FARM IMPLEMENTS,

has to present to his friends and patrons a full line of such goods as are seasonable to supply the trade at all times of the year. We handle which takes the lead in corn planting in this country for simplicity and accuracy.

The DEER CORN PLANTER,

Improved SULKY CULTIVATOR

One man can accomplish more work than two with the old 5-tooth, and can do it far better. We have secured a new style Spring-Tooth Sulky which excels anything now on the market, and which we are selling, to introduce them, at a very low price. Come and examine this tool and get our quotations. We can also furnish you the well-known "Iron Age" Sulky Cultivator from our stock at rock bottom prices.

The Deering Binders, Mowers, Rakes AND TWINE are the leaders in this line throughout the world, and we have represented them here for the past 19 years with the greatest satisfaction to ourselves and patrons.

BEST HORSE SHOERS

in the State, we will give your horse careful attention if brought to us. We have been established in Galena for which is an assurance that we are here to stay, and if you will call here we will supply your wants in our line at short notice, and at the lowest prices. Your patronage of the years past has been greatly appreciated, and hoping that you will continue with us, thank you in advance for same.

Yours respectfully,
W. A. HYLAND, Galena, Md.

"Good Times"

that we read about everywhere has succeeded in steadily advancing the prices of all Raw Materials (iron, steel, lumber, etc.,) used in the manufacture of

Sewing Machines,

and the time may not be far off when it will be absolutely necessary for us to raise our price at least Twenty Dollars. We hope not; but if you are thinking of buying a new machine, our advice is, do it now. The new ball bearing, light-running, No. 9 is the style to have.

FUNERAL A FROLIC.

"The Lady of the Casket" Buried —The Occasion a Holiday.

Wilmington, Mass., May 24.—The funeral of Mrs. Frances Breeziaee Hiller, yesterday, was as spectacular as the $50,000 coffin, her gorgeous burial robe and the $500,000 mausoleum.

Mrs. Hiller was inordinately fond of display, but none of her achievements in life attracted the attention given her funeral.

The proceedings, aside from the brief church service, were not marked with solemnity. Country folk for 10 miles around poured into town early in the day, bringing baskets of provisions. The townspeople made a holiday of it, too, and the place looked as it does when the circus is here.

A few minutes after 9 o'clock the funeral car, drawn by four black horses elaborately caparisoned with funeral fittings, arrived from Woburn. It took 10 men to carry the 700-pound coffin out of the house, and they had much trouble placing it upon the funeral car.

The irreverent crow d standing about yelled, "Go-heave-oh!" in unison as the perspiring pall-bearers struggled with their heavy burden, and the small boys cheered when it was finally placed in the car.

The route to St. Thomas' Roman Catholic Church, a mile from the house, was dotted with lemonade and peanut hucksters and other fakirs, who noisily yelled out their wares as the funeral cortege moved along.

The funeral car and the nine carriages were followed by a laughing boisterous crowd of several thousands on foot. The little church held but 300, and there was a terrific crush by the thousands who could not get in to witness the services.

From the church the funeral procession moved to the famous Hiller mausoleum in Wildwood cemetery.

SANG HIS WAY TO FAME.

Mr. Tom McNulty, Baltimore's Campaign Singer.

Mr. Tom McNulty, who was recently appointed a member of the Jail Board by Mayor Hayes, is a noted singer. Mr. McNulty sings during campaigns, he sings at funerals, and he is kind enough to sing anywhere when asked.

According to Mayor Hayes, Mr. McNulty's sweet voice has done much for democracy. The mayor gave this as one of the reasons for appointing him on the Jail Board. Mr. McNulty is good looking and always has a good word for a friend. In talking of his experiences the other day, he said:

"My first experience in politics was when, in 1885, Dr. Cole was elected in the Third Congressional district, and he put me in the Government Printing Office at Washington. Then in 1887, when Mr. Latrobe was running for mayor, I made my first hit as a political singer when I went with him in his canvass singing "The Old Gray Mare." It took so well that in future campaigns, all the time I was in the Tax Department, I took part in every campaign, singing appropriate songs. I was with Governor Whyte and Governor Jackson and Vic Baughman when they stumped in the State, and my songs were heard in all the counties. I was always a strong Cleveland man, and during his candidacy I sang in Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania 'You're Going to Be Elected, Grover Mine.' I was with Mayor Davidson when he ran, and then when Frank Brown ran for Governer I sang 'Farmer Brown,' probably the most popular of all my campaign songs. When Mr. Cowen ran for Congress I sprung some tariff songs that made a pretty good hit, but 'Farmer Brown' and 'The Old Gray Mare' beat them all for popularity, though 'Honest Tom,' the song I used in the last Mayorality campaign, made a pretty good hit, too."

AN APRON WORTH $50,000.

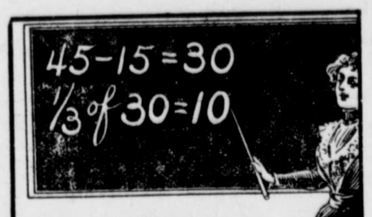
There has recently come to light an apron—probably the most exquisite example of needlework extant—that busied the fingers of the hapless Mary Queen of Scots, during her long imprisonment, and served to divert her mind from her impending doom at the block. The fallen sovereign—all hope gone—centred her interest upon it during the latter part of her long confinement, and created the masterpiece of needlework. Just before her execution she secreted her prized apron under the lining of one of her robes which kept her treasure safe until recently the garment was ripped apart. Its history has since been fully authenticated through letters written by the ill-starred Queen to a friendly ambassador at Paris who smuggled the materials out of which it was wrought into her dungeon. By strange chance the apron came into the possession of an American, who has refused $50,000 for it, and has also declined $5000 for the privilege of unraveling a single stitch to learn its secret, which is a mystery to all the experts. Its owner has consented, however, to its reproduction in large size in the June Ladies' Home Journal.

Not for the Geography Student.

The Sahara is not a barren waste, as popularly supposed. Not long ago there were 9,000,000 sheep, 2,000,000 goats and 260,000 camels in the Algerian a million and a half of date-palms.



Ten Lost Years.

Figure it for yourself. From the age of fifteen to that of forty-five a woman gives one-third of her time to the suffering incident to the recurring periodic function. Ten years of suffering! And this condition of things is popularly accepted as natural, and endured as a feminine disability for which there is no help! Is there no help? There is help for every woman and for almost every woman perfect healing in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It insures regularity, dries the drains which weaken women, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It is a temperance medicine—non-alcoholic and non-narcotic.

"I was so weak I did not have breath to walk across my room," writes Miss Isabel Miller, of New Providence, Calloway Co., Ky. "My periods occurred too often and the hemorrhage would be prolonged and the loss of blood very excessive. I also had spells which the doctor said were fainting fits. I did not gain strength from one monthly period to another; was very weak and nervous all the time. Was confined to my bed for three months and the doctor told me I would never be any better. I lived, in this way from sixteen years old to twenty-three. I was at last advised by a kind friend to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which I did, and before I had taken two bottles of it I could work all day. I took in all six bottles of the 'Favorite Prescription' and about five vials of Dr. Pierce's Pellets I used no other medicine. I have never had a return of this trouble since."
