The Light of the World, or Our Saviour in Art.

Cost nearly $100,000 to produce. Contains nearly 100 full-page engravings of our Saviour and His Mother by the world's greatest painters. True copies of the greatest Masterpieces in the art galleries of Europe. Every picture is as beautiful as a sunrise over the hilltops. Contains description of the paintings, biography of the painters, the names and locations of the galleries in Europe where the originals may be seen. Also contains a Child's Department, including a Child's Story of the Christ and His Mother, beautifully written, to fit each picture. This wonderful book, matchless in its purity and beauty, appeals to every mother's heart, and in every Christian home where there are children, the book sells itself. Christian men and women are making money rapidly taking orders. A christian man or woman can in this community soon make $1,000 taking orders for Christmas presents. Mrs. Waite, our agent in Massachusetts, has sold over $3,000 worth of the books in a very short time. Mrs. Sackett, our agent in New York, has sold over $1,500 worth of the books in a very short time. The book is printed on velvet-finished paper, beautifully bound in Cardinal Red and gold, and adorned with Golden Roses and Lilies. It is, without doubt, the most beautiful book of this century. Write for terms quickly and get the management of that territory. You can work on salary or commission, and when you prove your success we will promote you to the position of Manager and Correspondent, at a permanent salary, to devote your time to attending to agents and the correspondence. Mother-in-Law-to-Be as Best Man.

That the mother of the bride should act as the "best man" for the groom seems rather anomalous.

The romance that brought about this curious result was that of Miss Edith Kimball, the only daughter of the Hon. James Wesley Kimball, of Newtonville, and Dr. Karl Schmidt, of Germany, whose wedding took place last evening in Grace Church, Newton.

The groom being a stranger on this side of the water, although he had made many friends, felt that there was no one so near to him in kinship as his mother-in-law-elect, and, as the bride's father was to give her away, he invited her mother to accompany him. Then, too, the thought found expression in the desire of the bride, who had always said that if ever she were married she should have both mother and father take part in the ceremony. Carefully the secret was guarded until yesterday, when it became known that the best man at the wedding was to be a woman, and, as a consequence, the church was crowded, not only with the relatives and friends of the bride's family, but with the curiosity inclined ones of the city who accidently heard of the affair.

The Living God.

A poor woman left with her eight children and hardly a crust in the house or a coal in the grate may fall a-prying, and open the Bible at some grand psalm, and wet it with her tears, and pledge God to it; and somehow, she could not tell how, but somehow the angel came and help arrived, and the darkness was mitigated, and the morning upon the far-off hills, and she took heart again; and boy after boy went out and turned out to be good and useful, and at the end of a long period of trial she says to the atheist: "What has your no-God done for you, you fool? This is what my living God did for me; what has your no-God done for you?" And before you can destroy that woman's argument you have to destroy that woman's character; she is living, she is there to sign, seal, deliver, corroborate.—Jos. Parrer, D. D.

A Village Blacksmith Saved His Little Son's Life.

Mr. H. H. Black, the well-known village blacksmith at Grahamville, Sullivan Co., N. Y., says: "Our little son, five years old, has always been subject to croup, and so bad have the attacks been that we have feared many times that he would die. We have had the doctor and used many medicines, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is now our sole reliance. It seems to dissolve the tough mucous and by giving frequent doses when the croupy symptoms appear we have found that the dreadful croup is cured before it gets settled." There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by M. A. Toulson, druggist, Chestertown Md.

Headache may be called a woman's ailment. Some men suffer from it. But almost all women have to endure its pain with each recurring month. This fact points at once to the intimate relation between the health of the delicate womanly organs, and the general health of the whole body. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription banishes headache by banishing its cause. It cures the diseases which irritate the delicate womanly organs, fret the nerves and waste the strength. It increases the vitality and builds up the nervous system. "Favorite Prescription" contains no opium, cocaine or other narcotic.

"I want to praise your medicine," writes Mrs. Sarah J. Burney, of Cresent City, Putnam Co., Fla. "I have been sick for twenty years, and have been almost in bed five years, and now I am able to work all day. I have taken eight bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and four of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and one vial of 'Pellets.' I praise your medicine to all. I had the headache but it is gone. My throat is well and cough gone, and all my old troubles are better. I tried many other kinds of medicine and four doctors."
