PERSONAL TIDINGS

The Coming and Going of Friends and Relatives—Kent is Filled With Summer Guests.

Prof. Wm. G. Smyth and wife, with Miss Florence Nicholson and Miss Bertha Jump, of Fairlee, and Miss Anna Smyth, of Chestertown, left here last Wednesday and took passage from Baltimore on Thursday for Jamestown. They expect to take in the great Exposition and visit other interesting points and return in ten days.

Mrs. Wm. Bordley and daughter, of Baltimore, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Smith on Washington avenue for a week. Mrs. B. is one of Baltimore's sweetest singers and delighted a large congregation in Christ Church Sunday evening by rendering a most beautiful selection.

Rev. Dr. J. Frank Bryan and family, of Reliance, Del., are the guests of relatives in Kent. Dr. Bryan says the truck growers of lower Delaware are making good money out of berries and potatoes.

Mrs. Frances Hynson and daughter, Mrs. Macie Barron, of Baltimore, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. David Kendall are entertaining the former's mother from Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. John Moore, of Pittsburg, Pa., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. W. Perkins, on Front street. Mr. and Mrs. Moore have just returned from a ten days stay at the Jamestown Exposition.

Miss Effie Goodman and sister, Miss Lulu Goodman are visiting their sister, Mrs. F. F. Whitely, in Talbot county, and on their return will stop in Baltimore and visit their friend, Miss Lida Kirby for a few days, and also their uncle, Thomas Hadaway.
