advertisement in this paper.

THE C. E. Luncheon to be held next Wednesday next door to postoffice will be worth attending. The menu will include salads, biscuit, coffee, etc.

THE Quakerine Co., after showing in Stam's Hell three nights, left unexpectedly for Philadelphia Thursday. They state that Chestertown is a bad medicine town. This is a credit to our people.

OVER 30,000 baskets of Keifer pears have been bought this season by Mr Marcus Asher from Kent and Queen Anne's. He paid 15 and 12 cents per basket for them.

SHERIFF MEDDERS has nine colored prisoners. Two were arrested near Chesterville for shooting into a crowd at a festival and wounding five men, one charged with keeping a disorderly house and several others for disorderly conduct at Butlertown. The Sheriff seldom fails to get boarders after a snow storm.

Farm Sold.—Mr. George W. Padley and wife have sold to Julius W. Clayton, trustee, the Fairview farm of 248 acres near Cecilton for $12,000.

Compromised.—The suit of Mr. Wm. T. Crow against the County Commissioners for alleged injury to his wheat by water being turned or backed on same has been compromised by the payment of $100. This suit had been removed from Kent and the expense of a trial away from home would have been considerable.

Removals—Mr. P. A. M. Brooks will occupy a portion of the Burchinal house on Cannon and Water streets until his new house on Washington avenue is completed.

Dr. G. Allen Jarman will remove to the house on High street recently purchased by Mrs. Hayes.

Mr. George Byron has moved into the Chester bridge house and taken charge of the management of the bridge. Mr. Richards, the former bridge manager, has moved to Church Hill, while his son remains as assistant to Mr. J. R. Clements at the wharf.

School Notes.—Miss Blanche C. Lewis has been appointed assistant teacher at Edesville school.

In absence of applicant from Kent county Carle Kraft, of Baltimore county, was appointed to the scholarship at Maryland Institute.

The colored teachers will hold an institute in Janes M. E. church, November 22nd and 23rd.

Stockholders Meeting.—The annual election of directors of The Chestertown Bank of Maryland, was held Wednesday in Chestertown and resulted in the re-election of the following: Messrs. Alday Clements, Richard D. Hynson, Charles T. Westcott, Marion deK. Smith, F. H. Harper, James S. Harris, Samuel Vannort, E. S. Valliant, James W. Chapman, Tilghman Shafer, W. Frank Hines, William W. Beck, Curtis E. Crane and Elmer E. Leary. The board organized by naming Alday Clements, president, Richard D. Hynson, vice-president, Marion deK. Smith, attorney, Allan A. Harris, cashier, Jas. W. Crouch, teller, Merrick Clements, book-keeper. The banks' condition was shown to be in splendid shape and its earnings rapidly increasing.

Tolchester Co. Loses.—Joseph Scharnagi obtained a verdict for $500 against the Tolchester Beach Improvement Company in Part 2 of the Superior Court yesterday in his suit for alleged illegal arrest and imprisonment on the steamer Louise. Scharnagi was locked in a room on the steamer for 20 minutes on July 10, 1905, while on his way to Tolchester Beach. He said he was seized and locked up while he was listening to someone who was playing the piano. For the company it was testified that Scharnagi was acting boisterously and was warned twice before he was seized. This was denied by Scharnagi. The case was tried by Messrs. Thomas G. Hayes and John H. Grill for Scharnagi and Messrs. William F. Porter and James P. Gorter for the company.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Pippin celebrated their twelth wedding anniversary in a most delightful manner last Thursday evening. Notwithstanding the inclement evening all was joy and brightness at the Pippin House. The guests were met at the door by Masters William Smith and Irving Sparks and little Miss Lillian Anthony who ushered them to the cloak rooms. The bride, tastily attired in a white mulle gown trimmed in lace, and groom in full dress received the guests in the front parlor which was decorated in good taste.

The appearance of the dining parlor was especially unique, the decorations being the handiwork of Miss Amelia Jardan, of Baltimore, Mrs. Wm. A. Smith and Mrs. Harry Anthony, the colors being pink and white. The favors of salad, harlequin, cream, coffee, confectionery, &c., were served in a most recherche manner and prepared with the skill of an expert.

