CHESTERTOWN, - - MARYLAND

RICH NECK FARMERS CLUB.

On Thursday, Jan. 24th, the Annual Corn Meeting of the Rich Neck Farmers' Club, of Queen Anne's, was held at the home of Judge Charles H. Jefferson, the members showing the finest lot of corn ever seen in this section. Prof. Hartley from the Bureau of Plant Industry, Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., lectured on and judged the corn, selecting five lots of ten ears each in the following order: Albert Story, first, W. Irving Walker, second and third, H. P. Skipper, fourth, and Albert Story, fifth. The business sessions of the Club are exceedingly interesting and instructive from the sound of the Gavel; the executive committee secures for nearly every meeting one of the best authorities in the countty on the subjects to be discussed. At 5 45 o'clock a recess was ordered for the purpose of partaking of another one of Rich Neck's famous suppers. Those present were: Chas. H. Jefferson and wife, W. Irving Walker and wife, S. R. Hurlock and wife, Albert Story and wife, Jas. T. Anthony and wife, Chas. Baxter and wife, Harry Tucker and wife, William Baxter and wife, J. Frank Baxter and wife, Josiah Massey and wife, H. H. Klinefelter and wife; Messrs. Thos. Bowers and W. S. Collins, of Chestertown, J. McRochester, H. P. Skipper and H. F. Jefferson; Misses Fannie Anthony, Katie Catlin, Jane Rochester, Mabl'e Jefferson, Helen Jefferson, Jessie Anthony and Lillie Rochester.

MILLINGTON ITEMS.

Mr. Charles Tonkin, of Middletown, Del., spent a few days in town this week with his father, Pror. Henry Tonkin.

Mrs. Seward Barwick, of Sudlersville, is the guest of her parents at the Hotel Bailey.

Mrs. Mary Heibbard is visiting her sister, Mrs. Andrew Lockerman.

Mr. Harry Amos, of Clayton, Del., spent the day Wednesday in town.

Three happy boys, namely Stuart Price, Ross Duling and Spencer Stevens, accompanied by Mr. J. L. Smith left here on the early train Monday to spend the day in Philadelphia where they visited several places of interest one place being the Zoological Garden where they saw many interesting things, the day was not one half long enough for them. Every boy and girl should visit the Zoological Gardens.

Miss Lena Higman is visiting friends and relatives in Philadelphia. Miss Higman acted as maid of honor for her friend, Miss Emma Clendaniel who was married to Mr. L. Smith Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Dudley entertained the Millington Card Club at their home near town Thursday of last week.

Several of our town people are suffering from the effects of colds and grip. Prof. G. B. Taylor was compelled to give his scholars holiday two or three days this week. Mrs. C. M. Hurtt and Miss Florence Tolson have been housed several days and Dr. Fred Walls has been quite sick at his home on Main street. We hope the cold bracing weather of the past several days will have an improving effect on the health of the community.

During the cold weather of the past few days many of our young people have been skating on the mill pond which is a beautiful sheet of ice and they have greatly enjoyed the exhilerating sport. This pond and other ponds around have enabled those who have ice houses to get them filled with some fine ice.

The breaking of a lamp in Dr. N. Comegy's drug store Wednesday evening of last week caused a little scare for a short time. The fire bell rang but by the time the fireman reached the spot the fire was out doing little or no damage.

Mr. Wm. Britton, formally one of our town boys but for several months past a resident of Burlington, N. J. and Miss Olive Warner, of Rock Hall, were quietly married at the home of the bride Thursday last. They will reside in Burlington where Mr. Britton holds a lucrative position as a carpenter. We extend our congratulations to the young couple.

Mr. Lindey Smith with his bride who were married last week arrived on the evening train that day where a team met them and took them to their home near town where an informal reception was held.

LETTER FROM FLORIDA.

CHULUOTA, FLA., Jan. 29, 1907.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The orange trees that were partially injured have shed their leaves and are now putting out new ones, with the new leaf comes the bud; in a few days they will open. The growers are quite anxious, for a cold night within the next 30 days means destruction of new wood and the crop for 1907. The unaffected trees will not put new leaves and blooms for four to six weeks yet.

I spent several days last week on the St. Johns river, eight miles east of here and forty miles above Sanford. Sanford is the head of navigation for steamers. The river proper where I was is quite narrow, say thirty to fifty yards wide and crooked with shoals that have not over two feet of water over them at present, say four feet when the river is in normal condition. Florida is suffering for rain just a few showers only for three months. The river winds its way through prairie as far as my eye could reach, dotted here and there with clumps of cabbage palmetto trees, otherwise an uninteresting level open area eight to ten miles wide, emptying into the river are numerous small lakes, the haunts of the finny tribe where the fisherman haul their seins catching black bass, pike speckeled perch, breim, snad and cat fish which are saleable, also suckers, mullets, mud fish, gars; terrapins that are not saleable.

