one week from this date, at which time a full Report could be made.

The Matter of the Sexton came up for consideration and after much discussion Mr Harrop was appointed a Committee to engage a man whom he had in view, with full power to act in the matter, with regard to securing his services to act as Sexton of St. Mary's Church and Cemetery, at once, if such could be immediately arranged, and the present Sexton's services be dispensed with from date of such arrangement.

Upon discussion concerning the Church furnaces, Mr. Knowlden was authorized to have the same put in proper order and condition for immediate use.

The Treasurer promised without fail, to have the spouting completed about the School-house, within four or five days.

The Rector reported having called at Mr. Shadi's place of Business, with regard to the organ matter, but failed to find him in.

Mr. Harrop requested the Treasurer to instruct the Sexton to light the lamp at Church door on Sunday nights, which was promised by the Treasurer, that he would do so.

A Bill of Nine, 45/100 dollars was presented for payment, the same being account advertising Church services in the "Sun" paper, and it was ordered to be paid.

The Registered called attention to the fact, he discovered an error in the Sexton's Account, on the Ledger, that he had been over paid to the extent of Twenty 25/100 dollars, and asked leave to correct the same, which was granted by the Vestry.

At a late hour, it was, upon Motion being seconded adjourned until Wednesday evening, Nov. 15th 1893.