The presents included a beautiful black silk dress, stand covers, drawn work, towels, silk ties, napkins, &c., &c.

Amoung the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Milby, Mrs. Hiram Brownley, Mrs. Elizabeth Healey, Misses Ida Fisher, Annie Brownley, Amelia Jardan, Rebecca Milby, of Baltimore, Mrs. Charles Lane, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and others.

Spencer Hall, the home of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Wood was the scene of a brilliant affair on Tuesday, November 13th, in honor of the ninth birthday of their son Franklin. A sumptuous dinner was served at six o'clock consisting of roast pig, roast turkey, oysters and other substantials, and refreshments.

The table was decorated with evergreens and chrysanthemums and in the center of the table were nine small lighted candles. The evening's entertainment consisted of music and games. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wood, Mr. and Mrs Frank Sappington, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crow, Misses Annie Sappington, Lea, Sophia, Mary and Francis Willson, Magdeline Sappington, Mildred Fogwell, Ada Pearce, Messrs. James Kendall, Wickes Sappington, Frank and Raymond Ford. Many nice presents were received. All departed for their homes about twelve o'clock wishing Franklin many more enjoyable birthdays.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mrs. William Pinder died at her home near Crumpton one week ago last Sunday afternoon, about one o'clock, aged 22 years, of typhoid fever, after an illness of about two weeks. Funeral services were held at her late residence the following Tuesday morning at 10.30 o'clock and interment made in Crumpton cemetery. Mrs. Pinder lived with her aunt, Mrs. Frank T. Gardner, Queenstown, for several years and, after her marriage a few years ago, resided on the "Bloomingdale" farm until the first of the present year. She is survived by several brothers and sisters.

Died at his home Church Creek, Dorchester county, Md., near Cambridge, October 26th, 1906, of brights disease and after an illness of six years suffering, Jeremiah Spicer, Esq., aged 68. He had Dr. Goldsboro and Linthicum and two other physicians attending him, and was nursed by his only son Bernard Spicer and his daughter Ruth and his loving wife but it was all in vain, that dread desease was conquerer and claimed him as its victim. He has gone forever, but that forever or time will be spent with his God and his holy Angels. Among his last words were "I want to go and live with Jesus, and Jesus is calling me now." He married Miss Annie Keene. daughter of the late Moses Keene for his first wife and Miss Alice R. Rouse, daughter of the late Robert H. Rouse for his second wife, having married her in Sept. 1896. Their only child a daughter died in infancy. He leaves a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson and a brother Theophelos Spicer on Taylor s Island, his home, and a host of friends. Mr. Spicer taught school 28 years 23 of which was in one school.

Mrs. Patrick Haily, of near Galena, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Galanger. She died from cancer and had been a great sufferer for a year.

Sterling Evans died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Evans, Rolph's Wharf, Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Sterling had been a sufferer for months with tuberculosis and his parents left no stone unturned to bring him back to health. Last year he went to the mountains of New York and then to Arizona, but the dread disease could not be checked and he came home to his parents' home to spend the last days of his life where he was given loving care and attention. He was 27 years of age and besides his parents leaves four brothers and two sisters. Mrs. S. P. Townshend, of Chestertown is a sister of the deceased.

A very quiet wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Julia Mallalieu on Thursday last. The contracting parties being Miss Julia Johnson, grandaughter of Mrs. Mallalieu and daughter of Mrs. Jennie Johnson, and Mr. Arthur Tyler, of Virginia. Miss Johnson met the gentleman at Frostberg where she attended school the past two years. The happy couple left on the afternoon train for Bethlehem, Pa., where they will make their home, Mr. Tyler having a position at that place. Best wishes to the young couple.

A WRECK on the Queen Anne's railroad Thursday night at Sudlersville injured the conductor and several others, but no one seriously. It was caused by running into an open switch.

Prof. W. C. Travers, of the Maryland Agricultural College, has been in Kent this week inspecting the nursery stock of H. L. Boyd. He complimented Mr. Boyd on his stock and said they were absolutely free from scale or disease.

Have You a Friend?

Then tell him about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Tell him how it cured your hard cough. Tell him why you always keep it in the house. Tell him to ask his doctor about it. Doctors use a great deal of it for throat and lung troubles.