The price of all fish are low down here not over half the Baltimore price. Splendid hook and line fishing for bass in the river, my information is that the law permits only two ways of taking fish on the upper St. John, haul seine and hook and line. An expert hook and line fisherman can earn four to five dollars per day and with a small tent can be comfortable along the river all winter. Hand fishing is not profitable if the river is high, that is above normal, there are times after heavy rains that the prairie is one vast sheet of water. Some ducks, black heads, (called raft duck here) mallards, teal and plenty of snipe. The river offers splendid opportunity for a party of four or eight to camp, hunt and fish.

R. T. TURNER, JR.

EACH home and business house should own a fire extinguisher. Three big fires have been averted in Chestertown by the prompt arrival of one of these machines.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

Richard D. Hynson, Esq., and Mr. James G. Beck were given the first degree in Masonry at Chester Lodge last Wednesday evening.

Miss Flossie Lane, of Baltimore, is spending a few weeks with her mother. Miss Lane will also spend some time in Wilmington and Philadelphia. After her trip she will take up her trade dressmaking in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Dill, of Tolchester, spent Sunday with her sister, Miss Flossie Lane.

The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Z. Roland this week and left a fine boy. A baby girl was also left at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton L. Jarrell, on Maple Avenue.

Mrs. Margaret Sheats is visiting her son in Baltimore county.

We are sorry to report the serious illness of Mr. S. Dewberry at his home in Rich Neck.

Col. Wm. J. Vannort is still confined to his home by sickness, but is somewhat improved at this writing.

Mr. Samuel B. Coleman, of Wilmington, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. George S. Biddle.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Vannort have returned from a pleasant visit to their grandson, Master Vannort Chapman.

Mr. Charles Harrington and Miss Justina Hunter, of Centreville attended the "Queen Sabe" club which met at the home of Mr. Thomas Bramble, near Kennedyville, on Friday night of last week.

Mrs. Partridge and son, Dan, of the South, are guests of her sister, Mrs. Lewin W. Wickes, on Front street.

Mrs. Bragdon, of Philadelphia, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. H. B. Martin at the Episcopal rectory.

Mr. Harry Hurlock is spending the winter in the twin cities of St. Paul and Minneapolis. He says the mercury stood at 20° below zero there this week.

Mr. Samuel Mann has returned from a trip to his brother in Wilmington. He says the new passenger station of the P. B. & R. R. Co. was opened last week and the public were admitted Monday.

Rev. W. L. White was unable to occupy his pulpit in the Chestertown M. E. Church Sunday because of sickness. He has sufficiently recovered to be out and hopes to be at his post Sunday.

Miss Ella Ryan, of Rock Hall, who has been in the Maryland General Hospital since November is slowly improving. She has had three operations performed, one was for appendicitis. Miss Ryan is a great sufferer but has borne it patiently.

Miss Jennie Davis, who has been sick for the past two weeks, is able to be out again.

Mrs. J. E. Ferguson is visiting friends in Philadelphia.

Miss Little, of Baltimore, is visiting friends in Worton.

Dr. W. Frank Hines has been elected a vice-president of the Third Maryland Conference of Charities and Correction to be held in Baltimore April next.

Mr. Wm R. Pippin has accepted the agency of the Baltimore Life Insuance Co., heretofore held by Mr. Wm. H. Brown, being initiated this week by General Agent Mershall.

Mr. Walter E. Hill has been spending several days with his parents, Capt. and Mrs. Daniel Hill, near Kennedyville. Walter is one of Baltimore City's hustling business men, as noted in the NEWS before, has just resigned his position as secretary of the Baltimore City Fire Commissioners and will devote his whole attention to his increasing gas and electrical supply business. He is an honor to his native county of Kent.

Mr. J. Raymond Simpers, of the Kent County Savings Bank, spent several days in New York the past week.

Mr. W. Bradford Copper, cashier of the Second National Bank, of Chestertown, was in New York the past week on business.

Mrs. M. B. Mann, of Baltimore, is the guest of her brother and sister, Mr. P. G. Wilmer and sister on Queen street.

Mrs. John M. Toulson entertained a number of ladies on Tuesday afternoon at a "Military Eucher" party in honor of Mrs. J. Arthur Bradley. The first prize was won by Mrs. Bradley.

Mr. John S. Vandergrift entertained a select company of friends at an "after lodge" feast Wednesday evening. Mrs. V.'s talent was proven beyond question.

Mrs. James Roy Micou entertained the Ladies Card Club in honor of her guest, Miss Nannie Munnikuysen, of Belair.

Miss Bessie Ivens and Marion Rash won the prizes at the social held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dewberry, near Worton last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis E. Crane gave an elegant entertainment on Thursday evening at their beautiful home on Water street, Chestertown. The whole house was thrown open in dispensing bountiful hospitality and the ninety guests were charmed and entertained in a most delightful and masterly manner. The guests were first entertained at progressive eucher and twenty tables were brought into requisition. The first ladies prize was won by Mrs. J. Roy Micou; the first gentleman's prize by Mr. L. W. Wickes. Collation and refreshments were served to the large company in perfect manner. Mr. and Mrs. Crane are adepts in the line of entertaining as her nearly one hundred guests upon this occasion will attest. It was the largest affair of the kind ever held in this vicinity.
