ROCK HALL ITEMS

Hurrah for Tom Howard. He got many hard knocks by the oystermen during the fight over the Haman Oyster bill. After all he's the "stuff," and we apologize for what ever we may have said in the gone by. All honor to the brave commander for his "stand by the Cull Law" backed by the Court. This whole plant catching scheme by the Hamanites is a dangerous one to the interests of the oystermen, and it is hoped that something better will be had by the next law making body.

So many of our friends of Skinner's Neck are seen patronizing our merchants. This is well pleasing to the merchants of this place, and we all rejoice in their prosperity, but it is rather inconvenient for the Neckers. Why shouldn't others of our merchants essablish a good store in Skinner's Neck and thus enlarge their trade to the benefit of their coffers? We like to see our neighbors among us often and long, but we feel for them on their return trip to home laden heavily with the necessaries of life. A store over there would be a good thing.

If first-class plowmanship and a heavy spread of barn yard manure counts for much, Mr. Frank Wilkins will have the "boss" corn tillage in the District. We don't know who did the plowing, but he is a master hand at the work.

Miss Carrie Satterfield was taken suddenly ill in the Fellowship meeting in the M. E. Church on Sunday afternoon. Willing hands did herole service in her behalf and soon had her restored.

Miss Daisy Ryan, after a two months rustication among friends in Quaker Neck returned home on Sunday, and by her return, Miss Edith Ryan is relieved from arduous household and kitchen work and is now taking a vacation by putting in full time at the wrapper factory.

Mrs. P. G. Ashley is finding her notion store room too limited for her largely increasing trade. She has had the building turned around, running East and West instead of North and South as heretofore, and is erecting thereto a 12-foot addition.

Possibly few there are who have been equal to their opportunities and are now as well prepared for a life beyond as they might have been, but mighty few there are who are not glad that April's "ball of yarn is wound up," and it is hoped, too, that her freaks, fickleness has not been transferred to beautiful May.

Mr. A. J. Andrews met with a painful accident on the last day of the oyster season while operating his deep water tongs on the bar. The tongs encircled a tremendous stone or other heavy obstruction which caused the operating line to snap and he was hit a terrific blow on the head and face. A gash was cut clear through his face to the gums which required stitching. His head internally seems to be somewhat injured, as he is constantly experiencing unpleasant symptoms. He is getting along all right, however, at this writing.

Mr. Wm. Saunders, after a long illness, died on Monday. His funeral at the Methodist church took place Wednesday afternoon, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Burr. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Saunders.

Mrs. S. J. Stevens has moved from Grey's Inn Creek where she has long resided to the Judefind property.

Capt. Budd Sewell is freighting lumber from Leary's factory to Sassafras river.

One of the biggest attractions in this town these days is a fine specimen of the booby owl on exhibition in one of the large front windows of Alexander & Son's store.

In consequence of the attendance of Rev. Mr. Compher at the commencement exercises of Western Maryland College there will be no preaching at the M. P. Church tomorrow. Sunday school session at 9 a. m. will be held. This school under the efficient superintendancy of Mr. M. L. Maslin is most interesting and a great pleasure for any one to attend. There is a corps of faithful, energetic officers and teachers and the whole system of the school is engineered with promptness and dispatch, yet the lesson study is thorough and spiritually applied in telling effect. There is no disturbance of class work by any official, their work being done so quietly one hardly knows when or how. There is no complaining or discord from any source. The song feature is most inspiring.

The ladies of the M. P. Church are now busy in giving the parsonage a thorough renovation and hope to be all through with the work ere the pastor's return. Mr. Compher will occupy his pulpit on the 12th.

SASSAFRAS ITEMS.

Mr. Jacob F. Shallcross left on Monday last for Norfolk, Va., and will take in the Jamestown Exposition.

Mr. T. Otherson and two nieces, Misses Mary and Alice Walters, entertained the Mite Society under the auspices of the M. E. Church on Thursday last at an elegant poultry supper. Ice cream and cake were served in abundance.

Miss Mary Dreka has been lying seriously ill for the past week. Dr. Pearson, of Middletown, attending her. Miss Mary is one of the sweetest young ladies of this town and we trust she will soon be well again.

Mr. Frederick Robinson purchased on Thursday last the farm of Mr. E. Marsh, of near Warwick, of about two hundred acres. Mr. Robinson is one of our most industrious wide-a-wake young farmers. He will still remain on the present farm near Sassafras.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis H. Dreka tendered their daughters a brillant party on Saturday evening last. The last dance of the season and the large company had a most delightful time. An elegant collation of ice cream, etc., was served.

Mrs. Frank Sylvester attended the Teachers Association in company with her daughter, Miss Grace Sylvester, at Chestertown on Friday last and was very much pleased with the interesting session.

The death of Miss Jennie Owens on Tuesday last was very sad. She was a sister of Mrs. Charley Griffith with whom she had resided for some years. Miss Owens was a most lovely Christian lady and had been an invalid for many years. She was buried last Thursday beside her parents at Middletown cemetery.

Mrs. Fletcher Wilson purchased a very beautiful and safe horse on Monday. A high stepper.

Mrs. Therza Shallcross returned home from Philadelphia on Saturday last, after several months sojourn in the Quaker City.

Mrs. Henry Rosin is visiting her sister and niece in Baltimore this week.

