SAILOR JOE'S NEW TONGUE

We were on a pleasant voyage up the Irish Sea, and sitting upon the bridge talking of things concerning the Kingdom of God, when our attention was directed to the sailor who was steering. He had a bright, sunny face, which seemed to lose none of its brightness and cheerfulness, although the rain was beating down upon him pitilessly. We watched him for a while as he stood at the wheel, and heard him singing brief snatches of familiar hymns. We sat watching, and sometimes joined in a sweet refrain, until the time came for him to go off duty, and then one of us asked how long he had known the Saviour, for we felt sure that he was a Christian.

"Well" he said "I was brought to the knowledge of the truth four years ago next April, in the Red Sea whilst, on a voyage to India. If you will just step here in this sheltered corner, I will tell all about it."

We turned and were delighted to hear this bonnie sailor spin this yarn.

"As I have already said to you," began the sailor, "I was 'born again' in the Red Sea. It was there that a great turn-about took place in my soul. Ah! the dear Lord has wrought wonders for me. And it came so sudden like that it took everybody by surprise. I should have thought that it would have taken a year or two or more to have turned me to the right-about; but bless you! it all took place in a few hours. Well, it happened in this way: I was walking up and down the deck one day in company with another man, almost as bad as myself, cursing and swearing dreadfully. You have no idea to what lengths I used to go. It seemed I couldn't speak without uttering an oath. This time I saw one of the crew, a Christian young fellow, looking straight at me, but this only exasperated me and I began to swear all the more. A minute after and he walks up to me, and says he, 'Joe, how long have you learned to pray?'

"'Pray!' says I; 'catch Joe Smith praying. He never prayed in all his life!'

"Then almost without knowing it, I uttered some awful words which caused the young sailor to turn deadly pale and skake all over. He draws up to me again, he puts his hands upon my shoulder and says he, 'Joe, listen to me one minute—just one minute, Joe. You have offered several prayers since I have been listening to you. Suppose God was to answer them, where would you go? Joe, you would go straight to hell.'

"'Out with thee!' says I; 'I do not want to hear thy preaching.' And I marched off to the other end of the deck.

"The other sailor said to me: 'Quite true, Joe, what that young fellow said. And to tell thee a little more, we are tired of thy swearing tongue. Joe, I tell thee plainly the devil has put a good deal too much soot in thy mouth.'

"'I can put up with that new sailor a-preaching,' says I; 'nobody hears him swear; but I will not put up with any lecturing of thine. Why, you're as bad as I am, and worse.'

"If I be,' says he 'so much the worse for you, Joe Smith, for when I came here my tongue was as clean as a blossom. I've learned this business off from you, mind that, Joe Smith.' And away he went down below.

"Would yon believe it, I never swore after that! Never a word!

"I sat down upon a heap of ropes, and, for the first time for many years, I felt a tear or two trickling down my face. While sitting there the young Christian sailor came up to me and sat down by my side, and began to talk to me. Said he: 'Do you not know that God is on the sea as well as on the land? The great God who made heaven and earth and the sea loves you and wants to make you a new and better man. Shall we just kneel down and ask Him to do it here and now?

"He did not wait for an answer, but immediately dropped down upon his knees. I hardly remember a word of his prayer, but when he had finished he asked me to pray for myself. I was fairly broken down and sobbed out, 'God have mercy upon my soul! Stop my swearing tongue! Oh Lord, forgive my sins!"

"Gentlemen, I don't think God did forgive me that night, but He seemed to put a new tongue into my mouth.

"Yes, He gave me a new tongue!

"The crew to a man were almost frightened, and when the captain heard of it he came up to me, and says he, 'Joe, I'm right glad to hear that you've got a new tongue.'

"'Yes,' I said, 'that's true enough, captain, but 'tis One above as has given it to me!'

"Quite true,' says he, 'no one else, Joe, could have done such a wonderful thing!'

"From that night to this I have never uttered a profane word. One night I dreamed that I was cursing, and in the morning, when the dream came to me, I cried like a child, and I couldn't rest until God had forgiven that dreadful dream.

"The new tongue brought a new heart, and I soon found out that the Christian's life is grand. God bless that young man for speaking to me in the way he did. He is now chief mate of one of the finest ships afloat. At the last port I received a letter from him, and says he, 'Steer away, Joe, and sing the songs of glory as you sail along!'

Pretty Hands,

Hands delicately moulded and daintily white are among the chief of woman's charms. When such hands are marred by eruptions, their very beauty draws attention to the repulsive disease. Humors which break out on the body begin in the blood. Soaps and salves may cover up a humor but they can't cure it. There is a cure for salt-rheum and other eruptive diseases, caused by a corrupt condition of the blood. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures these diseases perfectly and permanently. It carries off the poisons which cause disease. It makes the blood pure and rich. It increases the quantity of the blood supply by increasing the action of the blood making glands. It makes the skin white and clear by making the blood pure.

"Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whisky or other intoxicant.

"I write to tell you the benefit I have received from your 'Golden Medical Discovery,' after having suffered for three years with salt-rheum," writes Miss Bertha Peters, of Lulu, Monroe Co., Mich. "The humor was on my hands, and I had been treated by our home physician who did not help me. After I began the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery I took seven bottles, and can now say with pleasure that I am cured. Nobody knows the intense pain I have suffered. I could not sleep at night, the stinging, burning, and itching sensation would be so bad, sometimes I could hardly bear it. I thank you for your kind advice."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets assist the action of the "Discovery" when there is constipation.