Misses Elizabeth and Mary Anderson were necessiated to close their schools for several days this week owing to the tragic death of their uncle, Mr. Patrick Anderson, of Cecilton, who died in Philadelphia Hospital on Sunday.

STILL POND NOTES.

Miss Mary Anderson has been visiting her parents in Cecilton the past week.

Mrs. Hanson Crew, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mrs. James H. Warren.

Mrs. S. C. Severson, our milliner, has been in the city this week selecting a fine stock of summer millinery. Call and see her before purchasing elsewhere.

Mr. John Greer has returned to his home in Washington after spending several weeks with his aunt, Mrs. James H. Harris.

Mrs. John Parrott is visiting relatives in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Harper spent the past week with relatives in Baltimore.

Miss Jennie Bowers, of Washington College, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bowers.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hackett spent Wednesday with Mrs. M. E. Whaley, of Chestertown.

Miss Mabel Norris has been quite sick at her home for several days, but is now improving. We hope to soon see her at her duties.

Master Howard Harper entertained quite a number of his little friends on Wednesday evening from 6 to 8, it being his sixth birthday.

The monthly social and business meeting of the Epworth League was held on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. J. B. Crowding. Quite a number were present.

The supper and festival held by the Epworth League at the hotel the past week was well attended. The amount taken in was $112.00.

Several removals took place in our town this week. Mr. John Robinson, Jr., removed to the Crowing house; Mr. Charles Jewell takes the house vacated by Mr. Robinson.

Mrs. Charles Walters has returned home after spending several days with relatives in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Rev. E. H. Habbett and wife, of Delaware, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Wood. Miss Alice and Ida accompanied them home on Thursday.

LYNCH LOCALS.

Miss Emma Melvin, of Camden, N. J., is visiting Miss Lillian Melvin.

Mr. Merrit Coleman took a flying trip to Wilmington, Del.

Mrs. William Copper has returned after a pleasant visit with relatives in Baltimore.

The Annual Children's Day service will be held in Lynch M. P. Church on May 26. Preparations are being made by the young ladies to make the program a successful one.

Our newly appointed pastor, Rev. G. A. Morris, filled the M. P. pulpit on Sunday afternoon and was welcomed by a large congregation. His text taken from 1 Cor.; 8:9, "But take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours become a stumbling block to those who are weak," was well appreciated by his attentive auditors.

Christian Endeavor services were led Sunday evening by Mrs. Thomas O'Neal. The attendance to these meetings have increased during the last month and a great deal of interest has been taken. We still hope to see more come out.

Preaching next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Christian Endeavor service at 7:30.

Owing to circumstances over which there was no control the N. S. T. Society of Lynch school will not hold its luncheon in the school house on Saturday night.

Mrs. Stanley Matthews, of Still Pond, was the guest of Mrs. James Matthews, Sunday.

Accidents.—Noel, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse H. Usilton, of Worton, was kicked quite severely in the face one day last week by a horse, while at play in the barnyard. Dr. Frank Smith was called and took several stitches in the wound, and the little fellow is doing well. It was a narrow escape.

Elizabeth, the pretty little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace W. Reed, fell out of a swing several weeks ago and fractured a bone of her elbow. The exact nature of the injury was not discovered until some days later, and owing to the delay it became necessary to take the little sufferer to a specialist in Baltimore last week.

Belt, the little four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Townshend, fell from the fence Friday and broke both bones of his right arm between the wrist and elbow. Drs. Dodd and Simmons reduced the fracture and the little fellow is doing as well as could be expected.

Marry or Go to Jail.—Following in the footsteps of Fort Dodge, Iowa, the City Council of Guilford this State, has passed an ordinance requiring all unmarried male citizens between the ages of 18 and 60 to wed. As an alternative to taking a wife the ordinance provides for a penalty of a $10 fine to any stubborn-minded masculine believer in single-blessedness or becoming an inmate of the town calaboose for thirty days.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Great Councilor of the Universe, in his wisdom to remove from our midst, our Brother, George T. Rollison, of Rock Hall Council No. 149, Jr. O. U. A. M., by whose death the council has lost a worthy and zealous Brother, his friends a true and trustworthy companion and his family an affectionate and loyal member. Therefore be it

Resolved, that we commend his family and friends to the watchful care of the Omnipotent Councilor who is the comfort and consolation of all those who are desolate and oppressed and remind them that although we shall meet him no more in this vale of tears, our Brother has passed the outer courts of the Heavenly Temple and is free from the cares and sorrows of the transitory existence. And be it further

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of Our Order. A copy be presented to the family of our deceased Brother, and a copy be sent to our county papers, and as a token of our grief our charter be draped in mourning a period of 30 days.

Submitted in V. L. and P.
W. W. CLAYTON, Chairman;
CHARLES S. PORTER,
MAX. ALEXANDER,
Committee.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving but sad remembrance of our dear baby, Anna Elizabeth Leager, who departed this life April 25, 1904.

Just three years since last we parted,
Friends may think the wound has healed,
But God only knows the sorrow
That's within my heart concealed.
Think we while the tear drops start
But the memory of our dear loved one
Still is fresh within our hearts.
A place is vacant in our home,
A place we cannot fill,
A voice we loved so dear to hear
Is now forever still.
